CELEBRATING

VITAL CONGREGATIONS <=> FAITHFUL DISCIPLES

Growing Communities of Compassion

As part of the North Carolina Annual Conference's focus on local church vitalization and as an extension of the Episcopal Initiative, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples, the Committee for Annual Conference Program selected Growing Communities of Compassion as our 1989 Conference theme. This theme underlines the intent of our new vitalization effort.

Persons need community. Persons want to be compassionate. We seek to be a family who does this in the name of Jesus Christ.

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

I. COMPOSITION

The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is composed of:

- 1) The eastern portion of the former North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Protestant Church.
- 2) The former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church South.
- 3) The coastal region of the former Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church.
- 4) The Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference, Central Jurisdiction.

II. ORGANIZATION

The organizing dates of the four former Conferences were as follows:

- 1) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church 1828, at Whitaker's Chapel in Halifax County, North Carolina.
- 2) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1837.
- 3) The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, 1879, at Greensboro, North Carolina, first named Southern Central Conference; two years later, 1881, renamed Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference.
- 4) The Eastern District North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference was organized at a special session on August 11, 1964, at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

III. SESSIONS OF THE CONSTITUENT CONFERENCES BEFORE UNION IN 1939: (See 1988 Journal.)

IV. UNION: The Unification of the North Carolina Conferences was accomplished by the Unification of the three major branches of American Methodism in the United States at Kansas City, Missouri, May 10, 1939.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

Section I: Rules of Order

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak out only once on any one motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
 - a. Any person desiring recognition by the presiding officer may use red or green card indicating on which side he/she wishes to speak.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him/her) shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to ten (10) minutes except by consent of the Conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.
6. The Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the Annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the Conference.

Section II: Voting

1. Voting shall be by "yes or no" or by a "show of hands" or by "standing" or by use of voting card as supplied in member's packet at the discretion of the chair.
2. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting. The results of a count vote shall be printed in the Journal. The chair may call for a count vote if he/she is in doubt as to the outcome of the vote.
3. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the Conference. The bar of the Conference shall be determined by the Conference at the beginning of the first session.

Section III: Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

1. The election of clerical delegates shall be by secret ballot. (Each person eligible to vote shall indicate his/her choice of names for the places ordered by the chair on the secret ballot without prior nomination, with balloting to continue until a majority is received by sufficient persons to fulfill the needed number of delegates.)
 - a. Any lay person who is a member of the United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Conference who wishes to be a nominee may submit a resume, not to exceed 200 words. Resumes may also be submitted on behalf of a prospective nominee.
 - b. Consent of the nominee should be obtained after the nominee has been informed of the duties of a delegate.
 - c. Any lay member of the Church may be voted for whether a resume is submitted or not.
 - d. Resumes should be mailed to the Conference lay leader by April 1 of the year prior to the upcoming General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 - e. The list of nominees and their resumes will be prepared and distributed by the Conference Board of Lay Life and Work at the District Briefings or be mailed with the Book of Reports.
 - f. The election of lay delegates shall be by secret ballot as above. Electors may vote for any eligible person, whether nominated as above or not.
3. All votes shall be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the Conference.
4. Ballots shall be numbered consecutively and only ballots with the number announced by the chair shall be valid. Defaced ballots will not be valid. (If a member defaces a ballot, he/she may exchange it for a new one at the secretary's desk.)
5. Each member will place his/her own ballot in the ballot box held by a teller.
6. Different colored ballots will be provided for lay and clerical members.

7. The names of persons receiving less than ten votes shall not be reported to the Conference.
8. Five alternates to Jurisdictional Conference shall be elected.
9. A ballot will be considered invalid in the following cases:
 - a. Any electronic ballot which is not marked clearly and darkly with a number 2 lead pencil. (Any the scanner will not read.)
 - b. More or less than the maximum number of votes permitted on that particular ballot.
 - c. Voting for a person already elected.
 - d. Voting for someone not eligible.
 - e. Voting twice for the same person.

Section IV: Conference Structure

1. The Bishop and Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Conference, except in those cases where the Discipline or the Annual Conference directs otherwise.
2. Near the end of each quadrennium, the heads of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall submit a list of qualified, suggested nominees to the Bishop and the Cabinet for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees.
3. Recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.
 - a. At the beginning of each quadrennium all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, and Committees shall elect their officers only after all their members have been notified of the organizational meeting. A member of the Cabinet or the Conference Staff (designated by the Cabinet) shall serve as the convening officer for the organizational meeting.
 - b. All elections in the Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by written, secret ballot of those present and eligible to vote. Nominations from the floor may be made.
 - c. The presiding Bishop shall be requested to announce the Cabinet assignments to the various Boards and Agencies at some point during the Annual Conference.
 - d. Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, commissions, and committees shall be eight years, with one exception: the Board of Laity where tenure shall be six years for members and four years for the Conference lay leader. (The Conference lay leader may serve also the unexpired term of his/her predecessor.)
5. The membership is to be as outlined in the complete Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan found in the 1989 Journal.
6. The Conference structure shall be as determined by the charter of the Conference Council on Ministries. In addition there shall be a coordinator of ministerial relations/administrative assistant to the bishop with such duties and responsibilities as determined by the Annual Conference or assigned by the residing bishop.
7. The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
 - a. The position of Conference Secretary shall be continued on a part-time basis with adequate funding provided.
 - b. The responsibilities of the Conference Secretary shall be defined as follows:
 - 1) To fulfill the duties and functions of the Conference Secretary as adopted by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

- 2) To edit the Conference Journal.
- 3) And such other duties as are stipulated by the Annual Conference.
 - a) Provides for the Local Entertainment Committee any necessary information pertinent to Conference entertainment, and to provide the names and addresses of all persons (guests, delegates, and reserves) to be invited and entertained, including early arrivals.
 - b) Provides delegate registration cards with complete information, by districts,
 - c) Serves as a member of the Annual Conference Program Committee and responsible for the printing and the distribution of the Conference Program as planned by the Bishop and the Program Committee, also the Book of Recommendations,

 - m) Provides required statistical information for General Church Agencies,
 - n) Serves as Conference archivist and custodian of historical artifacts and information of antecedent conferences,
 - o) Receives and retains surrendered credentials.
- c. The position of Conference Secretary shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.
- d. Proper provision shall be made in The United Methodist Building in Raleigh for the protection and the preservation of all records, historical data, etc. of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church and (and any antecedent conferences) dating prior to the Union of 1939 now being held by the Conference Secretary and the Conference Statistician.
- e. Assistant Secretaries: The Secretary shall nominate his/her assistants and the Conference shall elect.
- f. Conference Stenographers: The Conference Secretary shall employ the Conference stenographers.
8. The Conference Statistician:
 - a. The position of Conference Statistician shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, with adequate funding provided.

- b. The position of Conference Statistician shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.
9. Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also, the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.
10. The Conference Lay Leader: The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Annual Conference following General Conference on nomination by the Bishop and Cabinet and the Executive Committee of the Board of Laity. Should the vacancy occur at any other time it would be filled by the same procedure. The Conference Lay Leader shall serve as the chairperson of the Board of Laity.
11. Committees and Boards:
 - a. The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
 - b. There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference secretary, the host district superintendent, the chairperson of Local Committee on Entertainment, the Conference lay leader, the Conference president of the UMW, the UMY, and the director of the Conference Council on Ministries. They shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
 - c. There shall be an Entertainment Committee composed of three ministers and three laypersons. The Committee shall be elected at the session of the Annual Conference after the meeting of the General Conference. The Committee shall receive invitations and recommend to the Annual Conference the place and method of entertaining the Annual Conference. A local church or other institution may host the Annual Conference upon acceptance of the invitation of the Annual Conference.
 - 1) When no invitation has come from the local church or other institution, the Annual Conference will be held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College on alternating years (held at Methodist College until Wesleyan has an auditorium).
 - 2) The Cabinet will designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district (when the Conference is held at Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College) which will be responsible for ushers, flowers, and other related items of hospitality.
 - d. There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the Conference secretary, and the district superintendents. They are charged with the responsibility of providing for all details of the memorial service. The Conference secretary shall serve as its chairperson.
 - e. There shall be a Committee on Daily Minutes elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
 - f. There shall be a Committee on Appeals appointed quadrennially, composed of five members whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Buildings, or any other questions that may properly come before it.
 - g. There shall be a Committee of Rules which shall provide to the Conference a document of Rules of Order and Procedure and the policies and standing rules and structure that the Conference from time to time shall adopt for its functioning. This document shall be presented to each Annual Conference.

- h. There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually at the first session of the Conference.
- i. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Reference which shall schedule all resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference, including resolutions from boards and agencies printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports. This scheduling will not constitute a recommendation for approval, disapproval or referral of such a resolution. Any resolution not in Conference publications will be reviewed by this committee, which shall recommend to the Annual Conference approval, disapproval, or referral to another board or agency. With each report the committee shall state the rationale for the recommendation.
12. No person may serve on more than one board of trustees of an institution to which trustees are elected by the Conference.

Section V: Financial Administration

1. The Conference treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present its report to the Annual Conference only after all other committees, commissions, boards, and agencies having claims on the budget have presented their report.
3. Each district superintendent shall furnish the Conference treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the amounts budgeted by each local church for Conference apportionments; and a schedule of salaries of clergy as budgeted shall be sent to the presiding bishop.

Section VI: Reports, Resolutions, Motions, and Amendments to Report

1. All reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the Book of Recommendations shall be sent to the Conference secretary, typewritten or in some other form acceptable to the Conference secretary, on or before the date approved for such by the Council on Ministries and published in the Conference calendar.
2. Resolutions presented to the Annual Conference, other than those printed in conference publications, shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary with copies for all members of the Annual Conference. Such resolutions shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. A resolution is considered "presented" to the Annual Conference when it is distributed in Conference publications or distributed to members on the floor of the Annual Conference after authorization by the Conference secretary and chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference. No resolution shall be distributed later than the second night of the Annual Conference session. All resolutions shall be referred to the Conference Committee on Resolutions and Reference. The committee shall report to the Annual Conference daily.
3. Motions presented to the Annual Conference and amendments to motions shall be in writing and placed in the hands of the Conference secretary prior to or when presented or immediately following.
4. Any report, recommendation, resolution, or motion requiring funding over and beyond the Conference budget as presented by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary with copies for all the lay and clergy members of the Conference. Such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. No such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be distributed later than the second night of the Conference. All such reports, recommendations, resolutions, or motions shall be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

Section VII: Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference - Statistics

1. Final remittances for the current calendar year shall be made to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches.
3. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
4. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

Section VIII: The Conference Journal

1. The Conference secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: the Conference claimants, lay members of the Conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference, and lay members of the Annual Conference. The Conference secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he/she may deem advisable. Three copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $10.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference treasurer and credited to the Journal Account.
3. That the Conference shall publish a one volume Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.

Section IX: Districts

1. The number of districts shall be twelve.
2. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one Annual Conference to take effect at the next Annual Conference. A majority may change the number of districts.
3. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
4. The district president, sub-district presidents, and the local church presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference, in addition to those named by the 1972 Discipline.
5. The district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendent and the Conference lay leader.

Section X: Displays at the Annual Conference

Display tables and similar matters shall be allocated by the Conference secretary only to those agencies directly related to or a part of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Section XI: Amendments

These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day a proposed amendment has been presented in writing, providing that the rule governing the manner in which the number of districts may be changed cannot be amended until the next Annual Conference.

Section XII: When the Rules Become Effective

These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

1989-1990 CONFERENCE MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORD OF

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

SPECIAL SESSION

OF THE 1988 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Saturday, March 4, 1989

Special Called Session of the NC Annual Conference: The special session of the 1988 NC Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, met at 10:00 a.m., March 4, 1989, in the sanctuary of Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, NC. Proclamation for the call was distributed earlier in the year by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr.

Session Convened: Following opening music rendered by organist Bill Weisser, Bishop Minnick called the Conference to order. He recognized Conference Secretary Ted Wilson for motions of organization.

Conference Secretary Ted Wilson made motions concerning the bar of the Conference as Edenton Street sanctuary including balcony and choir loft and those persons who were to be granted privilege of the floor. Bishop Minnick called for adoption of these motions and they were approved.

Wilson moved that registration and roll of the session be by green registration cards which was approved.

Business of the Session: Bishop Minnick told the Conference that the business of the Conference was limited to that indicated in the call by his office, and speeches were to be made only to that call. The hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung by the Conference.

Opening Remarks and Introduction: Bishop Minnick offered prayer and then spoke of the quadrennial theme, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples. He said this was not simply a thematic slogan but a summation of gospel and commandments to go forth into all the world. He spoke of the presence of Dr. Kennon Callahan and his book entitled "12 Keys to an Effective Church", this being a basis for part of today's program, and how Dr. Callahan would speak to us and give of his wisdom and expertise in the areas of local church vitalization. He said revitalization is to be the theme, and the essential message and purpose of our being here today. Bishop Minnick invited Dr. Callahan to come, take the podium, and present the outline and message regarding the "12 Keys to an Effective Church" and its possible usage in the NC Conference.

12 Keys to an Effective Church: Callahan began with prayer, then spoke of four basic planning principles to help develop vital congregations. He said the church culture of the 40s and 50s is no longer with us, that in many parts of our world as much as 60 and 70% of the population is unchurched.

He proposed additional stages for local church planning sessions. He recommended that we (1) help our church list its present standing; (2) help our local church to find primary step for its direction; and (3) access our strengths of the church in light of the 12 essential characteristics of the effective church.

In summation, Callahan continued to speak of use of the 12 key system. He then asked for questions to which he would respond. The Conference responded to his presentation with a round of applause.

Recess: Following a brief recess, Bishop Minnick called the session back to order.

Resolution: He said we would now be reading the Task Force on Vitalization's resolution concerning the adoption of this program. Jane Smith (a member of the Task Force) read the document which had already been distributed. As she was not a member of the Annual Conference, she asked for a point of personal privilege and it was granted. She presented the following resolution for the Task Force:

Whereas, the mission of the Church is to be an intentional presence of Jesus Christ; and

Whereas, a local congregation can be described as increasingly effective when it can identify by name a growing number of persons served in that mission; and Whereas, the Annual Conference has a responsibility to help local congregations move toward such a ministry; and

Whereas, such help would include finding and acknowledging where God's grace precedes us in this work, doing the local long range planning necessary for effectiveness, establishing local church priorities for immediate agenda, determining specific next steps for the achievement of the goals in the local church, implementing action which accomplishes the mission, and evaluating the effectiveness of the mission; and

Whereas, the Council of Bishops is calling all United Methodists to find ways to respond to an initiative on Faithful Disciples < = > Vital Congregations;

Therefore, be it resolved that the NC Annual Conference undertake a four-year program of local church vitalization; and

Therefore, be it further resolved that during the four years, at least one hundred fifty congregations participate in the intensive phase of program; and

Therefore, be it further resolved that the vitalization program include the "Twelve Keys to an Effective Church" described by Dr. Ken Callahan with staff adequate for implementation; and

Therefore, be it further resolved that funding for the vitalization program be provided by non-budget grants from the Council on Finance and Administration; and

Therefore, be it further resolved that the program be administratively related to the Bishop; and Therefore, be it finally resolved that this vitalization program begin July 1, 1989, and that it conclude July 1, 1993, with interim reports made to each regular session of the Annual Conference.

Sam McMillan moved the adoption of the resolution. It was seconded. The Bishop asked for discussion and recognized Langill Watson to ask his questions.

Watson wondered about financial impact on the Conference. He stated that he felt it would have some effect on programs of the Conference already in place. Secondly, he wondered about the administration of the program. He emphasized that he was simply presenting questions that should be discussed.

Herb Stout spoke to the funding and said these would come from 25 to 30% of the supplementary appropriations and the other 70% of the supplementary appropriations would continue to be utilized for other work.

The Bishop also responded. He said the program would impact intensively on 150 to 200 congregations but we would have the potential to impact each of the congregations of the Conference because of the variety of training opportunities that would be made available so that the other churches could take it upon themselves. He called on Belton Joyner for further explanation. John Jansen spoke to the number of people that would be chosen to provide assistance to other churches as well as their own. He was concerned about this, wondering if it could be accomplished with the present Conference Council on Ministries staff.

Belton Joyner felt it could not be done with our Conference staff as it would mean cutting back on the programs that were in place now and working.

Dr. Callahan stated it could not be the district superintendents as they already have their portfolios full and their responsibilities in place. Sam McMillan also responded to Watson's questions.

Russell Richey questioned budget items for consultants.

Stout responded that he would have to give subjective answer to subjective matter. He remarked that we usually acknowledge quality work with pay, therefore, some honorarium should be given.

Gwen Henderson asked if lay people could be considered as candidates for consultants. Dr. Callahan responded that lay persons could apply.

Mark Wethington asked whether or not this would cut down on funds for Hunger and Human Need. Cashar Evans replied and spoke about grants being awarded based on need.

Ralph Brown asked about selection of target churches and equitable distribution according to church size. Bob McKenzie answered that churches would not be picked on basis of size, but interest and need.

Rufus Stark spoke in favor of the program.

John Crowe asked about legislation allowing student pastors to vote today. Bishop Minnick answered this could not apply until June when there would be a ruling by the Judicial Council.

Janet Huebsch expressed concern by lay members that the money should be added to the budget and not be supplementary appropriation.

Vote on Resolution: Wallace Kirby then gave a summation of the resolution. The Bishop stated the motion was now before us and he outlined people who were eligible to vote today and called upon the body by asking those who favored the motion to stand, then those opposed to stand. It clearly passed overwhelmingly.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick gave thanks for the thoughts and prayers that all had given this proposal. He expressed appreciation to Dr. Vernon Tyson, pastor of Edenton Street United Methodist Church, and to his staff, who had provided the place for our meeting. He then called for joining together in the "Litany on the Nature of the Church" as our concluding prayer for the morning. The congregation sang the hymn "O Zion Haste", and the benediction followed. The Conference was adjourned.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

EXECUTIVE SESSION

OF THE 1989 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Thursday, June 15, 1989

Prelude: Prelude in Classic Style by Gordon Young was played by organist for this session, Barbara D. McClure of Grace Church, Wilmington.

The Executive Session for all Ministers in Full Connection: Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presiding, called the Executive Session to order in Reeves Auditorium at Methodist College in Fayetteville at 10:30 a.m.

Hymn and Invocation: The Bishop called for the singing of Hymn 224, Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine. Bishop Minnick then led in prayer.

Report of Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Minnick called upon Woodrow W. Wells, Jr., chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, to present the report of the board.

Wells moved adoption of the report. Questions 19 - 54 were answered as necessary in the affirmative. Candidates for Associate Membership were presented first. Candidates for Probationary Membership and Deacon's Orders were presented. Candidates for Elder's Orders and Full Connection were presented and the historic questions were asked by the Bishop and answered by the candidates. All were elected. (All answers to the questions will be found in the business of the Annual Conference in this section of the Journal with portions of it also in Section II and in Section V.)

The names of the deceased were read and the Bishop called for the ministers to stand for silent prayer. The Bishop then led in prayer.

This concluded the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Bishop Minnick called for the approval of the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry as a whole. It was adopted. Chairman Wells was given a round of applause.

Miscellaneous Matters: The character and conduct of the district superintendents and the other clergy were considered and passed unanimously. Interim Conference Secretary James Coile was called upon for announcements.

Hymn: Hymn 150, A Charge to Keep I have, was sung.

Benediction: The benediction was given by Bishop Minnick and the Executive session was adjourned.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Thursday, June 15, 1989

General Session for All Lay and Clergy Members: At 1:25 p.m., following the prelude by Barbara D. McClure, organist for the business session of the Annual Conference, the General Session of all lay and clergy members was called. The session began with the traditional singing of And Are We Yet Alive. This was followed by a service of Word and Table with Holy Communion for the Annual Conference members and visitors. The celebrant was Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., assisted by members of the cabinet and other clergy. Communion was received by the entire Conference assembled with special music, singing, instrumental playing, with great dignity and meaning. Reeves Auditorium was completely filled. Bishop Minnick preached the Communion sermon and left all in a pensive mood as they received the elements.

Recess: Following the Communion Service, the Bishop declared there would be ten minutes given to clear the stage and prepare for the convening of the Conference for business:

Conference Convened: Bishop Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., called the full Conference to order, noting that this was the one hundred sixty-fourth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church. The Bishop offered greetings to all present and stated that there was no one who enjoyed the gathering at Annual Conference more than he. He then observed that this was true of most who were present who also came with great fervor. Bishop Minnick expressed appreciation for those who offered group singing, solos, and instrumental music during the service of Holy Communion, and they were accorded a round of applause.

Annual Conference Address: Bishop Minnick renewed the urge to growing commitment, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples, as he brought the address for the opening of the session. The Bishop said he did not know what to call this particular portion of the service - it wasn't an episcopal address and it wasn't a keynote speech, but it was simply the lifting up of some thoughts and ideas that he, as Bishop, wished to express to the congregation and to all the many churches of the Conference. The Bishop expressed rejoicing in the good stewardship of the people but felt it could be much better. He urged the people to consider the tithe as a minimum. Bishop Minnick spoke of the focus of the Conference, the Capital Funds Campaign, and the increasing of a vital congregational life. (For complete text of the Bishop's address, see Section V of the Journal.) The Bishop spoke of open itineracy, of missions, of the many facets of compassionate concern demonstrated in the church. During his speaking, he was interrupted by applause several times. Bishop Minnick concluded his address indicating the addition of the words, "Growing Communities of Compassion," to the Annual Conference theme. He asked that the Conference continue to praise God from whom all blessing flow. The Conference responded with great applause.

Greetings and Welcome: Bishop Minnick called upon Dr. Elton Hendricks, president of Methodist College, to bring words of welcome. Hendricks responded with an observation on how it was always such a joy to see old friends and meet new friends the many times the Conference had met in Reeves Auditorium. He called attention to the fact that every year the auditorium seems smaller as the number of people become larger. He urged people who were concerned about special needs to be sure and call upon the staff so that the experience of being at Methodist College would be an enjoyable and pleasurable one. He called on Bill Lowdermilk to come out and Bill received an enthusiastic round of applause for his effectiveness. Dr. Hendricks indicated that Bill began working on Annual Conference shortly after Christmas every year. He invited members of the congregation who were so inclined to meet at the site of the new building being constructed on the campus at 5:00 p.m. for a walk-through of the building in its initial phase.

Greetings: Bishop Minnick called upon the Honorable J. L. Dawkins, mayor of the City of Fayetteville, to bring greetings on behalf of the citizens of the city. The mayor indicated the pleasure of the city in being host and of having had the privilege of watching Methodist College grow. While he stated he was Southern Baptist, he mentioned that in a recent meeting he had been asked who were some of the real heroes of the City of Fayetteville and that he had placed Bill Lowdermilk at the top of the list. He wished everybody a good week and stated that he was open to any comments concerning Fayetteville.

Recognition of Host District Superintendent: Bishop Minnick presented the Reverend Helen Crotwell to bring greetings to the Conference. This year the host district was the Fayetteville District and Ms. Crotwell thanked Bill Lowdermilk as one who had helped on the District committee as well. She also spoke warmly of Louise Peterson and her contribution with helping the planning of the Conference on behalf of the district. She wanted to express her appreciation for Carolyn Tyndall who for years has helped with the Communion Service by taking care of the Communion elements. The Conference responded.

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Minnick brought a personal matter of his missing the late Ted Wilson, and the Conference's missing him, and for the spirit of creativity Wilson had brought to the position of Conference secretary. Conference Secretary L. T. Wilson died May 9, 1989. The Bishop asked that the whole Conference join in silent prayer in thanksgiving for the life and ministry of Ted Wilson for his many years of service.

Election of the Conference Secretary: The Bishop stated that the Cabinet had selected James H. Coile for this interim position. Nominations must be made, however, and Coile was nominated by Owen Fitzgerald. Bill Cummings moved that the nominations be closed and Coile be elected by acclamation. It was done.

Organization of the Conference: Bishop Minnick recognized Conference Secretary James Coile for rules concerning the organization of the Conference. Coile presented the following motions which were approved.

"I move that the registration kept by the registrars at the registration tables be designated and declared the official roll of the Conference; that the bar of the Conference be the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium; that the program contained in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 (as amended by the chair) be the official program of the Conference; that persons appearing on the program who are not members of the Conference be granted the privilege of the floor; that the committees and persons printed on pages 7, 8, and 9 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 be elected."

Coile made certain changes in the program regarding the Conference staff. Secretary Coile indicated that there would be changes regarding the selection of the Committee on District Conference Records this year and with certain changes on pages 7, 8, and 9 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. Bishop Minnick put them before the Conference and they were approved.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: Bishop Minnick presented Charles Cook to speak to certain recommended changes. In Section I on page 11 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 there was a change regarding the use of the green and red cards. In section II, item 1, the words "by use of voting cards at the discretion of the chair," are to be added. These changes in the rules were adopted. (Complete corrected Conference Rules are found in Section I of the Journal.)

Amendment: Robert Pullman moved, on page 13, Section IV, 4d, to: "change 'his predecessor' to 'his/her predecessor.'" The motion was accepted and Section IV was approved.

Regarding Section IV, item 5, it was indicated that we are not voting on the report on Lay/Clergy Equalization, which is found on page 67, but rather where the plan could be found. Cook read Section V, item 3; on page 16 to the Conference and it as moved and adopted. Cook's next amendment was to Section VI, item 1. He pointed out that the amendment simply took out the words "in triplicate." The amendment was adopted. The next amendment was to Section VI, item 2. Cook read the amendment as it is found on page 16.

Question: A question was raised about this amendment by John Jansen. He asked about the mechanical implementation of the provision that every clergy and lay member receive a copy of every resolution submitted. Cook's response was that such provision is already part of the Annual Conference rules. Cook pointed out that the purpose of the amendment was to enable the Committee on Resolutions and Reference to present the resolution to the floor at a scheduled time each day of Conference.

Amendment: Bill Norton moved that "all reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the Book of Recommendations shall be sent to the Conference Secretary, typewritten or in some other form acceptable to the secretary, on or before the date approved for such by the Council on Ministries and published in the Conference Calendar."

Bishop Minnick put Norton's motion on hold long enough to point out in answer to Jansen's question that there are no facilities for making copies at the college. The Bishop called for the vote on the amendment to Section VI, item 1. The amendment was adopted and Norton proceeded to make his motion. The Bishop called for a vote on Norton's amendment and it was adopted. The Bishop called for approval of Section VI, item 2, as amended and it was adopted.

Cook placed before the Conference Section VI, item 3 as it was to be adopted by dropping the words "in triplicate." The amended version of this rule was adopted. Cook moved the addition of Section VI, item 4 on page 17, which he then read to the Conference. Bishop Minnick called for a vote on the amended Section VI, item 4, and it was adopted by the Conference. Cook placed before the Conference Section VIII, item 2, which was amended to raise the price of Journal copies from $5.00 to $10.00 each. Bishop Minnick called for a vote on this amendment and it was adopted. Cook then placed before the Conference Section X: Displays at the Annual Conference. Bishop Minnick asked for the vote on the addition of this section and it was adopted by the Conference.

Bishop Minnick asked for the vote on adopting the Conference Rules as a whole and they were adopted without dissent.

Introductions: Bishop Minnick called upon Conference treasurer Herb Stout to introduce to the Conference the members of his office staff. Stout announced that Danny Blackman, who cannot be present today, is the new assistant treasurer-business manager of the Conference. He introduced the others by name, being Teresa Barbour, Caroline Buckland, Kelley Farthing, Meredith Henderson, and Alison Smith. Stout described the extent of the many duties which they have in the Conference treasure's office and lauded the work which they do. They received a heartfelt round of applause from the Conference.

Report of the Committee on Nominations: Belton Joyner brought the nominations for Conference boards and agencies before the Conference. He offered the following corrections to the report of the Committee on Nominations: On page 1, the report is of the Committee on Appeals; on page 2, add Lawrence Lugar as at-large Member and officer of the Commission on Archives and History; on page 16, Council on Finance and Administration, delete the name Vernon Tyson and add George Jones, 1989; on page 27, Commission on Status and Role of Women, delete the name George A. Jones under At-large, and add the name Eric Carson, 1989. On page 31, Joyner pointed out that the Committee on District Conference Records has been reduced to three and there is a new Pastor's Moving Expense Committee. He referred to those who are on that committee. Joyner brought the report of the Committee on Nominations before the Conference for it to lay on the table overnight to be acted upon in tomorrow morning's session. (See board and agency membership listed in Section II of the Journal.)

Composite Report of the District Superintendents: The report was presented by William W. Sherman, Jr., superintendent of the Rockingham District. Sherman lifted up some of the highlights of the past Conference year including the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign, mission teams sent to various parts of the world, continued quiet but steady growth, and others. Sherman spoke at length about evangelism efforts in the Conference, lifting up some of the churches in the Conference which have had the highest numbers of professions of faith over the course of last year. At the same time, he expressed concern over those churches which have shown no membership gains and no professions of faith in the past year. He expressed concern about stewardship in the Conference and in particular the drop in apportionment payments over the previous year; however, he also expressed hope that the Spirit for Tomorrow campaign will both improve stewardship and address the need for new churches and for the renovation and expansion of camping facilities as the churches respond to the need for financial support of the campaign. Sherman, and the district superintendents for whom he spoke, also enthusiastically endorsed the Vitalization Program, its team leader, Steve Compton, and possibilities for self-examination, growth, and greater discipleship, which it will present over the next four years for the churches of our Conference. Sherman also gave an extensive list of new parsonages, fellowship halls, education buildings, and sanctuaries which have been built in the Conference over the last year. (For further details see the Composite Report of the District Superintendents found in Section V of the Journal.)

Appreciation: At the end of his report, Sherman asked Martha Brown, chairperson of the Cabinet spouses, to escort Mary Ann Minnick to the stage where she was presented with a corsage presented by the Cabinet spouses, and was at the same time given a standing round of applause by the Conference. Mrs. Minnick expressed her thankfulness for being part of our Annual Conference.

Reports of the Laity: Bishop Minnick called upon Robert C. Frazier, Sr., Conference Lay Leader to begin the laity reports.

Report of the Conference Lay Leader: Dr. Frazier began his report by pointing out the call which all Christians have to service. He referred to his own service across the Conference as Conference lay Leader in the past year meeting lay people and listening to them and representing them. He reported that the ministry of the laity is "healthy and growing," and said that this is the result of individuals and churches hearing and responding to the call of the Holy Spirit in their lives. He mentioned a number of the programs of the Conference laity including January Workshop, lay rallies, lay speaker programs, and others. Frazier applauded the election for the Reverend Joseph B. Bethea to the episcopacy and lauded both lay and clergy delegates to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of 1988 for helping to do all that they could to see Bethea elected. He also thanked the Reverend Helen Crotwell for the campaign which she waged for the episcopacy, saying that it was waged with dignity and grace. He challenged the members of the Conference to be diligent in giving directions to what he called the "house of life" which is the gospel of Jesus Christ. (For further details of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the United Methodist Men: Bishop Minnick introduced Ernie Wendell and pointed out that at Purdue this summer he will be installed as the president of the National United Methodist Men. Members of the Conference gave Wendell a standing round of applause. Wendell began his report by bringing greetings from the laity of the South Carolina Annual Conference where he recently gave the laity address. He also reported that at the South Carolina Annual Conference Bishop Joseph Bethea was "laid back, relaxed, and totally, totally in control." Wendell pointed out that with a growth in membership, the United Methodist Men of this Conference now number over 8,000. He then offered an invitation to unchartered United Methodist Men's groups to receive the charter. He lauded the fact that the combined giving of United Methodist Men in our Conference is up over 50 percent and said that the total figure topped $450,000. He told the Conference of the recent "Spiritual Recharge" in May of this year at North Carolina Wesleyan College. He called it a great success and said that the only complaint that he heard as that there was too much music - which he didn't really think was possible! He regretted that there are men in the Annual Conference who did not attend "Spiritual Recharge" and said that they had missed a great "banquet feast." He pointed out that the United Methodist Men had raised money for the chapel of the handicapped, for scouting, and for other worthy causes. He said that our church will never function fully until all of its men are fully empowered and alive to the spirit of God.

He concluded by presenting the new officers of United Methodist Men of our Conference for the coming year. Those officers are: treasurer, James Toney; secretary, Mike Register; vice president, Glenn Stevens; president, R. B. Goforth. All were met by the Conference with a warm round of applause. (For complete report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Point of Personal Privilege: Mr. Goforth asked for a point of personal privilege, which the Bishop granted, to give to Ernie Wendell a token of appreciation from United Methodist Men - a Life Membership in UMM. Mr. Goforth briefly addressed the Conference following Wendell's report, to tell the Conference and to put its members and the district superintendents on notice that United Methodist Men are going to "wake the Conference up!"

Report of United Methodist Women: Bishop Minnick introduced Jane Johnson, president of United Methodist Women, to offer her report. Mrs. Johnson told the Conference that the United Methodist Women have selected for their quadrennial theme, "Faithful Disciples - Joyful Servants." She then went into detail about what this theme involved. Mrs. Johnson also asked for the prayers of the Conference as she has been one of two lay delegates selected by The United Methodist Church of the United States to attend the British Annual Conference beginning nine days from today and being held in Leicester, England. (For complete text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of United Methodist Youth: The report was brought by the president of United Methodist Youth, David Miller. Miller humorously began his report with a catalog of the "sins" and misperceptions of youth which adults have, including such tidbits as their unwillingness to go to bed at night, the wildness of their music, and their propensity toward belching! He then continued and received a loud round of applause by quoting an expert on teenagers who lauded the abilities of teenagers and their potential and talent. He got another round of applause when he pointed out that the Youth Service Fund had raised over $25,000, exceeding their goal of $24,000. He said that the Conference Youth were about to hold the largest event in the history of youth events in the Conference - a music festival celebrating contemporary Christian music - to be held in the fall at Methodist College. Miller expressed confidence in the ability of the youth of the Conference to overcome the obstacles which the world places in the path of teenagers, citing the God-given gifts and talents that they have which they can put to use in that endeavor. (For complete text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Council on Finance and Administration: Bishop Minnick called upon Cashar W. Evans to bring the report, which is contained on pages 78-84 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. Evans began by asking members of the Council on Finance and Administration to stand to be recognized by the Conference, which they were with a round of applause. Evans applauded the efforts of the 75 percent of local churches which were able to pay 100 percent of their total apportionments, and said that it was this that made possible the ministry of the Annual Conference. He then directed our attention to pages 78 and 79, Recommended Conference Budget to be raised January 1, 1990, to December 31, 1990. He made a number of corrections in the report as it was laid before the Conference. (This corrected report is found in Section V of the Journal.) He then moved the adoption of Sections II, III, and V, found on pages 80, 81, and 83 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. Bishop Minnick asked for approval of all three sections by the Conference, which was given by a show of hands.

Report No. 1 of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: Chairperson Gwen Henderson presented the report of the committee. She explained that the Committee on Resolutions and Reference will receive resolutions from the Conference secretary and recommend approval, disapproval, or no recommendation on each resolution as it comes before the Conference. Bishop Minnick called for the three resolutions which have already been distributed on the floor to be laid properly before the Conference and the committee. Mrs. Henderson asked whether the resolutions printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 are properly before the Conference, as her committee has worked on them, but they have not yet been moved. Charles Cook, chairperson of the Conference Committee on Rules, offered a point of clarification with regard to her question, in which he understood the matter of bringing resolutions before the Conference had to do with resolutions presented from the floor rather than those in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. Conference Secretary Jim Coile added his concurrence to Cook's point of clarification, but added that he believed that resolutions printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 also should fall under the purview of the Committee on Resolutions.

Amendment: John W. Wenberg, Jr., moved "that the resolutions which come to the Annual Conference from the various boards and agencies of the North Carolina Conference that are pre-printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports need not be approved or endorsed by the Committee on Resolutions prior to coming to the floor, but rather that the Committee on Resolutions simply establish the sequence and timing as to when these resolutions come to the floor."

Scott Washington asked if clarification was needed on whether the Committee on Resolutions was in fact supposed to offer recommendations or disapprovals. In response Gwen Henderson pointed out that the committee does not have final say over whether resolutions are approved or disapproved by the Annual Conference. The Wenberg amendment to the Conference was passed by more than a two-thirds majority.

John Janson re-raised the question of whether it was a proper function of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference to approve or disapprove of given resolutions. Charles Cook responded that the committee's actions were primarily a safeguard to prevent resolutions from coming in to the floor that were not well thought out or offered too late to receive reasonable treatment from the Conference.

Motion: Malloy Owen moved to "ask the Rules Committee to write into rules of the Conference the tradition with reference to resolutions coming from the floor."

Sam McMillan asked, "When resolutions are properly presented - when we receive them or when they are moved on the floor?" Charles Cook responded that they are considered presented when they appear in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports or are moved on the floor.

Ken Ripley pointed out that the Committee on Resolutions is not mentioned in the Conference Rules and asked whether it is not necessary to establish the committee in the rules before establishing the rules by which the committee shall operate. The Bishop responded that the Committee on Resolutions and Reference could be found on page 8 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989, and was considered already established as part of the Conference. Cook called attention to notation of the committee in the Conference Rules, Section VI.2.

Amendment to Motion: Scott Washington moved to amend the Owen Motion to request that "with each resolution, a rationale shall be provided by the chair of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference when reporting daily to the Annual Conference, clarifying to the Annual Conference why the Committee on Resolutions and Reference approved, referred, or did not approve each resolution that comes before the Committee on Resolutions and Reference." The Washington amendment to the Owen motion was approved.

Bishop Minnick suggested that the Rules Committee define the duties of the Resolutions Committee for the Conference. With that the discussion of the first report of the Committee on Resolutions was concluded.

Report of Board of Diaconal Ministry: Bishop Minnick called upon Carol Dell Strange to present the report which is found on pages 63-66 in The Conference Program, Recommendations And Reports 1989. Mrs. Strange made two corrections to her report. One is to note that she is not on Leave of Absence; the other is to add the name of Bess Edwards Sawyer to her report. She moved that David M. Hines be involuntarily terminated by the Annual Conference as a professional church musician, which action requires a two-thirds vote by the Conference. Sam McMillan, superintendent of the Wilmington District where Hines serves, asked for the rationale for that termination. Mrs. Strange said that the reason was failure to complete necessary documents. Bill Simpson, Hines' pastor, spoke on his behalf and explained circumstances. Mrs. Strange defended the action of the Board of Diaconal Ministry but also indicated the Board's willingness to follow the will of the body. Francis Daniel asked if there might not be a category for those dealing with extenuating circumstances, and Mrs. Strange replied that she did not know of any. Bishop Minnick asked for the Board of Diaconal Ministry to take up Hines' question at their meeting this evening and report back to the Conference, to which Mrs. Strange replied affirmatively. The report with this exception was placed before the Conference and was approved by voice vote. (See corrected report in Section V of the Journal.)

Announcements: Secretary Jim Coile made several announcements before adjournment.

Benediction: Bishop Minnick called on E.M. Thompson to give the benediction. The Conference was adjourned until the evening session.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION, Thursday, June 15, 1989

At 8:00 p.m. the Conference was convened in Reeves Auditorium for worship with the Reverend Dr. Carol Noren of Duke Divinity School preaching. (For a synopsis of the entire service, see the worship bulletin, A Service of Worship, June 15, 1989.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION, June 16, 1989

Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in Hensdale Chapel, led by the Reverend Lisa Ann Brown.

Conference Called to Order: Bishop Minnick called the Conference to order at 8:30 a.m. and called for the singing of hymn 26, Holy, Holy, Holy. The Bishop then led in prayer.

Bible Study: Bishop Minnick introduced the study for this year which he had concluded would be Paul's letter to the Philippians. While acknowledging the common troubles of humankind in the world, Bishop Minnick stated that he wished to present the discussion of Philippians based on the concept of the gracious works and the love and the peace that shine through the Word. With the devout faith of the consummate teacher and a sense of humor that is so generously present in the Bishop, he proceeded to expound upon the topic of the morning. It was received by a full auditorium of members of the Conference and visitors with great appreciation. The Bishop closed his Bible Study by calling on the Conference assembled to sing a stanza of hymn 184, Make Me A Captive, Lord.

Report of the Committee on Minutes: Tom Holtsclaw brought the report of the committee. The minutes for the first day's session were found to be satisfactory. They were moved and adopted.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Bishop Minnick called on Dr. Kimsey King to give the report of the Conference Statistician. Dr. King began by expressing gratitude to David D. Traynham for his long and faithful service as Conference Statistician. He also expressed appreciation to Conference Treasurer Herb Stout and his staff, particularly Meredith Henderson, for their tireless work in association with him. Finally, he thanked all of those who got their Table I and II forms in on time, for which expression he received some laughs from the Conference. He noted an increase of .5 percent in membership in the Conference and said that it was significant that we were gaining rather than losing as most conferences are. He mentioned several necessary elements to be found in any growing church, including: 1. a strong Sunday School; 2. outreach to Christians moving into communities for the first time and 3. professions of faith. King also mentioned the implications of the financial reports for the year including growth in property holdings and growth in giving as being healthy signs for the Conference. He mentioned that next year new Table I and II forms will be used, which will mean we will have to change the way that we put our statistical information together. On the lighter side, King also mentioned the need to remove carbons from statistical forms and the need to put stamps on each envelope. He said the Post Office would greatly appreciate payment of postage when one is sending statistical forms! (For further details of the Report of the Conference Statistician, see Section VII of the Journal).

Greetings: Bishop Minnick asked Eric Lindblade, chairperson of the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Affairs, to escort Bishop John H. Miller, Sr., of the AME Zion Church to the podium to offer greetings from the Pan Methodist Community. Bishop Minnick humorously said that Bishop Miller had served 52 years of pastoral ministry including 17 years as a bishop, noting, "He wears well, doesn't he?" Bishop Miller received a warm welcome from the Conference for his wit and his humor and for the joy which he expressed at the work of our Conference and Methodists in North Carolina as a whole.

Report of the Methodist Board of Publication: Dr. C. Alison Simonton, Jr. presented the report to the Conference. By way of illustrating the power of the printed word, Simonton related a story in connection with a recent article in the Christian Advocate about Peru and the response of one church which raised $6,000 to help children in Peru as a result of that story. He thanked the members for their contributions to the Advocate Endowment Fund and proceeded to read the last paragraph of the Board of Publication Report found on page 126 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. The report was received with a warm round of applause. (For further details, see the report in Section V of the Journal).

Report of the Black College Fund: Bishop Minnick called on Dr. Gloria R. Scott of Bennett College in Greensboro to present the report. She thanked the Conference for its support of the eleven Black United Methodist colleges through the BCF and spoke of the influence of Black United Methodist colleges on the development of thousands of Afro-Americans over the course of the last century and more. She listed the colleges that take part in the fund, said that their combined enrollment was over 7,000 students, and indicated that their combined budgets were over $82,000,000. Dr. Scott also told the members that 63 percent of the apportioned amount for our Conference was received in the past year. She further noted that First Lady Barbara Bush gave the commencement address at Bennett this year and that this was the only commencement which Mrs. Bush gave. Scott concluded her report by presenting Bishop Minnick with a T-shirt commemorating Mrs. Bush's commencement address at Bennett College.

Recommendations of the Conference Council on Ministries: Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., presented the report on behalf of the CCOM. (For details of the report, see pages 31 - 53 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989). Dr. Joyner noted that on page 32, the dates for the first two meetings listed on the top of the page should be changed to November 14, 1989. The section titled "Program and Budget Timelines" was approved. The section titled "1989 Supplemental Program Recommendations" was approved with one change to item S4. The section titled "1990 Program Recommendations for Local Church Consideration" was presented. Dr. Joyner reminded the Conference that these are program recommendations, not program requirements for local churches. He also said that beginning next year the local church recommendations will have 10 percent of the recommendations lifted up as being of exceptional importance. He noted one change on item L1b - "May 20, Rural Life Sunday" should be added. Sam McMillan asked that "March 11, Spirit for Tomorrow Sunday," be included in the list of special days, to which Dr. Joyner assented. The section was approved with the noted changes. Under the section titled "1990 Program Recommendations for District Consideration," there were no changes, and Dr. Joyner moved adoption. The section was adopted without change.

Under the section titled "1990 Program Recommendations Directed to the Annual Conference," the following adjustments were made: 1. Item A13 should be deleted; 2. Item A21 should be deleted; 3. On A25, the dates should read January 7 and January 21. Neal Salter pointed out that Item A17 should read, "to be implemented by the Board of Evangelism."

Paul Stallworth offered an amendment regarding abortion. The Bishop ruled this out of order. Tom Melvin moved that we suspend the rules to permit this amendment and allow the Annual Conference to set the agenda for next year's Annual Conference in this respect. The motion to suspend the rules was defeated. The Conference recommendations section of the CCOM Recommendations was then approved by the Conference.

On the section titled "1990 Program Recommendations Referred to Other Agencies," Dr. Joyner said there were no changes necessary. The section was adopted without dissent. The section, "1990 Policy Recommendations," was adopted without amendment by the Conference. (For complete COM Recommendations see Section V of the Journal.)

COM Charter Amendment: Dr. Joyner called upon Robert Baldridge to present the Charter Amendment, which is found on pages 54 and 55 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. Baldridge stated that the purpose of all the amendments was to improve the cost effectiveness of the CCOM.

Baldridge moved the adoption of Section I of the proposed amendments. Ed Tyndall of Haymount UMC asked whether a new Conference position was being created by Section I, to which Baldridge replied that the work would be handled by someone already on the Conference staff. The amendment was approved. Baldridge then moved the adoption of the charter change found in Section V. It was adopted. He then proceeded to explain the purpose behind Section VI and the deletion of the various age level councils of the Conference, saying that they were duplicative of work of the Board of Education and expensive without being necessary. He said that because of requirements in the Discipline there would still be a Conference Council on Youth Ministry. He then moved the adoption of Section VI. This amendment was adopted. The entire report was adopted as a whole. (See charter amendment in Section V of the Journal.)

Return to Report of the Conference Rules Committee: Charles Cook took the podium to present amendments as directed by the Conference to the report which was given on Thursday. The first amendment is to Section IV, item 11 i, which is an addition to item 11. David Harvin offered an amendment to IV, II, i, which was an addition to item 11. He explained that the purpose of his amendment was to see to it that the Committee on Resolutions and Reference was an administrative rather than policy-making body. Malloy Owen spoke in opposition, worrying that giving the committee editing responsibilities would enable them to "mutilate" policy recommendations. Quinton Covington spoke in favor of Harvin's amendment. Scott Washington spoke against it. Sam McMillan spoke in favor of the amendment. The Bishop called for the vote on the amendment. Because of the closeness of the vote, the Bishop called for the use of cards on this vote. The amendment was defeated.

Jack Crum offered an amendment to the report. The Bishop ruled the Crum amendment out of order as being practically the same as the amendment which was just defeated.

The committee amendment adding IV, II, i was approved. Cook then placed before the Conference an amendment to Section VI, item 2. (See the amended Conference Rules in Section I of the Journal.) Quinton Covington asked if the sponsor of a resolution was responsible for not only getting the Conference secretary a copy, but also making enough copies for all members of the Annual Conference. Cook replied that photo-copying facilities were not available for Conference members use on the campus. Jim Coile stated that there were photo-copying machines, but that they are in use virtually the entire time during the Conference for a variety of duties by the Conference secretarial staff for record keeping. Ernie Wendell requested a point of clarification, asking what was meant by the expression, "Conference publications," in the suggested amendment to the rules. It was explained. The amendment to Section VI, item 2 of the Conference Rules was accepted.

Action on Report of the Committee on Nominations: Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr. came to the podium to bring the report of the Committee on Nominations before the Conference. He brought to the attention of the Conference the following correction: Page 22, under the Board of Ordained Ministry, Rockingham District, 1986, substitute Jerry Lowry for S. Dufrene Cummings. Albert Shuler pointed out that Leonard Fairley should not be removed from the Board of Church and Society on page 5; rather he should be listed as an at-large member because he is vice chairperson of the Board.

Question: A question was raised about Sam Wynn's membership on the Board of Church and Society, asking whether Wynn was in fact supposed to be on that board and someone else, who is listed in the book, not be. Lawrence Johnson asked whether Grant

Shockley should still be listed as a member of the State Commission on Campus Ministry since he had retired, to which the answer was "Yes".

The report, except for the question of the Board of Church and Society, was before the Conference. The report was accepted with changes. Joyner was asked by Bishop Minnick to investigate the question about Wynn's membership on the Board of Church and Society and to come back to the Conference before adjournment with an answer.

Joyner moved the adoption of Item #6 on District Lay Leaders in the Book of Hand-outs and it was approved unanimously. He then placed before the Conference Item #7 on the Committee on District Superintendency. It was adopted unanimously. He then placed Item #8 before the Conference on District Boards of Trustees. Tom Collins rose to say that under the Raleigh District, Class of 1991, M.W. Person, Jr. should be Mrs. M. W. Person, Jr. The item was then accepted by the Conference.

After the adoption of the report of the Committee on Nominations, Helen Crotwell came to the microphone to inform the Conference that Sam Wynn had been placed on the Board of Church and Society to replace Helen Owens. The report of the Committee on Nominations concerning the Board of Church and Society was placed before the Conference and accepted. This concluded the report of the Committee on Nominations for agencies of the Conference.

Report of the Duke Endowment: Albert F. Fisher came before the Conference with the report. Fisher stated that in the last 65 years over $850,000,000 has been given by the Duke Endowment to Duke University, Furman University, Davidson College, and Johnson C. Smith University as well as to hospitals, to local churches, and to individuals within our Conference. He expressed the opinion that the last year had been "a dazzling year" for the Rural Church Division of the Duke Endowment. (For full details of the report, see Section V of the Journal).

Report of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School: Jimmy Creech gave the report to the Conference. He stated that the theme of the Duke Convocation and North Carolina Pastors' School this year will be "Word and Deed". (For complete text of the Report, see Section V of the Journal).

Testimonial: Campus Ministry: William G. Sharpe IV was joined at the podium by three students who participate in the Wesley Foundation at their respective schools. Julie Campbell of UNC-Chapel Hill and John Lewis and Henry Jarrett of North Carolina State University spoke devotedly of their individual experiences with Wesley Foundation in their respective universities. The Conference showed their appreciation for this informative and entertaining testimonial with a rousing round of applause.

Report of the Board of Pensions: Bishop Minnick called J. Donald Phillips to the podium to present the report. Phillips made a number of corrections to the report as it appears on pages 94 - 106 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. (For those corrections, see Section V of the Journal.) Phillips moved the adoption of Report A, Sections I - IX. The report was adopted. Report B was placed before the Conference. Sarah Broadwell asked how she would make payments under the proposed new method of payments. Kermit Braswell replied that all pension payments should be sent to the General Board of Pensions and all payments for insurance should be sent to the Conference Treasurer as is now being done. Langill Watson spoke against some aspects of Report B. Herb Stout came to the microphone to clarify some portions. J. B. Helms related personal difficulties which he has had with the General Board of Pensions, indicating that he did not agree with Stout's sanguine view of the General Board of Pensions' present administration. Report B was adopted. Phillips moved Report C and it was adopted. Report D was then moved and adopted. The entire report of the Board of Pensions was then placed before the Conference and adopted. (For full report see Section V of the Journal.)

Continuation of Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry: The Bishop asked for resolution of the David Hines question from the Board. Carol Strange reported that the involuntary termination of David Hines, Martha Jo Hollowell, and Anne Jenkins is not permitted as an action of the Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry, so that was deleted from the report. Mrs. Strange then went on to say that in the matter of David Hines, the Board recommended that he be granted one year's personal leave of Absence, with the provision that he may be reinstated next year. Earle Merrill moved that Hines be continued without change of status, contingent upon the submission of his documents to the Board of Diaconal Ministry. Rob Huckaby spoke in favor of the Board's recommendation that Hines be placed on personal leave of absence. The vote on Merrill's amendment to the report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry was defeated. The report of the Board was approved. (For the full amended report of the Board, see Section V of the Journal.)

Announcements: Conference Secretary Jim Coile made announcements.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick announced that the Conference was adjourned until 1:25 p.m.

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Friday, June 16, 1989

Session called to Order: At 1:25 p.m., Bishop Minnick called the Conference back into session for the business of the afternoon. He called for the singing of hymn 72, All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name.

Report of the General Council on Ministries: Robby Lowry, a member of the General Council on Ministries, came to the podium to give the report. Lowry spoke of the resources available to the local churches from the GCOM. (For full text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the SEJ Administrative Council: Reginald W. Ponder, Director of the SEJ Council, came to bring the report. He highlighted the good work of the new Administrative Council and thanked Bishop Minnick for his leadership at the Jurisdictional Conference level. (For full copy of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Point of Personal Privilege: Bishop Minnick introduced Mrs. Beulah Bridges who is attending her 60th consecutive Annual Conference and is 94 years old. The Conference responded.

Report of the Capital Funds Campaign Continuation Committee: Beth Norris presented the report to the Conference. Mrs. Norris told the Conference that Camping Ministries is in the final stages of hiring architects to design renovations and expansions at the four Conference camps. She went into some detail about what kinds of renovations are being done at each camp. She stated that three new congregations have been chartered since last June, including Good Shepherd in Durham, Grace United Methodist Church in Fayetteville, and West Robeson Church in the Rockingham District. Each of these is looking for eventual help from the Campaign for a variety of purposes. As part of a slide show, Mrs. Norris went on to describe the other new and revitalized churches which will be needing help from the Campaign in years to come. She asked for the members' help in interpreting the Campaign to local churches, pledging and soliciting major gifts, and encouraging local churches to follow through on pledges. (For full text of the report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Return to Report of Council on Finance and Administration: The videotape postponed from yesterday, which was to be shown in connection with the Conference Council on Finance and Administration report, was shown. Bill Norton stated that copies of the video would be available in the Media Center for churches to borrow, as well as copies available in the Conference Office. He asked pastors or lay people who wished to borrow a copy to write the Media Center, or call them at once and get a copy for their own use.

Composite Report of the Conference Council on Ministries: Bishop Minnick requested that Belton Joyner lead in the presentation of the Composite Report. Joyner introduced the chairpersons of each board and agency, and each person made brief statements about their agency. Joyner concluded the report by introducing the staff members of the Conference Council on Ministries and then he introduced secretaries from the Methodist Building who were present for the afternoon: Monica Blount, Diana Hunter, Sandy Smith, and LeeAnne Thornton. (For the reports of each of the Conference agencies under COM, see Section V of the Journal.)

Announcement: Conference Secretary Jim Coile made an announcement.

Testimonial: The Methodist Home for Children: Rufus H. Stark II came to the podium to lead a testimonial to Children's Home which included a video presentation. Following an enchanting and poignant film presentation on the Home, Stark took the podium to elaborate on the material that was shown therein. Stark indicated that this ministry was one of reality and of specifics and not something of generalities. He further indicated that it was necessary for people to realize that children of need deserve our support and understanding. He indicated that the problem of family dysfunction was a prior claim with the intervention ministry that they were providing in the current arrangement. He reiterated that there was an 86 percent success rate of keeping families together through the use of temporary intervention. Stark indicated that he hoped they could continue to work on the same scale that they had and called upon the Conference to give continuing, loyal, and pertinent support for this most important Christian outreach enterprise. Stark introduced Ben Aiken of the Board of the Trustees to further emphasize his remarks. Mr. Aiken had all members of the Board of Trustees stand. The Conference responded.

Camping/Campus Ministry/Trustee Elections: Bishop Minnick called upon Gray Southern who asked that we turn to page 56 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. On behalf of Camping Ministries he presented the nominations for local camp committees. They were elected. Janes Earl Vann then presented Campus Ministry/Trustee Nominations on pages 56 - 58 and they were elected. On pages 58 - 60 the individual boards of trustees for the various campus ministries were presented for election. Dr. Vann moved that they be elected and they were elected. He recognized the college presidents: Dr. Leslie H. Garner, Jr., Dr. M. Elton Hendricks, and Dr. J. Allen Norris, Jr. They received a round of applause from the Conference. The campus ministers, Bill Sharpe and Dan Earnhardt were also introduced to the Conference and they too received a round of applause.

Special Presentation: Vann then asked Allen Norris to take the podium for a special presentation. Norris directed the attention of the Conference to the Africa University project described as Item #1 in the Book of Handouts. He asked that the sheet be studied as this would be considered. Dr. Norris also presented Bishop Minnick with a T-Shirt representing the logo of the proposed Africa College program.

Methodist Home For Children and Methodist Retirement Home Trustee Elections: On page 62 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. Nominations for the Methodist Home for Children trustees were presented by Anne Collins for the Class of 1993. They were put before the Conference and they were elected. On page 63, Mrs. Collins called attention to the trustee nominations for The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., for the Class of 1993. They were placed before the Conference and were elected.

Proposed Amendments to North Carolina State Commission By-Laws: Dr. Vann was again called to the podium to present the proposed amendments as outlined on pages 55 and following of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. The amendments were approved as listed and this concluded the report. (See amendments in Section V of the Journal.)

Report on Comprehensive Plan: Bishop Minnick called on Albert Shuler to present the report on the Comprehensive Plan. Helen Owens of John Wesley Church in Fayetteville was presented by Shuler to speak to the Missional Priority of the Church and specifically to the Ethnic Minority Local Church being totally included in the work of the church at large. Her statement was received with appreciation.

Report on Vitalization Program: Stephen C. Compton brought the report. He summarized the progress made on the implementation of the program approved by the called session of the Annual Conference earlier in the year. He spoke with enthusiasm for the Twelve Keys to Effective Churches program, and encouraged the church to look upon this not as an attempt to find faults in the church, but of an attempt to emphasize strengths and to grow in those strengths and to add to them. He urged the Conference to think of 15 to 20 people who have the vision to serve as consultants in the Vitalization Program. He emphasized the need to find the very best people in the Conference - people of the vision, people of the dream, people with practicality, and people who are committed - to nominate to serve in these positions. He called attention to the newsletter, Vital Signs, which had been distributed during the Conference to give more information about the program and participation within it. Compton's presentation as team leader was received with vigorous appreciation.

Testimonial: The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.: Bishop Minnick called on Margaret Harper to present a testimonial for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. Mrs. Harper stated that the homes are progressing steadily and that the Conference had a right to be proud of the three campuses. She asked Amos Tinnell, executive director of the Homes, to stand for recognition and he did. She gave something of the background that Tinnell had experienced in hospital administration and his strong leadership over the three campuses as executive director. She introduced Paul Bunn, administrator at Wesley Pines in Lumberton. Robert Crawford is administrator at the Durham Home but could not be present to be introduced today. Margaret Harper spoke further of the work that was done at the Durham Home. Charles J. Sweat is a new staff person and will be administrator of the Cypress Glen Home in Greenville, effective July 1, 1989. Mrs. Harper alluded to Amos Tinnell's report on page 116 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. (This report is found in Section V of the Journal.) She reminded the ministers to use the Mother's Day envelopes that they were sent for use on Mother's Day. She said she hoped that next year they would alert the congregations that they were going to give out the envelopes, and she hoped that the Mother's Day offering would be more productive. Mrs. Harper stated that while it was untrue to state that people had to turn over everything they had to become members of the Home, that it was also untrue to believe that the Conference did not need to provide support for the Homes because times have changed. Federal rules and regulations have changed and now it is necessary to have increasing funds to go ahead. Harper stated that the principal problem the Homes face now are the tremendous mortgage payments on the property. She directed her remarks to the Bishop when she said that the next capital funds drive the Conference had would be, of necessity, for the retirement homes, to relieve them of the tremendous burdens of property expense and mortgage funds. She reminded us of the fact that we have done it for the colleges, and if we did it for the colleges, we could now do it for the homes. In April, an organization was formed entitled "Friends of the Methodist Retirement Homes Campuses", and chaired by Mary Duke Biddle Trent Semans. It was an attempt to inform more people and attract new friends to provide information about the homes and financial support over a broad base for the immediate time.

Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: Bishop Minnick called on Myron Banks to bring the report, found on page 106 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989. Banks requested a change in the name of the corporation to reflect United Methodism rather than just The Methodist Church. It was adopted by the Conference. Banks brought a recommendation concerning the disposition of the Kinston: Saint Mark United Methodist Church - a discontinuance problem. The basic statement is that the church property would be sold and that the funds would be turned over the trustees for distribution and use of financing new churches. This was to be voted on the next evening. Thanks to the Conference staff was expressed by Banks, and he asked for the adoption of the report. It was adopted by the Conference. (See complete report in Section V of the Journal.)

Report No. 2 of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference: The report was brought by Gwen Henderson.

Resolution on Acid Rain: Mrs. Henderson placed the resolution on acid rain on page 72 in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989, which comes from the Board of Church and Society, before the Conference. The resolution was overwhelmingly approved.

Resolution on Hazardous Waste: Henderson then placed before the Conference Resolution II on Hazardous Waste.

Amendment: Bill Bingham moved to "delete 'prevention' in the second line after 'Therefore.'" Steve Hickle from the Board of Church and Society regarded the Bingham amendment as a friendly amendment, and the Conference accepted it unanimously.

The resolution on hazardous waste was approved.

Resolution on Household Waste: Henderson then took up Resolution III on Household Waste. It was approved overwhelmingly.

Resolution on Open Itinerary: Henderson then placed before the Conference Resolution IV on Open Itinerary. Steve Hickle read the "Therefore, be it resolved" paragraph from the resolution to the Conference.

Amendment: John Wenberg offered an amendment to add the words "and sexism" to the second "Whereas" and change the word "its" to "their." It was accepted.

Amendment: William M. Presnell offered an amendment to add the words "or age" to the end of the "Therefore, be it resolved" paragraph. It was accepted.

John Jansen raised the question of why the date 1995 was chosen and not an earlier date.

John Wenberg responded to Jansen's concern about the timing. He stated that this resolution was, in effect, the Annual Conference's response to the district superintendents' and Bishop's statement in 1986 in which they committed themselves to open itinerary. Roger Elliot spoke for the resolution. The resolution as amended was adopted.

Resolution on Plastics and Styrofoam: Henderson placed Resolution V on Plastics and Styrofoam before the Conference and it was adopted without large opposition.

Resolution on Sounds and Coastal Estuaries: She then placed Resolution VI on Sounds and Coastal Estuaries before the Conference and this was likewise adopted.

Resolution on Alcohol: Resolution VII on two Alcohol concerns was placed before the Conference. Alfred Dobbs first moved to refer the resolution on Alcohol concerns back to the Board of Church and Society. Mr. Dobbs changed his motion to table until tomorrow in order to amend the resolution. The motion to table was adopted. The resolution will be taken up tomorrow. Tony Collier rose to ask whether we are not being hypocritical in refusing to ask for alcohol-free environments on our college campuses even as we are passing a resolution about alcohol concerns. Steve Hickle replied that we would be notified of any changes in alcohol policies at any of the colleges. Belton Joyner reported that there were no significant changes sent to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry by any of the colleges concerning significant changes in alcohol policy.

Resolution on Apartheid: Mrs. Henderson brought Resolution VIII which is Item #4 in the Book of Handouts and is on the subject of Apartheid. This resolution comes from the North Carolina Chapter of Black Methodists for Church Renewal. Bill Jeffries spoke in favor of the resolution, but pointed out the need for many editorial changes. Jeffries offered his corrections. Before he could conclude the corrections, Jeffries offered to give his corrections to the chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference which would then bring the resolution back tomorrow.

Henderson then laid before the Conference Item #9 Resolution IX on Inclusiveness, Fairness, and Justice for Black Clergypersons, which is found in the Book of Handouts. Bishop Minnick accepted the resolution as an advisement and it was not passed or dealt with in any way by the Conference.

Motion: Malloy Owen moved "that Item #9 be regarded as a message to the Conference, not as a resolution of the Conference." The motion was accepted.

The next resolution brought before the Conference was Item #10 in the Book of Handouts, A Resolution on Racial and Gender Inclusiveness Among Chairpersons. Malloy Owen asked whether members of the Conference have received and read this particular resolution. The Bishop replied that it has been on the floor for a day, which has given everyone an opportunity to read it.

Motion: A motion was made by to refer Item #10 back to the Commission on Religion and Race in order to put it in the form of a resolution. The motion to refer was accepted. A question was asked about when the resolution would come back to the Annual Conference. Warren Casiday, chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, asked the members of the Commission to meet after today's session to put the item into the form of a resolution to be considered by tomorrow's session.

Resolution on UMCOR: Mrs. Henderson placed Item #12 in the Book of Handouts before the Conference. The entire resolution on UMCOR was read to the Conference and it was approved unanimously. Bishop Minnick is president of UMCOR.

Point of Order: Scott Washington raised a point of order about laying resolutions on the table and whether we needed to take them up today. The Bishop replied that adjournment was in order because the business is not yet over.

Gwen Henderson then introduced the members of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference to the applause of the Conference.

Announcements: Conference Secretary Jim Coile made several announcements.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick declared that we are in adjournment until 7:30 this evening.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION, Friday, June 16, 1989

AN EVENING OF CELEBRATION, VITAL CONGREGATIONS < = > FAITHFUL DISCIPLES - "GROWING COMMUNITIES OF COMPASSION"

Prelude: The prelude, A Mighty Fortress Is Our God, Arr. Fasig, was played majestically by organist Bess Edwards-Sawyer, and pianist Ann Sutton.

The service began at 7:30 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium with Bishop Minnick calling the people to a season of silence followed by a trumpet solo, Amazing Grace by Dale Wilkerson. This was followed by the singing of stanza 1 as a solo by David Benson, stanza 2 by a quartet consisting of David Benson, Woody Wells, Barry Lane, and Curtis Campbell. Stanza 3 was sung by the women of the congregation and stanza 4 by portions of the congregation in time with the quartet as they strolled through the congregation. The entire congregation lifted its voice to heaven singing together stanza 6 of Amazing Grace. They remained standing for the invocation given by Bishop Minnick.

The United Methodist Publishing House: Bishop Minnick introduced Lou Braswell Jennings to the congregation to make the presentation on behalf of the Publishing House. Mrs. Jennings thanked the Conference for their support of her during her first year as manager of the Cokesbury Store in Raleigh. She presented Bishop Minnick with a 200th Anniversary Pin commemorating the 200th anniversary of the Publishing House. She also presented Bishop Minnick a check in the amount of $15,152.00 for the pension fund of the Annual Conference, which the Bishop joyfully accepted on behalf of the Conference. The Bishop then asked Jim Busby, Eastern District Manager of Cokesbury, based in Charlotte, to stand. He received the applause of the Annual Conference.

Recognition of Clergy Who are Retiring: To the warm applause of the Conference, Bishop Minnick told the Conference that those who are retiring tonight had a combined 643.75 total years of service and then presented J. Donald Phillips for the recognition of the retiring ministers. Phillips introduced Claude Chaffin, noting that he has, with his father and grandfather before him, a total of 149 years of continuous service to the Lord in ordained ministry. Phillips introduced each of the new retirees and invited each to come to the podium with his wife and speak to the Conference. Each gave his testimony in his own way - some humorous, some poignant - all especially memorable as they expressed appreciation and declared their love of the Lord. Each was presented a certificate of recognition and a standing round of applause and appreciation from the Conference body.

Scholarship Presentations: Thomas G. Melvin came to the podium to make scholarship presentations for the Conference. He noted that, unfortunately, Student Day offerings have been down, which means that this year we will be able to give only one Student Day Scholarship rather than two as in the past.

Three awards were given. Timothy Scott Taylor of Raleigh received the Cannon Scholarship ($2,300), which goes to those preparing for ordained ministry. He is a student at Methodist College. The Student Day Scholarship ($500) went to Jennifer L. Edgerton, a member of Grace Church, Clinton. She will attend North Carolina Wesleyan College. The winner of the Blackburn Scholarship ($5,000) was David John Paschal, son of the Reverend and Mrs. John Paschal of First Church, Laurinburg. David will attend Louisburg College.

Bishop's Award for Excellence in Scouting: The Bishop called upon G. Paul Phillips III, Conference Council on Ministries staff person for Camping, to describe the award. Phillips said that troops to receive the award had to meet a number of standards. He explained that because of dangerous weather the troop which was to receive the award could not join us this evening, but that their pastor, Clinton W. Spence, of Mt. Tirzah UMC in Timberlake, would accept the award on their behalf. The troop honored was Boy Scout Troop 229 from Timberlake. The Conference responded.

Following a brief responsive reading, the congregation sang hymn #294, I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord.

Presentation of Charters to New Congregations: Thomas A. Collins gave the charters to this year's new congregations. Collins lifted up the diversity of the people served by the new congregations - sixteen in number - which have been chartered in the last six years in the North Carolina Conference. Included in that diversity were churches serving Korean Americans, Native Americans, Blacks, and Hispanics, as well as traditional Anglo suburban churches. He then introduced Mark Lykins of Good Shepherd United Methodist in Durham to come forward with members of his congregation to receive their charter, which was chartered on April 16 of this year with 76 charter members. Next, Collins asked Sam Wynn and members of the Native American Church in Fayetteville to come forward. Their church, Grace UMC, was chartered on April 9, 1989, and is a mixed-race congregation, made up of both white and Native American members. Finally, Collins asked the Sanford District Superintendent James C. P. Brown, and Sanford Church Extension Chairperson Travis Owen to come forward and receive the charter on behalf of Cumnock Union Church, United Methodist. This is a reconstituted church which had been Methodist until 1967, was then closed, but has recently been reopened and is newly chartered as a United Methodist Church. In addition, Collins presented Brown with a Charter Commission Certificate to be presented to Hugo Lopez, who is to be the new pastor of the Hispanic ministry in Chatham County.

Collins also asked Camille Yorkey Edwards and Wilmington District Superintendent Sam McMillan to come forward to receive a Charter Commission Certificate, which is to commemorate the beginning of the new church at Seaside in Brunswick County. All of the charter recipients were greeted with a warm round of applause from the Conference.

Presentation of Lay Person of the Year Award: Robert C. Frazier, Sr., came forward to present the Lay Person of the Year award. Frazier described the process by which the Lay Person of the Year is selected. He recognized the district Lay Persons of the Year:

Burlington: S. T. "Kak" Richmond; Durham: Claude Carmelia; Elizabeth City: Beverly M. Small; Fayetteville: Tommie Wrench; Goldsboro: Norbert Wilson; Greenville: Charity Holland; Raleigh: Ray Miller Ritchie; Rockingham: Sara Elizabeth "Sara Lib" M. Pate and Mildred Hayes DePugh; Rocky Mount: Gene W. Todd; Sanford: L. M. "Red" Lutterloh; Wilmington: Dorthea C. Leach. (See details of these lay persons in Section V of the Journal.)

He then introduced the 1989 Conference Lay Person of the Year, Mrs. Mildred Hayes DePugh, of Galilee United Methodist Church in Laurinburg, whom he described as "an active and committed member" of both her local church and her community. Particularly inspiring was the description of her personal ministry within the community, in which from her restaurant in Laurinburg she sends out meals to shut-ins and others in need without regard to cost to the recipients. As she, along with her family and district superintendent, Bill Sherman, came to the podium, they were greeted with a standing round of applause from the members of the Conference.

Rural Church of the Year Award: The Reverend Tommy Privette came to the podium to present the Key W. Taylor Award. The award is a $500.00 grant coming from the Rural Church Fund, administered by the Town and Country Committee of the Board of Missions. The recipient for 1989 is the 146 member Banks United Methodist Church in Granville County in the Durham District. Privette invited the Reverend Gayla Estes and Robinette Husketh, the Banks Lay Member of the Annual Conference, to come forward and receive the award, which they did to a rousing round of applause from the Conference membership.

Hymn: The service closed with the singing of the hymn, Grace Which Calls Us For Tomorrow, to the tune of Regency Square, by the entire congregation, which then received the benediction from Bishop Minnick.

Postlude: The postlude, offered by pianist Ann Sutton and Trumpeter Dale Wilkerson, was the Trumpet Voluntary in D Major by Jeremiah Clarke. The Conference was adjourned for the evening. (For complete details, see service bulletin, An Evening of Celebration, Friday, June 16, 1989.)

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION, Saturday, June 17, 1989

Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated in Hensdale Chapel at 7:30 a.m., under the leadership of the Reverend Joseph W. Forbes.

Prayer Concern: Following Hymn No. 4, Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above, the Bishop interrupted the start of his Bible study for an announcement that he had just received word regarding Leslie Womack, who with her son was involved in an automobile accident the night before. They were both in Pitt Memorial Hospital, and the driver of the other car had been killed in the head-on collision. Bishop Minnick offered prayer for the entire family and for the unknown one who had been killed in the automobile accident.

Bible Study: Bishop Minnick continued the discussion of Paul's letter to the church at Philippi and picked up where he left off concerning growth in love with knowledge with discernment of the churches, and how Paul had more than likely written this letter while in prison in Rome. He spoke of the idea of suffering for Christ as being a special sort of gift, not one that one sought, but one accomplished because of demonstrative love. He spoke of how that became a witness in and of itself as people either suffered for Christ or through their living made a witness for Christ that caused others to be able to follow Christ. Bishop Minnick spoke of the discipline of Paul and the affirmative mindset of the church. He emphasized the importance of willingness to be in Christ by being the total servant, the caring ministry, and the loving quality of spirit that spoke to others, even as Paul spoke to others through his writings and his preaching. He spoke of the idea of the suffering servant taken first from Isaiah but applied to our Lord, and also to Paul and many of the servants of the early church. It is important that we view this as a positive and definite discipline for each of us today. The Bishop finished his study reading Paul's words of gratitude and spoke of gratitude for the Conference itself.

Calling the Conference to Order: Bishop Minnick gaveled the Conference to order for the business of the day.

Announcements: Secretary Jim Coile brought announcements on behalf of the health screening service. Bishop Minnick requested, if there were any nurses available who could help with the testing, that if they could give an hour or two hours of their time, to please go and report to the health screening service in the Student Union Building.

Report of the Committee on Minutes: Tom Holtsclaw brought the report. The minutes of yesterday's session have been reviewed and found to be in order and their adoption was moved. They were adopted. Holtsclaw asked for the authority to review and approve the minutes for the remainder of the Conference session. The Conference voted in the affirmative.

Testimonial: Global Covenant Community (Peru): The presentation began with an audio-visual. The film and slides and music were accompanied by a report of the Mission Team that had studied the need in Peru and described the struggle of the church in Peru today to fulfill its witness to Christ and his Church. They described in detail some of the problems of the country, and the response of the church, and the problems of the church, and the response of the community. They saw hope through sacrifice in the Methodist communities in Peru. This was another example of growing communities of compassion. Mark Wethington had given the presentation. He came to speak of how another global covenant community mission would be leaving for Peru to join in forwarding the work of Christ, and doing what could be done, and was necessary in this global covenant community. He requested those who had been with the first group to stand so that they might be recognized. He remarked that they were 15 in number and he had them come forward that they might be recognized. The group was well received, and Wethington presented a letter to Bishop Minnick from Bishop Ochoa of Peru, and a gift to Bishop and Mrs. Minnick from the Bishop in Peru. Bishop Minnick indicated how wonderful it would be if other congregations became involved in covenant partnerships of mission wherever they might be used and needed in the world of the Christian community.

Report of the Insurance Committee: Bishop Minnick called on E. M. Thompson to bring the report. Thompson spoke on cost control - the problems of cost control because of the need to have a successful benefits package. He spoke of three commercial carriers of health care that have gone bankrupt in the past year. Thompson described the concern of the committee that health care costs in North Carolina continued to rise and, while they were working with Blue Cross/Blue Shield and health care cost containment as a part of the answer, he indicated that there is a 2 percent per month rise in cost. Thompson said that there were many factors impacting the cost picture - not all that are within our control - but that just one really bad experience of a high tech procedure could impact upon our entire program. The cost is going up. We can't do anything about that except lessen our coverage. He called upon the Conference to decide. The life insurance section of the Insurance Committee report was placed before the Conference.

Question: Rick Pinner asked a question as to who was the life insurance consultant. The consulting firm is R. W. Mann and Company out of Greensboro, and Paul Brewer is the individual consultant who deals with the Conference. The life insurance package was approved by the Conference. The Blue Cross/Blue Shield insurance package was before the Conference.

Motion: Kermit Braswell moved "that coverage found under 'additional coverage' on pages 91-92 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 become the Health Insurance coverage for the North Carolina Annual Conference." This included increased coverage on mental and nervous disorders. Rodney Hamm spoke for the Braswell motion. Fred Brown of Union UMC spoke not against the motion, but against the idea of this pushing the local church that was already requiring support from the Conference to require additional support, which in turn impacted on the entire Conference.

Question: Brian Gentle asked if there could be some working together with the Western North Carolina Conference to combine the packages. Herb Stout answered the question stating that we had the best rates of any of the benefit packages that would provide the quality care that we had requested. The Braswell motion passed and the package was adopted.

Motion: Eddie Jo Jarrett moved the following: "I recommend to the North Carolina Annual Conference that the Committee on Insurance provide to us an optional supplemental insurance policy that could pick up on our 20 percent and costwise difference in cost for our medical care. The minister would be responsible for the premium." It was adopted and remanded for report back to the next Annual Conference.

The insurance packages were adopted as proposed by the Insurance Committee.

Policy and Rules were adopted. Eligibility policies were adopted with the insertion of "part-time local pastors". The sections, Health Screening and Committee Membership were adopted as matters of information. The report as a whole was then approved. (See complete corrected report in Section V of the Journal.)

Report of Commission on Equitable Salaries: Charles Morrison brought the report for the Commission. Equitable Salaries were designated to move to $19,826 for ministers under full-time appointment, and students to receive a minimum of $12,887. Albert Shuler spoke to the item regarding ethnic minority ministers and the special addendum to ethnic minority pastors (I.H.). He wanted to know who made the determination of what was unusual service and effective service. The answer was given that it is the Bishop and the Cabinet who make that determination.

Amendment: Shuler moved that the amount be changed from "$100.00 per service year not to exceed $1000.00" to "$200.00 per service year not to exceed $2000.00".

Question: Maness Mitchell asked how many ministers were currently getting exceptional service benefits and what it was costing. Kermit Braswell said that the answer was "None" because there had been no recommendations for it. Mitchell responded, "In other words, we are talking about the value of a goose egg." Bill Sherman noted that this is the first year that this is being implemented and that the year is not over yet. He felt that before the end of 1989 there would be some that would find it an applicable provision.

Amendment to Amendment: Rob Huckaby offered an amendment to the Shuler amendment to include "each ethnic minority clergy and all female clergy persons".

Question: Langill Watson asked a question. He also stated that the amendment obscured the fact that ethnic minority pastors were discriminated against in our Conference. He said that adding women to this same motion obscured that fact. Gayla Estes spoke for the amendment. She said that after twelve years as a pastor she felt she should be above minimum salary. The Huckaby amendment was approved.

Amendment: John Jansen moved that "H. Circumstances. This policy will be terminated with the Conference year 1995." He requested that this be terminated at that time since the Conference voted yesterday to have open itinerary by 1995. The amendment was adopted.

Return to Shuler Amendment: The Shuler amendment was passed.

The Equitable Salaries report could not be completed because the Order of the Day was to be called.

Announcements: Announcements were made by the Conference Secretary concerning the Clergy Partners and the Memorial Service.

Introduction of Clergy Partners: Bishop Minnick requested the clergy partners to stand and be recognized. They were accorded a round of applause by the Conference.

Order of the Day: Bishop Minnick called for the order of the day for the stage to be set for the Memorial Service which was to take place next.

Recess: Recess was called to prepare for the upcoming Memorial Service.

Memorial Service: The Memorial Service was held at 11:00 a.m. in Reeves Auditorium with Fayetteville District Superintendent Helen Crotwell presiding and Durham District Superintendent Wallace H. Kirby preaching. (See synopsis of the entire service and memorials of the honored deceased in Section IV of the Journal.)

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Saturday, June 17, 1989

Meeting of the North Carolina Conference Brother-Sisterhood: After an opening hymn and prayer, J. K. Bostick led in the business session of the brother-sisterhood. He discussed the operation of the Brother-Sisterhood and the information of taking care of the calls and responding to those who would be beneficiaries.

Question: Bostick recognized Rufus Stark for a question who suggested that it was necessary for the notice of ministerial deaths in newspapers so that pastors have time to attend the funerals. Bostick felt that it was imperative that the word be spread in this manner, and he had done some research of the cost of today's newspaper advertising. The cost was low enough that he felt that this should be implemented and made this recommendation to the Conference.

The financial report in the The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 was given and approved. The nominations as listed were elected. This concluded the work of the Brother-Sisterhood.

Conference Business Resumed: Bishop Minnick moved that the Conference now be officially back in session and called for the singing of O, For a Thousand Tongues to Sing. The Conference responded.

Testimonial: Board of Missions: Bishop Minnick called upon Elizabeth Watson to lead in this testimonial and this was begun by explaining Lane One in the form of a skit with a humorous performance by Bill Braswell. The five lanes of giving were presented as a part of the idea of the "Rainbow Covenant". UMCOR and others are giving opportunities that are a part of this coalition. The guide is to have each church give in each of the these opportunities of mission giving. Having done this they will report the fact to the 1991 Conferences.

Sam Wynn presented Lane Two which provides food for the poor and starving within the United States. Mrs. Shirley Jones of the Robeson Church and Community Center spoke about Lane Three concerning salary support for missionaries. Lane four is UMCOR itself and Bishop Minnick, as president of UMCOR, shared in this presentation. It is massive contributions of mission aid at the point of need, relief for hungry people of the world, rehabilitation for people who have experienced natural disasters, refugee ministries where people have been displaced from their homes, and many other important needs. He explained that UMCOR was at the point of disaster within 36 hours in cases of extreme need.

David Mitchell came to the podium and talked about Lane Five concerning Conference advance specials. He spoke of migrant ministries, many of whom are unchurched and do not speak English. As a grand finale, children from our Conference presented a dance presentation to point out effectively the meaningfulness of the "Rainbow Covenant". It was graciously accepted with a great round of applause.

Announcements: Secretary James H. Coile made several announcements.

Return to Report of Commission on Equitable Salaries: Gerald Peterson offered an amendment for Section A, Part II, of the report but it was defeated. Part I was placed before the body and was adopted. Part II was presented. Whit Warren presented the explanation of this section.

Question: Lawrence Johnson questioned whether any exceptions would be made. Warren replied the report had been based on a survey of all churches and there could be exceptions made, but none had been made by any church that they had surveyed.

Maness Mitchell attempted a motion but with Warren's explanation and an explanation from Bob McKenzie, Mitchell withdrew his motion. Mitchell reminded the Conference, however, that the guideline we should follow is that, "where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am with them". Mitchell spoke to the needs of the small churches. Sam McMillan rose to a point of information. He felt some items should have been left out of Item 6 of Part II. He clarified the point for Mitchell.

Amendment: Tommy Smith moved to "request the cabinet make a study for realigning smaller churches who stand to lose equitable salary in order to keep these churches open." It passed.

Amendment: Sam McMillan moved to amend "missional goals of the church may necessitate Equitable Salary Support for some churches for a longer period of time, however,..."

The McMillan amendment was adopted. Part II was adopted and the report was adopted as a whole.

Report of Committee on Pastoral Care: Rodney Hamm brought the report found in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 and it was explained. Bob McKenzie and Mark Kasper attempted motions but they did not pass. Item I was supported as it stands.

Amendment: Fred Roberts moved to substitute the word "mandated" in place of "recommended" on page 71, item 2, line 5" and it was accepted. Following discussion Section 2 and 3 was supported and the report as a whole was approved. (For complete report see Section V of the Journal.)

Motion: A. J. Eure moved to "suspend rules to limit debate to four minutes for each speaker but not to limit committee reports". It was approved.

Report of Committee on Joint Disability: P. G. Midgett brought the report. Midgett added the name of James W. Hicks and the report was moved and adopted. (See complete report in Section V of the Journal.)

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.: Allen Norris brought the report for President Tom Chandler who was unable to be present. He expressed the remarkable growth of the funds over the past few years and extremely good management of First Union Bank. They had far exceeded the goals set by the investment committee. The report was adopted. (For complete report, see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of Committee on District Conference Records: George Speake brought the report and submitted the report to the Conference. It was adopted.

Return to Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Cashar Evans asked those who had met their outreach at 100% to stand. A large number responded and were received with enthusiastic appreciation. The budget on page 78 and 79 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989 was placed before the Conference and was adopted.

Report of Committee on Episcopacy: Ruth Cade brought the report. She told of being at the SEJ Conference when Bishop Minnick and his wife, Mary Ann, were reassigned to the Raleigh Area. She said this could be an official welcome back with great and deep appreciation and gratitude. The Conference responded with applause and then a standing ovation. She told of the entire committee getting together with a Christmastide dinner with Bishop and Mrs. Minnick which was a very pleasing experience for all, and that there was an agreement within the committee that they get together at least twice a year.

Report of Committee on Conference Entertainment: Jim Coile was asked to give the report.

Motion: Coile moved that since there was an invitation from Methodist College that "the 1990 Annual Conference session be held at Methodist College" and it was accepted.

Motion: Coile moved that "the Committee be asked to study the possibility of accepting an invitation to hold one of its annual sessions at Lake Junaluska. The Committee will report back on this study to the 1990 Annual Conference." He asked the body to lift a hand if they were in favor of meeting at Lake Junaluska and lift a hand if they were against meeting there. The body was in favor. The motion was then accepted.

Bishop Minnick told the Conference that he had set the time of the Conference for next year to begin on Wednesday and end on Saturday noon, due to the fact that so many pastors wanted to return to their churches on Sunday. The dates would be June 13 through June 16, 1990.

Report of Committee to Study Lay/Clergy Equalization: Malloy Owen brought the report and gave some of the background and rationale of the study. He expressed appreciation of the work done by the late Ted Wilson and his secretary, Evelyn Lane, for researching the Journals and old records for materials. He noted he was asking the Conference to approve the report before us with the Lay/Clergy Plan and one recommendation of the committee.

Question: There was a question for clarification about "lay members being a Methodist for two years next preceding their election and active participants for at least four years next preceding their election". Owen explained fully and there was more discussion on this. Bishop Minnick stated that this was a rule of The United Methodist Church and could only be changed by the General Conference. He felt that it was almost impossible that there could be one church in the Conference that did not have at least one or two members who did not fit under this rule.

Amendment: Malloy Owen made a motion to amend to "eliminate all recommendations except B. That includes the second paragraph on page 67, beginning with the words 'The committee recommends', to be eliminated. Add 'that this committee shall continue to study and bring recommendations to the 1990 Annual Conference on future equalization.' It was accepted.

The report was before us and it was adopted. (See report in Section V of the Journal.)

Report No. 3 of Committee on Resolutions and Reference: Gwen Henderson came to the podium to give the report.

Return to Resolution on Alcohol: Steve Hickle was requested to speak to the revised text on Alcohol resolution on page 75 and 76 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 1989.

Amendment: Hickle offered the following amendment, "3. Support all actions of the family unit in this regard, as well as..." His amendment passed and the resolution was approved.

Amendment: Ernie Wendell requested that the statement from the Discipline regarding abstinence be added, a new Item 1 to read: "Encourage all persons to abstain from the use of the drug alcohol", then renumber the other following items. It was adopted.

Motion: Sam Wynn moved for the Conference to "receive" item #10, the former resolution from Religion and Race as a recommendation." His motion passed.

Motion: Warren Cassiday made a motion that "the Executive Committee of the Commission on Religion and Race asks permission of the Conference to withdraw our resolution, Item #10, to be carried back to the full commission to be rewritten, placed in proper format, and brought back to next year's Annual Conference." The motion to refer was adopted.

Resolution on Apartheid: Item #4 in Book of Handouts regarding Apartheid was placed before the body with grammatical changes and was passed.

A General Electric Boycott Resolution was brought before the Conference. Malloy Owen rose to speak against approval of this resolution. David Harvin spoke for the resolution. Johnny Huggins spoke against it. David Fischler rose to offer an amendment to the resolution which passed. There was a call on all that was before us. The resolution was rejected.

The Shell Boycott Resolution was ruled out of order by the Bishop on the grounds that the General Conference had already taken a stand on this issue.

Resolution on Abortion: The Abortion Resolution was before the Conference and the committee recommended disapproval on the grounds that it tended to overstate its issues. Stan Smith spoke in support of the committee and against the resolution. Malloy Owen spoke in favor of the resolution despite its imperfections. Mildred Mercer of Trinity Church in Red Springs brought an amendment but it failed.

Point of Order: Camille Yorkey Edwards of St. Paul Church in Goldsboro stated "in the paragraph, 'Be it resolved...', the last phrase beginning specifically restricting abortion, etc. is not in keeping with the statement in the 1988 Discipline." Bishop Minnick agreed and requested striking the last phrase, following "preborn babies", to put a period.

There was much discussion and debate over the issue. The question was called and since the vote was so close, there had to be a count vote. Carrie Parrish asked the chair to clarify what we were voting on. Bishop Minnick explained. The resolution finally passed.

Resolution on Lumbee Indian Recognition: Item #15 of the Book of Handouts regarding the Lumbee Indian Resolution was moved and adopted.

Resolution on Third World Debt: Item #16 on Third World Debt Resolution was presented.

Amendment: Joe Padgett of Asbury Church in Raleigh moved to amend "line 15, add 'additional' after 'take'; line 17, add 'to help in the economic development of third world nations. These should include considerations of...' after 'Bank'; line 18, add 'repayment' after 'debt'; line 18, delete 'and for the' and insert 'and'; and line 19, delete the fifth word, 'the'".

The amendment passed and the resolution was supported.

Gwen Henderson suggested a final resolution for the Conference, an Appreciation Resolution for the Conference and its successful operation. It was approved unanimously and enthusiastically.

Testimonial: Committee on Disaster Preparedness: Dennis Levin brought the report and spoke on the erratic weather patterns and the surprising number of tornadoes we have had in the last couple of years, speaking of the ones of last November and the ones this year, and to his amazement that, even with such low key appeal, had produced enough funds that we had been able to provide for almost all requests for assistance. He reiterated his gratefulness to our United Methodist people for their generosity and giving spirit. He expressed in detail the assistance that has been given through the committee.

Motion: Rick Pinner moved that "a copy of Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr.'s Annual Conference Address, 'Moving Toward the Vision' delivered on Thursday afternoon, June 15, 1989, be included in the next 'Coordinated Mailing' from the Conference Council on Ministries. Further, that we direct our Conference secretary to include this address in the 1989 Conference Journal." The motion was approved with great applause.

Report of Committee on Clergy Living Standards: Jeanne Rouse brought the report for the committee.

Amendment: Robert Pullman moved that on "page 19, 14, adding to the Chair's addition, 'Beginning with the 1990 Annual Conference, the charge is asked to fill the fuel tank prior to the arrival of the new parsonage family.'" It was passed.

Several other changes were recommended from the floor including parsonage additions and new parsonages to be responsive to State handicapping codes and specific needs of handicapped. David Fischler suggested that Rouse and her committee ask the Cabinet to look over the requirements, that were actually the recommendations for parsonage living, and consider making some of them mandatory. Jim Ward of Bethel Church stated that the word "extermination" regarding pets should be "pest control". Rouse said she would accept this wording. This part of their report was approved and the report as a whole was approved. (See report in Section V of the Journal.)

Return to Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry: Bishop Minnick read the Committee on Investigation for Diaconal Ministry and they were elected.

Supplemental Questions: Secretary Jim Coile read the property matters concerning those churches which had been closed and the disposal of property. They were approved.

Motion: Coile moved that "with the fixing of the appointments and distribution of the supplemental information, I move that the disciplinary questions be declared answered." It was approved. (See Business Questions, Secion III of the Journal.)

Ruth Cade rose to speak of the work and appreciation of Belton Joyner for the past years. This was duly noted and appreciation was expressed by a standing vote of applause.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick declared the Conference adjourned until 8:00 p.m. for the evening service. The business of the Conference was now completed except for fixing of appointments.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION, Saturday, June 17, 1989

A Covenant for Ministry and Passing of the Torch: The Worship Service was held at 8:00 p.m. in Reeves Auditorium with Dr. Carol M. Noren preaching. Special music was rendered by the 100 member Massed Choir. The Bishop brought recognition of all Appointments Beyond the Local Church and their special meaning to the Conference. He identified the different areas of service and the Conference responded to them accordingly. He recognized the Cabinet and staff, particularly those incoming and outgoing, and spoke of the dedication and helpfulness of these persons. The lists of appointments were distributed to the Conference. One or two corrections were made as appropriate, then fixed as true and accurate. The Bishop continued and conducted the Passing of the Torch ceremony. (For a synopsis of this meaningful evening service, see the service bulletin, A Covenant for Ministry and Passing of the Torch, Saturday, June 17, 1989.)

Moving Day: Bill Sherman announced that moving day for pastors would be Tuesday, June 27.

Points of Personal Privilege: Several names were called and remembered to the Conference who were ill, in the hospital, and who had been in accidents.

Announcements: Secretary Jim Coile made several announcements and gave details of the ordination service tomorrow.

Adjournment: The final hymn was sung and the benediction given and with gracious words of appreciaton from Bishop Minnick, the session adjourned.

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION, Sunday, June 18, 1989

The Love Feast: Kelly Wilson, Jr., led in the Love Feast, assisted by clergy and lay members of the Conference. People in attendance began to give testimony in song and word of glory to God as the traditional bread and water were distributed. Catharine Vick, Bob Mangum and others spoke of their work, and more testimonials were given. Hymns were sung and the entire body participated with fervor as the final prayer was given closing the Love Feast.

Brief Recess: A recess was called in order to make preparation for the upcoming Ordination Service.

A Service of Worship for Ordination: At 10:30 a.m., an ordination service was held in Reeves Auditorium. Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presided and Dean Dennis M. Campbell was the preacher. The Conference Cabinet rendered special music. Woody Wells presented the deacons and elders for ordination. They were duly ordained. (For a synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Worship for Ordination, Sunday, June 18, 1989.)

The 1989 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church closed with singing at this special spirit-filled service. This was the one hundred sixty-fourth session in the fifth year of episcopacy of Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., as Bishop of the Raleigh Area of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church.

In Memoriam

Blessed are the dead who died in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.

SECTION IV

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE

THE PRELUDE — Sonne der Gerechtigkeit

(At the Lamb's High Feast) Jan Bender

THE WORDS OF GRACE

Jesus said, I am the Resurrection and I am Life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, yet shall they live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Because I live, you shall live also.

THE GREETING

Family and friends, we have gathered here to praise God and to witness to our faith as we celebrate the lives of the ministers and spouses of this Annual Conference who have died this past year:

Ministers Who Have Died During The Year

We come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss. May God grant us grace, that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

HYMN (No. 536) — For All The Saints How Tune: Sine Nomine Williams

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

Eternal God, we praise you for the great company of all those who have finished their course in faith and now rest from their labor. We praise you for those dear to us whom we name in our hearts before you. To all of these, grant your peace. Let perpetual light shine upon them; and help us so to believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home not made with hands but eternal in the heavens; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ANTHEM — Precious Lord, Take My Hand Dorsey

THE READING OF THE WORD

Isaiah 40:1-5, 28-31

II Corinthians 4:15-18

John 19:28-30

THE SERMON — I Finished What You Told Me To Do

A STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death

I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

HYMN (No. 462) — Spirit of Life, In This New Dawn Marlatt
Tune: Maryton Smith

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

God of love, we thank you for all with which you have blessed us even to this day; for the gift of joy in days of health and strength, and for the gifts of your abiding presence and promise in days of pain and grief. We praise you for home and friends, for our baptism and place in your Church with all who have faithfully lived and died. Above all else we thank you for Jesus, who knew our griefs, who died our death and rose for our sake, and who lives and prays for us. And as he taught us, so now we pray.

OUR LORD'S PRAYER

DISMISSAL WITH BLESSING

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of the Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. And the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

HOWARD EMORY ANDERSON III

Howard Emory Anderson III, son of Howard E. Anderson, Jr., and Bernice E. Anderson was born September 5, 1960 in Wilmington, DE. As a student, he attended Wilmington High School and graduated in 1978.

At a very early age, Howard accepted Jesus Christ into his life, and later experienced a very meaningful call from God to preach His Gospel. After being convinced that God wanted him to minister to his people, Howard indicated a serious commitment and desire to serve his Lord and Savior through the ministry of the church. Thereafter, he decided to continue his education. His pastoral training was received at Methodist College, Fayetteville, NC, and Duke Divinity School, Durham, NC, with the Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity degrees, respectively. He also served a summer internship at John Wesley UMC while studying at Duke Divinity School.

Howard became a probationary member of the NC Annual Conference. He was ordained deacon in 1984, and received his elder's orders June 19, 1988.

He was appointed three years as the student pastor for the Mt. Zion-Walls Chapel Charge, and one year as the full-time pastor of this charge. On October 1 of the same year we were married, and together we became a dedicated couple in working to build up and promote God's Kingdom.

In 1987, Howard was appointed to Saint Peter UMC, Hamlet, NC, where he remained until his death, July 1, 1988, at Moore Regional Hospital.

Howard's homecoming service was celebrated at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 6, 1988, at First UMC, Rockingham, NC, and interment was in the Johnsonville Memorial Garden. Ministers were the Reverend Thomas G. Holtsclaw (presiding) and the Reverend Bill Sherman, Rockingham District Superintendent. Dr. Joseph B. Bethea, Raleigh District Superintendent, delivered the eulogy.

Everyone knew Howard as a "child of God" and as a man in the "people-caring business". The youngest child to the oldest adult saw him as one with a great deal of enthusiasm and confidence. He had a friendly disposition and a great sense of humor.

The family knew him as a man who loved his Savior, his family, and his church. He chose right over wrong and stood firmly on what he believed in.

Many beautiful memories were left for me and his son, Howard E. Anderson IV, known as Emory. These precious memories will be planted in the heart of his four month old son, Aaron Lamar, who was born on February 10, 1989.

Other survivors were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Anderson, Jr.; his brother, George W. Anderson; his sister, Sharon L. A. Moore; his grandmother, Wilhelmenia Anderson; and many other relatives and friends.

Howard is gone, but will not be forgotten - for he touched the lives of so many people.

GEORGE WOOD BLOUNT

George Wood Blount, son of Charles Egerton and Susan Davis Blount, was born in Wilson, NC, on December 4, 1896.

George was graduated from Wilson High School in 1914. The following four years he worked in the office of an oil company in Farmville and as a bookkeeper for a fertilizer company in Wilson. During 1918 and 1919 he served in the US Navy and was stationed in Charleston, SC. At the end of World War I, he returned home and entered Wake Forest College from which he graduated cum laude in 1923.

At this stage in his life George felt a definite call to the ministry. He entered Yale Divinity School in the fall of 1923 and graduated in 1926. On June 13, 1926, he was ordained in the Christian ministry. He accepted a call as pastor of First Baptist Church of Harrisonburg, VA. He next served as pastor of Congregational Church in Chattanooga, TN.

In 1932 George felt the call to return to his mother's church, the First Methodist Church of Wilson, and in November was received into full connection in the NC Conference. Over a period of 29 years he served faithfully the following appointments: Burgaw, Warsaw, Edenton, Spring Hope, Selma, West Burlington, Carthage, Louisburg and Wesley Memorial in Raleigh, from which he retired in 1961. He and his family continued to make their home in Raleigh.

In each of his churches George and his family were greatly loved and appreciated. It was this writer's privilege to be a member of his congregation at Louisburg and to engage his services as the first chaplain of Louisburg College. With his sincere dedication, quiet, gentle, caring and Christlike spirit he endeared himself to church and college and to the entire community.

Retirement did not stop him - it hardly slowed him down. He served Elizabeth Church near Smithfield for two years. He was interim pastor at Spring Hope for brief periods during two conference years. He taught a course for lay pastors at Louisburg College during the spring of 1963. He served as minister of visitation at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, from 1965-1968. One of his great loves was the Prayer Fellowship he helped to organize at Edenton Street Church. For twenty-five years he held regular monthly services at the Raleigh Rescue Mission.

Each summer for fifteen years he was the preacher for the Hill Family Reunion. Offerings received were given to missions.

His grandfather, George Washington Blount, was grand master of the NC Masonic Lodge. George also became a Mason and served for a time as grand chaplain. His other grandfather, James W. Davis, was a descendant of James Davis, the first printer to bring the printing press to North Carolina.

For many years George was a member of the YMCA and gave the invocation at the membership suppers. A regular participant in physical exercise may have contributed to his almost 92 years of good health and active life.

A gifted writer, George was the author of three books: The Creative Christ, Peace Through World Government and Bernard of Clairvaux. During his latter years he supplied the "Quote of the Week" for the NC Christian Advocate.

While pastor at Edenton in 1936 he met Evelyn Hill of Spartanburg County, SC on the Duke University Campus. She was attending summer school. They were married in the Duke Chapel December 28, 1939, by the late Reverend Leon C. Larkin. Evelyn was a devoted and talented wife throughout their almost fifty years together and supported her husband as a loving companion and a faithful church worker. To this union were born a daughter and a son, Susan Hill Johnson of Clinton, NC and George Wesley of Fleetwood, NC. Grandchildren are Susan Blount Johnson, Jeff D. Johnson IV, Ellen Beaman Johnson of Clinton.

George entered his heavenly home on July 15, 1988, following a six-week illness, being hospitalized only five days of that time. Funeral services were conducted July 16 at Edenton Street UMC by the pastor, Dr. Vernon Tyson, and the Reverend J. Worth Lineberger. Interment followed in Montlawn Cemetery, Raleigh.

Dr. Robbins, in his concluding remarks at George's funeral quoted a request George had made concerning his passing. "Please have the words 'In Christ' put on my tombstone." "Does that not reveal the love in his heart and the standard of his life?" asked the speaker.

Yes, it does - so fitting and so true. "In Christ." At home "in Christ". The highest glory of all! His life "in Christ" will continue to bless all who knew him and walked with him through his Christ-filled years.

JOHN EVERETT WOOD

1919 - 1988

The Reverend John Everett Wood, son of Cyrus William Wood and Lelia Stafford Wood, was born on November 26, 1919 in Roanoke Rapids, NC, in Halifax County where he received his elementary and high school education. He also studied at Louisburg College, Atlantic Christian College, Duke University and Drew University.

He was married to Fleeta Clary of Gaston, NC on November 29, 1944.

John Everett Wood was ordained a deacon in the NC Annual Conference in 1955, and was ordained an elder in 1957. His ministry covered a span of twenty-five years in which he served the following charges: Nash, Middleburg, Louisburg, Burlington Circuit, Bethlehem-Shady Grove, Bridgeton, Trenton, Jefferson, Poplar Springs-Trinity, Vance, Northampton, West End, and St. John-Gibson.

It was in 1977, while he was serving the St. John-Gibson Circuit, that physical problems forced him to be put on disability leave. At this time he moved into a comfortable apartment in Aberdeen, NC. In 1984 plans were made to purchase a house in Henderson, NC and in August of that year, John and Fleeta moved into their new home. It was a source of great satisfaction for John to live in his own home, in the area where he had served several churches, and where laymen responded by adding to John's resources to make the new home possible - which fact is mentioned, not to give special credit to these laymen, but to show the love and respect these anonymous laymen had for a loyal pastor. It was in this home in Henderson, NC, where John died on July 16, 1988.

The funeral service was conducted by the Reverend W. A. Crow, assisted by the Reverend Roy Falgout, at White's Funeral Chapel in Henderson, NC. Interment was in Flat Rock Church Cemetery. Pall bearers were Bishop Joseph Bethea, the Reverend James Williams, the Reverend Jimmy Reaves, Paul Seabolt, Ray Buchanan, and Howard Short.

He is survived by his wife, Fleeta Clary Wood; one son, Edwin N. Wood, of Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines; two sisters, Mrs. Christine W. Copeland, Mrs. Pauline W. Hall, both of Gaston, NC; and one brother, Cryus William Wood, Jr., of Saint Paul, NC.

John Everett Wood stood tall as a pastor. He stood tall mentally. There was a greatness about John Wood that could be known only by being with him long and often. He had a mind like a computer bank, and it seemed to be filled with everything he had ever heard or that he had ever seen in print. His ability to recall names and places, facts and figures was always an amazement to this writer. Had he gone into the legal profession, he could have been a prominent lawyer, or had he gone into medicine, he could have been outstanding in this or in any profession. Few people I have known could equal him mentally. When he had a temporary loss of his eyesight, he learned Braille; and when there was nothing else at hand that interested him, he took up the study of Sanskrit.

And, John E. Wood stood tall spiritually. He had a wisdom that could come only with a close walk with God through faith in Christ. When the worst things would happen to him - temporary loss of sight or hearing, or a few days in a coma, or a trip to the hospital for the possibility of a foot amputation - with each new affliction he would say, "I am waiting now to see what the Lord is trying to teach me this time". And, when friends visited him in the midst of any one of these afflictions or in the midst of several of them at one time, he never talked about his problems. He would ask about their children or of some other members of their families or the welfare of the friendly visitor; and he would listen with concern to what was said. And if there was time, he would talk about pleasant experiences of his childhood and youth, and the happy things that he had experienced in his pastoral ministry. John E. Wood was a grateful man of great faith and compassion. He loved his people and his people loved him.

And so John Everett Wood is remembered as a man, standing tall as a pastor, standing tall mentally, standing tall spiritually, and now I am persuaded he is standing tall in the Church Triumphant.

CLARENCE RENNEKER BREEDIN, JR.

Clarence R. Breedin, Jr. was born on January 9, 1909 to Taccoa Spencer Breedin and Clarence Renneker Breedin in Manning, SC. After finishing high school in Manning, he attended Wofford College where he graduated with a degree in education.

On August 19, 1938 he was married to Grace Ayscue. To this union were born three children: Anne, Clarence Renneker III, and Emily. He is survived by his widow, Grace; by his two daughters, Anne B. DeVere of the home and Emily B. Babcock of Cary, NC; and by four grandchildren.

Throughout his life, C. R. Breedin, Jr. devoted himself to service for others. He taught for seventeen years; was an officer in the US Army on active duty for five years, and in US Army Reserve for fifteen years; and served in the United Methodist Conference for seven years.

His teaching career was spent in Pauline, SC, Kittrell, NC and Lumberton, NC. He was in the Army from 1941 to 1945, serving at home and overseas. For the next fifteen years he remained in the US Army Reserve, retiring in 1965 with the rank of major.

In the meantime, his true vocation called, and in 1957, C. R. Breedin, Jr., began his career in the Methodist ministry in the course of which he served charges in Sandy Cross, Aulander and Littleton.

"The Parson" came to Littleton in 1965 and remained until his death on August 30, 1988. For twenty years he wrote "Parson's Particles" for the Littleton Observer. His column was avidly read and gleefully quoted by young and old. His news items, while informative, were mostly highly prized for their entertaining, witty coverage of the important and the trivial. Frequently a paragraph would begin, "In the passing of I have lost a dearest friend", and would be followed by a beautiful eulogy. Weekly the community was treated to delightful anecdotes about its residents. Many locals, including his family, read with bated breath his mischievous, humorous accounts that made their ordinary, everyday activities into hilarious adventures.

To know Clarence Breedin, Jr. was to love him. He cultivated his God-given ability to inspire, to instill confidence and self-esteem, and to bring peace into the lives of others. He was active in the American Legion and in community affairs. December 1, 1984, the day of the annual Littleton Merchants Parade, was designated Clarence Breedin Day with the Reverend Breedin chosen to serve as grand marshal for the parade. The proclamation read as follows, and is a fitting close to a eulogy the Littleton community is honored to offer in memory and recognition of its beloved deceased "Parson":

"Whereas his smile and humor have been a source of cheer to our citizens for 19 years; and

Whereas his love for his fellow man has been a model for us all; and

Whereas his unflagging courage in the face of adversity has been an inspiration for us all; and

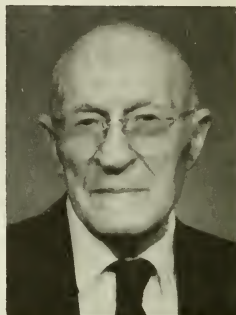

Whereas his steady faith has been evident in all that he does, I, B. Mason Hawfield, Mayor of Littleton, NC, proclaim Dec. 1, 1984, Clarence Breedin Day to demonstrate the admiration, affection and appreciation the people of Littleton feel for this beloved citizen."

The Reverend Clarence R. Breedin, Jr. died in Halifax Memorial Hospital on August 30, 1988. Graveside funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Arthur Warren, and burial followed in Sunset Hills Cemetery in Littleton.

ADRIAN ERNUL BROWN, SR.

Adrian Ernul Brown, Sr., was born on August 11, 1892, in Greenville, NC to Wiley Brown and Mollie Moore Brown.

He was educated at Trinity College where he received a bachelors degree and later attended Duke University where he received his divinity degree. He was a teacher before being called into the ministry.

He entered the Methodist ministry from Jarvis Memorial Church. He served as minister in the Methodist churches of Stumpy Point, Ingold-Garland, Haw River Circuit, Robertsonville, Manteo, Moyock-Currituck, Yanceyville, Parkton, Bridgeton-Riverside, Goldsboro Circuit, Grifton Circuit, Gaston, Maury, and Greenville: Jarvis Memorial (Associate). He joined the NC Methodist Conference in 1922 and served as a pastor for 40 years until he retired at the Conference held in Kinston in 1962. After retiring he stayed busy assisting his fellow ministers when called upon. In 1968, the Administrative Board of Jarvis Memorial elected him to the church staff as visitation minister, and he served in this capacity until his death.

He was married to the late Hannah Cuthrell of Aurora, who passed away January 15, 1983. They had 65 long, wonderful years together. They were the proud parents of five children: Adrian E. Brown, Jr. of Virginia Beach, VA; Wiley Brown of Raleigh, NC; the late Joe E. Brown of Greenville, NC; Mary Jane Hall of Parkton, NC; and James Paul Brown of Norfolk, VA. He had 19 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Jarvis Memorial UMC and the burial was at Pinewood Memorial Park.

Adrian Brown, Sr., was a dedicated minister who served God to the best of his ability. He was always willing to serve wherever he was needed. He loved everyone and always greeted people with a handshake, hug, or even a kiss on the cheek. He taught his family and friends that you "best serve God by serving others". The fond memories of his life and love for God and others will forever be cherished.

"Are ye able," said the Master, "To be crucified with me?"

'Yea,' the sturdy dreamers answered, 'To the death we follow thee.'
 Lord, we are able our spirits are thine.
 Remold them, make us, Like thee, divine.
 Thy guiding radiance Above us shall be
 A beacon to God, to love, and loyalty."

SHELLEY ABBEY FOGLEMAN

Shelley Elizabeth-Anne Abbey Fogleman was born on March 7, 1956, in Troy, OH, to Bruce Dean and Terry Leuthold Abbey. She died suddenly in an automobile accident on December 22, 1988, near Brunswick, GA.

Shelley attended Heywood Elementary School in Troy, OH, and graduated from Fort Myers High School, Fort Myers, FL. She graduated as a dean's list student from Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, FL. While a student at Florida Atlantic, she served as a Methodist Youth Counselor at First UMC in Boca Raton. It was here that Shelley met and later married Leland Jan Fogleman on June 17, 1977. Jan was serving in Boca Raton as a summer student minister from Emory University Candler School of Theology in Atlanta, GA. As her husband continued his seminary work at Candler, Shelley was a hard working and very supportive wife. Their first appointment was at St. Luke in Sanford, NC. While there, Shelley could not resist the call to the ministry; so entered Duke Divinity School to pursue the Master of Divinity degree. She graduated while they served at Piney Grove-Hickory Grove at Siler City. Her commitment to her calling inspired all who knew her and was evidenced by her excitement, enthusiasm, energy, endurance, and her ability to be a loving and supportive wife of a minister, a wonderful mother, and an excellent seminary student. She was the first recipient of Duke Divinity School's Jameson Jones Preaching Award for excellence in preaching. She was ordained Deacon in June, 1981.

Shelley served appointments at Jones Chapel (Sanford), Westview (Burgaw), Epworth (Wilmington), and Associate at Trinity (Durham), where her Christian love for her people and for her Lord was a shining light, and her faith was an example and inspiration to all. She was ordained elder in June 1987. She was a member of Durham Inter-Church Council and the Cape Fear Emmaus Community (Walk No. 2).

During the time that Shelley pursued her education and later served as pastor, and as her husband, Jan, served his different churches as pastor, their marriage produced three wonderful, beautiful, loving children. Sarah Elizabeth was born January 26, 1982, Hannah Rebekah was born February 8, 1985, and Stephen Michael was born May 22, 1986. Sarah and Hannah both died suddenly in the same automobile accident with Shelley on December 22, 1988. Stephen never regained consciousness and died on December 30, 1988. All four were buried in Bethesda Cemetery at Aberdeen, NC. Jan was the only survivor in their immediate family.

A funeral service of worship for Shelley, Sarah, and Hannah was celebrated on December 27, 1988, at Page Memorial UMC in Aberdeen by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr. and Dr. Wallace Kirby. A memorial service was held at Trinity UMC, Durham, the following day for Shelley, Sarah, and Hannah, conducted by the Reverend David Brownlee, senior pastor at Trinity. The funeral service for Stephen was conducted on December 31 by Dr. James L. Travis III, head of Pastoral Service at Duke University Medical Center, Jan's supervisor.

Shelley was an inspiration and Christian example to all who knew her. Her senior pastor called her "a great friend, a great minister, and a great teacher". He also said "she had all the gifts a minister of Jesus Christ could hope to have". He said further, "she had a deep and abiding faith, strong preaching and pastoring skills, and boundless enthusiasm for life and ministry that touched everyone she met". Shelley was always a very vibrant person, not only in the pulpit, but in all of her activities. Coming into her presence one could not help but feel lifted up. She always seemed to "bubble over" with her excitement about life. Her love for others always showed. She was extremely sensitive to the needs of people in a truly Christian way. Her children were a joy to the family and to the church families wherever they went.

Family gatherings were always exciting when Shelley was present. A large family of brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nephews and nieces was always inspired and lifted up on occasions when they could be together.

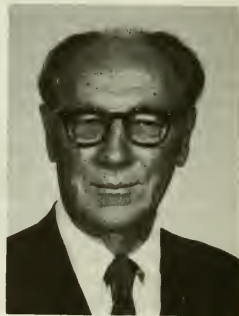

Many lives are richer by having known Shelley and their three precious children. Countless hundreds of people will continue to miss them in this life. Shelley's parents and Jan and his family have felt an outpouring of Christian love which testifies to the love others had for Shelley, Jan, and their children. We know we have felt the love of Jesus Christ through so many wonderful Christian friends.

The loss hurts very much. We look with joyful anticipation to the family reunion in heaven where Christ has prepared a place for us. We know Shelley and the children are "bubbling over" with energy as they help prepare for us. We love them very much.

The Family

VANCE ALLEN LEWIS

1912 - 1988

Vance Allen Lewis was born July 17, 1912, to Elijah Whitfield Lewis and Annie Daniels Lewis. Along with his four sisters, Rhoda, Myrtle, Doris and Mabel, he grew and waxed strong in a loving family, and on the serene shores under the watchful eye of the Cape Lookout Lighthouse.

Vance loved the sea. It was by the sea that he played as a boy. It was dabbling in the sea and fishing and "messaging around in the water" that he nurtured his love for the water, and drew strength from its fury and fierceness, as well as its calmness and serenity. God spoke to this young boy from the depths of the sea.

"Whether the storm king whitens its shoals
 Or whether by soft winds fanned,
 I love the sound of the sea as it rolls
 In the hollow of God's hand;
 For I was born within sound of its waves,
 And it ever shall be to me
 The song of all songs that I love the best,
 The roar of the gray old sea -
 The laugh of the summer sea.
 And I hear at times a sentinel,
 Who moves about from place to place
 And whispers to the worlds of space,
 In the deep night, that all is well.
 Dear loved ones, don't grieve for me and be sad,
 For it is well with my soul."

A revival meeting at Marshallburg Baptist Church was the setting for his conversion at the age of sixteen. He never turned aside from this experience. So, after graduating from St. Paul's Episcopal High School in Beaufort with honors, Vance was admitted to the Atlantic-Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Although his desire was to attend college, this dream was never fulfilled, yet he was continually studying and was involved with much in the way of continuing education. His love of books was evident when one looked at his library.

On April 11, 1933, Vance married Pearl Willis, who survives him. Two daughters, Theresa and Wanda, were born to their union; and both daughters, along with their husbands, also survive Vance's passing. Also surviving are five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Vance never was the pastor of one of our larger congregations, but made his witness in the smaller churches and communities of our Conference. He knew his Lord and had much to say about Him - so much so that at times his sermons grew in length. When a parishioner would complain, Vance would indicate that this was good news and deserved a little more time. Anyway, it didn't seem to bother parishioners to sit for hours before a TV, and his news was better than that! However, when one passed Vance's outer dimensions and came to the inner man, they would find a true follower of The Way. There was love and mercy, forgiveness and giving. Vance Lewis had a gentle soul that was eager to share the things of the spirit. It was not uncommon for him to slam on the brakes, jump out of the car and gather wild flowers to take home to "Miss Pearl". It was not unusual either for Vance to want to sit and talk about the things of God until the early hours of morning.

Vance Lewis was my friend. It was Vance who met me at my first charge. It was he who helped me do my first funeral, my first wedding. It was Vance who gave me my first book on sermon preparation and took time with me. Vance watched me grow. He was always proud of me and my ministry. He was not "jealous or boastful, did not rejoice in wrong, but rejoiced in right..." Yes, Vance was a man of God, a humble man, and for this I give thanks.

When Vance and Pearl retired and went back to live beside the sea, our Conference lost the active gifts of a man who grew great without fanfare and without applause. How grateful we are for those years of ministry and sacrifice.

On December 29, 1988, Vance died at Sea Level Hospital on Nelson's Bay following a lengthy illness. His funeral service of celebration was conducted on January 1, 1989, by the New Bern District Superintendent Whit Warren, and his pastor, Wayne Thomas. Interment was at Victoria Cemetery in Marshallburg, NC.

JESSE THOMAS FISHER, SR.

Jesse Thomas Fisher was born October 4, 1901 in Vance County, NC and died February 23, 1989. Services were Saturday, February 25, 1989 at 2 p.m. at City Road Methodist Church, Henderson, NC, with the Reverend Michael Davis officiating. Interment was at Elwood Cemetery in Henderson.

Alpha and Omega - Henderson, NC, was the beginning and is the final resting place for Jesse Thomas Fisher. He was laid to rest beside his wife of 50 years - Sally, who had gone to her heavenly reward November 18, 1972.

Jesse was the last son born to George and Rebecca Fisher. Times were hard and life was not easy, but he learned many valuable lessons that helped him to become the man he became. During his early years he held a variety of jobs. He met Sally Holmes and they were married December 24, 1922. They had four children - Graham, 1925-1964; Lucy Ann who was stillborn, 1927; Robert, 1928-1989; and J. T., 1932-.

He accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior when he was in his late 40's and responded to God's call for him to preach the gospel. Not having had very much formal education, he took on a tremendous challenge of preparation for learning about the ministry. He completed his seminar work at Emory University in Atlanta, finishing first in his class. He was accepted by the NC Methodist Conference in 1946. There was a need and, with God's help and his wife by his side, he served faithfully, preaching God's word and assisting in many situations. His first assignment took them to Cape Hatteras, NC; from there they went to Waccamaw Circuit, Shallotte, Salter Path, Bell Arthur, Creswell, Williston, and Pollocksville. All these places were very special to them. They loved their people and touched the lives of many people that established everlasting friendships. In 1973 at 72 years of age and after the death of his wife, he retired from the NC Conference; however, he never retired from the ministry. He continued to teach, testify and assist at services.

He met and married Mabel Brown Moore in 1974. They shared many happy hours living together at Franklinton, NC, where she still resides.

Surviving is one son, J. T., of Walhalla, SC, nine grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, several relatives and a host of friends. Those that knew Jesse for years and those that only knew him for a short time all agree that he was a very special Christian man.

FOSTER LEE REYNOLDS

"There is a soul hanging in the balance here tonight - I feel heaven is bending low" and with his last spoken "Hallelujah", Foster L. Reynolds went home to be with his Lord Jesus Christ from behind his pulpit.

These words, uttered from the very heart of a man after God's own heart, stirred the hearts of the people in that church on Easter Sunday night. He bid his people farewell and took his journey home to be with his Father. He had fought a good fight, he had finished his course, and he went to receive his robe of righteousness and his crown of glory. All the sermons had been preached, all the songs had been sung, all the prayers had been prayed as he gave his last altar call; therefore, he laid down his heavy burden and concern (one he had carried for many long miles and through long, weary years) and took Jesus Christ by the hand, hearing the words of our Lord, Well done thy good and faithful servant, enter ye into the joys of the Lord.

Foster Lee Reynolds was born in Lamar, SC, August 19, 1933, to godly parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Reynolds. He was the oldest of eight children. When he was born, the baby specialist told his parents he would never live to be grown, but God said, "Doctor, you are wrong. I am pushing the jaws of death from Foster Reynolds to preach my gospel and live a life of holiness." This was Foster's testimony, "when I stop preaching, I'll die because the only reason I'm here is to preach God's word". In 1954, God called him to preach.

On April 1, 1957, Foster married his sweetheart, Bernice Lee Gore and they began their walk through life together with God. After completing his studies at Emmanuel Bible College in Franklin Spring, GA, God called him to preach without compromise and to lift up His blood stained banner. He began to pastor.

He served six years in the SC Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. In 1963, he came to the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church and attended Duke Divinity School. He completed the NC Conference course of study and became a licensed pastor. His first pastorate was Richlands Circuit with three churches.

In 1965, he was appointed to Salter Path UMC which was located in a small fishing village. The little white frame church was adequate at the time, but time moved on and God who said, "If I be lifted up will draw all men unto me", let His word go forth - and the crowd outgrew this little white building.

In 1976, a new sanctuary was completed seating 600 people comfortably. The first service in the new sanctuary was on Easter Sunday. Foster Reynolds served this appointment for 23 years and was reappointed for the next year.

During his tenure of service at the Salter Path Church, he was known for the gospel he proclaimed, his dedication with firm conviction, and his love for people. He never saw people as being rich or poor, pretty or ugly, old or young, he saw them as having a soul who would spend eternity somewhere. It would only take the miss of one heart beat, then you live with your choice. "Sin doesn't pay off with any good," he often said.

The world came to worship at Salter Path, and he never knew where many in Sunday's congregation lived. No one that ever passed through the doors of his church would ever say they had never heard the gospel nor an altar call, because he believed deeply in the value of a soul and in the worth of prayer.

The New Bern District was the only district he ever served. There was no steeple so tall, no carpet so thick, no salary so rich as to make him compromise his conviction or his faith in Jesus Christ, his Lord and Savior.

This dear, precious man of God was more than a pastor to his church. Having lived among the Salter Path people and the people of Carteret County for 24 years, he was a treasured friend, a neighbor, and a special part of each family.

With a tape ministry, the message he preached went far beyond the village, the county, and even the State. He was faithful to a radio ministry, "Camp Meeting Time"; he reached many shut-ins and sick people. His happiest times were preaching in church, revivals, and camp meetings.

Oh, how he prayed for people to turn from their wicked ways and turn to Jesus, whom he said, "would be everybody and everything they needed".

Foster Reynolds moved into his new mansion March 26, 1989, Easter Sunday.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bernice Reynolds of Salter Path, NC; three sisters, Mrs. Betty Griggs of Lamar, SC, Mrs. Eula Taylor of Timmonsville, SC, Mrs. Rachel Jones of Petersburg, VA; three brothers, Mr. J. F. Reynolds, Mr. Viven Reynolds, and Mr. David Reynolds of Lamar, SC.

His funeral service was held in Salter Path UMC on March 29, 1989, 3:00 p.m., with New Bern District Superintendent M. W. Warren, Jr., and the Reverend Wilbur Teachey of Farmville UMC. Songs of inspiration were sung by both the church choir and the congregation. Mr. Harold Anderson read a poem "A Tribute to our Pastor". Burial was at Gethsemane Memorial Park.

"He who is faithful unto the end the same shall be saved." Foster L. Reynolds was heaven's request for a man of God, and he was known near and far for this fact. The following is a condolence letter from President George Bush.

Dear Mrs. Reynolds:

Barbara and I were very saddened to learn of your husband's death. While the days ahead will not be easy, we hope you'll take comfort in knowing that your many friends are standing by to help in any way.

Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Bernice G. Reynolds

LEON (DICK) LEWIS, JR.

Leon (Dick) Lewis, Jr. was born in rural Wayne County on May 5, 1930. At age 23, he married the former Ruth Cummings and they began their life together farming. Soon after they married, Leon began telling Ruth he felt a call to preach. As they continued farming and struggled with his being called, babies were being born. Leon felt that somehow God could not be calling him - a married man with several children and only a high school education. In 1957, however, he asked for and was granted a license to preach. He could put the Lord off no longer.

Like Abraham, he went out by faith not sure where he was going but knowing that he was led by the Lord. In 1961, he was assigned by the NC Methodist Conference as a part-time local preacher to serve Garriss Chapel Church. The following year, he was asked to go into a rural area on Highway 111 and organize a new church. He organized Walker Memorial there, and served the two churches while continuing to farm. In 1964, the Conference asked him to continue his work at Walker Memorial, Westwood and Ebenezer. For the next eighteen years, he served these three churches - preaching in each one of them every Sunday. Walker Memorial Church was placed on another charge in 1982 but he served the remaining two churches until his death. Ruth Lewis said that he never took a vacation and was out of his pulpit only six Sundays during all of his ministry. Deaths in the family and one daughter's college graduation were the only times he missed. Even then, he questioned why a Methodist college would have graduation on Sunday. In 1969, Leon was ordained a deacon. In 1976, he devoted himself full time to the Lord and gave up his second love of life - farming.

In addition to preaching three times each Sunday for eighteen years, he also tried to attend every meeting in each of the churches. Many times he would have to leave one church in the middle of the meeting to rush to another one. One of his children said, "for years they called my daddy a part-time preacher"! Having no formal college training, he educated himself as he served the Lord. His children said most nights, when they went to bed, "daddy was still reading." This self-educated man became an outstanding preacher. Most who heard him preach left his presence a little more humble, and closer to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Leon went to be with his Lord on March 31, 1989. His services, held at St. Paul UMC in Goldsboro, were conducted by Goldsboro District Superintendent J. Malloy Owen, the Reverend Charles M. Smith, and the Reverend Doctor J. Paul Edwards.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth; six children, Nancy Sanders, Brenda Beasley, Eddie Lewis and Richard Lewis, all of Pikeville, Libby Gainey and Dennis Lewis of Goldsboro; and seven grandchildren.

Someone said of Leon, "He was not a 'Bible toting man' who tried to shove religion down your throat. He chose to share the gospel by setting an example by his life. He made one yearn for the secret he had and he shared his 'secret' with as many people as he could get to listen."

Leon (Dick) Lewis, Jr., as one of his children said, "worked all his life to let everyone know that they are an heir to the Kingdom of God. Life is worth living; life everlasting is worth celebrating.

JANADUS DOANE STOTT

Janadus Doane Stott, second son of Charles Ruffin and Louisa Jane Whitley Stott, was born in Wilson County near Bailey, NC on April 26, 1898. The family moved to Wendell, where Doane completed high school. His family actively took part in the building and ongoing life of Wendell Methodist Church.

He was graduated from Trinity College in 1923. From 1924-26 he was head of the Math Department at Mid-Pacific Institute, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii. He returned to attend Duke Divinity School, serving as student pastor at Bailey and Princeton, before receiving his B.D. in 1929. He became a member of the NC Annual Conference of The Methodist Church in 1926 and was ordained elder in 1930.

He married Flora Belle Dawson of Greensboro on February 18, 1930, and after her graduation from Duke that spring, they were appointed as missionaries to Japan, to serve first in Hiroshima, then in Uwajima on Shikoku.

In addition to ministerial responsibilities Doane introduced head lettuce and sweet potatoes to the agronomy and taught farmers how to slaughter and process swine for better marketing prices. He also purchased and distributed a special breed of goats to missionaries and kindergartens to provide milk for children. The parsonage compound continued as a center for Bible classes, evangelism, classes in English and cooking, and agricultural endeavors, until early 1941 when international situations necessitated an early furlough. Leaving Japan was difficult, but hopes were sustained by a sense of accomplishment that Christ's life had been successfully shared, and by the possibility of returning to a people to the Risen Son.

After graduate studies at Hartford Seminary he served Pembroke, Pikeville, Halifax, Perquimans, Maysville, Garland, with an Asian-American orphanage, as interim pastor in Andrews, SC, Union Chapel-Granville, Mamers, Knightdale, South Rosemary, Angier, and Swepsonville before retiring in 1963.

His ministry was characterized by his concern for the common man, his outreach to the downtrodden, his commitment to feeding and clothing the hungry through CROP, and his devotion to his family.

Doane and Flora Belle returned to Japan in 1963 as members of the Lacour Evangelistic team in Hokkaido and remained a year to teach at Palmore Institute in Kobe. They returned to Greensboro where Doane's survey of the needs of the inner city led to the current Inner City Ministries. His retirement years were filled with teaching, inner city ministry, visitation, promoting the NC Christian Advocate, Lions Club, and of course, gardening. He was known as "Mr. CROP" locally and nationally because of his fund raising and walking even after celebrating 90 birthdays. He and Flora Belle were selected as Citizens of the Month in Greensboro, but now Doane is a full citizen of the Eternal Realm.

After a brief illness Doane died April 5, 1989 while a resident of Friends Home in Greensboro. Memorial Services were held at West Market Street Church and at Westminster Gardens conducted by the Reverends Earl Gibson, Paul Bradley, Harley Dickson, and William G. Sharpe IV. Surviving are his widow, Flora Belle Dawson Stott of Greensboro; his daughter, Mary Belle Gilbert of Greensboro; his son, the Reverend Elbert Russell Stott of Chapel Hill; four sisters and one brother; and four grandchildren.

HYDER FERGUSON CRAWLEY

Hyder Ferguson Crawley was born August 13, 1914, to Albert Ellis and Nora Hux Crawley, natives of Halifax County, NC. Hyder was the sixth child born into a family of five sisters and four brothers, two of whom died in early childhood. As a boy he attended the Ebenezer Methodist Church.

His early education was received in the Halifax County schools. Continuing his education in later years, he earned an Associate of Arts degree from Louisburg College, attended the Pastors School at the Duke Divinity School, and completed additional studies through Emory University.

On January 16, 1938, Hyder married Mary Madeline Pittard, daughter of Jessie D. and Grace Green Pittard also of Halifax County. It was in this same county that they lived and worked on their farm providing for themselves and their two children.

During this time, Hyder became very active in the Hawkins Chapel Methodist Church, located just a mile from his home. After serving in several capacities as a layman, he felt called to enter the ministry. In October of 1954, he was issued a local preacher's license. Shortly thereafter, he was given his first appointment. In 1956 he was ordained a deacon and in 1958, an elder. In June of 1960, he was admitted into the NC Methodist Conference on trial, and into full connection in 1962. Hyder always looked upon this accomplishment as a great milestone in his life.

His appointments were Wesley Memorial Charge 1954-1959; Jamesville Charge 1959-1963; Eureka-Yelverton 1963-1968; Kenly: Kenly-Buckhorn 1968-1972; Washington: Asbury 1972-1974; Morehead City: Franklin Memorial 1974-1979; Rainbow 1979-1984.

Upon retiring in 1984, he returned to his farm in Halifax County. Although officially retired, he willingly continued to serve as pastor of the Seaboard Charge for an additional year.

During his life he worked as a cook, a farmer, a storekeeper, and a minister. Of all these jobs, the one that brought him the most joy and satisfaction was that of serving the Lord as a Methodist minister. He was never particular about where he was appointed but asked only for a place to serve and preach the gospel of Christ. Although Hyder may have retired from the active ministry, he continued preaching whenever he was needed, even after his health became very fragile. For as long as he was able, he faithfully ministered on a part-time basis to the people at the Guardian Care Nursing Home of Roanoke Rapids, NC.

After several years of declining health, Hyder died on Friday evening, April 14, 1989, in Halifax Memorial Hospital, Roanoke Rapids, NC. Survivors include his wife, Madeline; one son, William J. Crawley of Charlotte, NC; one daughter, Doris C. Hawkins of Wilson, NC; four grandchildren, Donna Lynn C. Melton and William Alan Crawley of Charlotte, NC, Robert Eugene Hawkins of Virginia Beach, VA, and Lois Carol Hawkins of Wilson, NC; one brother, William T. Crawley of Richmond, VA; and four sisters, Jeanette Hatley of Rocky Mount, NC, Madie Dickens of Roanoke Rapids, NC, Nora Chichester of Littleton, NC, and Grace Taylor of Enfield, NC.

Funeral services were held on April 17, 1989, at the Hawkins Chapel UMC. The officiating ministers were the Reverends Dennis Draper, pastor of the church; Bryan Gregory, a minister friend; and Arnold Gene Cobb, Jr., a member of the family. Nephews in the family served as pallbearers and a host of Methodist ministers also served as honorary pallbearers. Both the ministers' presence and their fervent singing with the congregation offered a great source of support and encouragement to the family members. As the church choir sang the words, "...Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal", sorrow gave way to victory. Hyder's joy could be felt by everyone in attendance as his granddaughter's husband sang the words of one of his favorite songs - "...Jerusalem, Jerusalem, lift up your gates and sing. Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna to your King!" In lieu of flowers, memorials were given to Hawkins Chapel and Ebenezer United Methodist Churches. Burial was in the family plot of the church cemetery.

We, the family members, appreciate his example of being obedient to God's call. We gain comfort in knowing that he indeed "fought the good fight, he finished the race, he kept the faith". It seems that we can still hear him say, as he always said to his minister friends, "Keep up the good work"! Although we miss him greatly, we still feel his love and we rejoice in his final victory.

RAYMOND GARDNER GURLEY

Raymond Gardner Gurley was born in Princeton, NC, Johnston County, on February 14, 1916. As the ninth child of a devout Primitive Baptist family, he knew the Lord Jesus Christ at an early age, attending Massey Crossroads Primitive Baptist Church which had been founded in the late eighteenth century by the family of his grandfather, the Reverend William Massey.

As a young man, he joined the Episcopal Church in St. Petersburg and Newport News, VA where he was working. It was after he married Lona Eloise Radford of Kenly in 1939 that he and his new wife joined the Princeton Methodist Church, where they remained a member until they moved to Selma in 1951 and joined Edgerton Methodist Church. Gardner was an active civic, political, business, and religious lay leader from 1940 to 1975. He was past president of the Princeton and Selma Lions Clubs, and member of the St. Patrick's Masonic Lodge in Princeton. Moreover, he served as mayor of Princeton from 1947 to 1951. In 1950, he was elected to the Johnston County Board of Commissioners where he served three four-year terms. As a county commissioner, he was instrumental in organizing the county's rural fire departments and improving the welfare department. He also was a former president of the Selma Chamber of Commerce and Man of the Year as well as a founder of the Johnston County Industrial Group, which was the primary agent for attracting industry to the county.

As a businessman and owner of Gurley's, Inc. from 1936 to 1982, Gardner Gurley was a pioneer in recognizing the importance of the soybean to our economy; in that, he dismantled and reconstructed the first soybean processing plant in NC and on the East coast. Moreover, he established business contacts with the Japanese tofu manufacturers as early as the late 1940's. During these years in the general store and brokerage business, feed, large and small grain, seed, and processed soybean oil and meal business, Gardner actively served as church school superintendent, lay leader and minister, Sunday school teacher, and chairperson of both boards of the Princeton and Selma Methodist Churches. With all of these activities, Gardner still felt incomplete. The call to become a minister became a reality to him as he befriended the Reverend George Tyson during his long bout with leukemia in the early 1970's. In 1974, Gardner was ordained a local deacon in the United Methodist Church. For years he served as pastor of Brietz Memorial UMC in Selma.

As chaplain to the Johnston County Correctional Institute and finally the Johnston County prison unit for serious offenders, the Reverend Gurley worked for several years to get a chapel for the prison unit near Smithfield. He envisioned the "Foot of the Cross Chapel". Donations and pledges toward that goal came from the General Assembly, from the Johnston County Board of Commissioners, and from area churches. The chapel is currently under construction and will include a sanctuary, library, and a counseling room.

Gardner Gurley preached, visited, and prayed primarily among the mentally ill, the homeless, the handicapped, the rest home elderly, the jailed and imprisoned - those forgotten by society. For he believed that "nothing...neither the infirmities of life nor any sin could separate persons from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord". Like Paul, Gardner Gurley understood that the "weakness of the flesh is not condemnation but thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord, it is He who delivers us from this body of death".

"Down in the human heart, crushed by the tempter,

Feelings lie buried that grace can restore...

Plead with them earnestly, plead with them gently;

He will forgive if they only believe..." ("Rescue the Perishing")

The Reverend Raymond Gardner Gurley of Selma, age 73, died on Thursday night, May 4, 1989 in Duke Medical Center following a two and one-half year bout with lymphoma. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverends Judy Smith and Linwood Crocker on May 7 at Parrish Funeral Home in Selma. Burial was in the Princeton Cemetery.

Raymond Gardner Gurley is survived by his wife Eloise R. Gurley; a son, Raymond Gardner Gurley II of Selma; and a daughter, Jackie Gurley Whitley of Raleigh.

"Just remember in the winter, far beneath the bitter snows,

LEONARD TRUMAN (TED) WILSON

Leonard Truman Wilson was born on December 10, 1925 in Oxford, NC. He is the son of the late Reverend and Mrs. W. Carleton Wilson and was reared in parsonages in various areas of the NC Conference. Ted graduated from high school in Rowland, NC. After a brief stay at Duke University, he entered the Merchant Marines during World War II. Following his military service, Ted entered the retail business in Goldsboro, married Elizabeth Patterson of Roseboro, NC and they became leaders in the newly established St. Luke UMC. While serving as superintendent of the Sunday School, Ted was called of God to the ordained ministry in 1953. And he became almost overnight a college student again, continued to work in business, and pastored Salem and Ebenezer churches.

Ted completed his education at Atlantic Christian College and Duke University. And following his student appointment, he served Warsaw; Warrenton; Ayden; Westminster, Kinston; First, Mount Olive; Englewood, Rocky Mount; Campground, Fayetteville; and First, Hamlet.

He served and gave himself without reservations to the congregations privileged to have him as their pastor. He leaves an undeniable record of: eloquent preaching, faithful shepherding of his people, able administration and development of quality programs. He was a builder. He was an evangelist. He was a community leader. Ted and Lib still are genuinely loved and appreciated by so many families in all the communities and congregations they served.

His leadership and ministry moved beyond the local church as he served on the following: the Conference Health and Welfare Committee, chairman of the Conference Insurance Committee, member of the Pastoral Care Committee, Methodist Foundation, and a trustee of the Methodist Retirement Home, a member of the Special Child Care Study Commission of the NC Conference, the District Board of Ministry and the Conference Council on Ministries. He was concluding his ninth year as secretary of the Conference, following the tradition of his father's seventeen years, and his organization and development of that office bears the marks of excellence. He developed a system 25 years ago for recording and reproducing in written form verbatim proceedings of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences that is depended on and used every quadrennium. He was a member of the secretarial staff of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences of The United Methodist Church for 1968, 1970, 1972, 1976, 1980, 1984, and 1988. He loved and served the church in all its dimensions.

Ted's ministry always included being a leader in the communities where he served. He had been a member of several civic clubs and was named Rotarian of the Year, Lion of the Year, and received the Distinguished Service Award from the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He served two years as County chairman of the NC Society for Crippled Children, twelve years as a Little League baseball coach, president of the local Little League Club and as a director of the District Little League Association.

Leonard Truman Wilson and Elizabeth Patterson were married October 26, 1946. They were blessed with three children: Mrs. J. Everette (Terrie) Phillips and L. T. (Len) Wilson, Jr. of Winston-Salem, NC, and W. R. (Bill) Wilson of Mount Holly, NJ, and four grandchildren. His sister, Mrs. George (Mary Earle) Berger resides in Roxboro.

Leonard Truman Wilson reflected in an effective way the Apostle Paul's words to his son in the ministry, Timothy, "I have run the great race, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith". He did run the race of life with faithfulness, with an uncommon effectiveness and with joy and enthusiasm. He finished his course with great dignity and in fellowship with his Lord, ministering to his people, having officiated for a funeral less than two hours prior to his own physical death, May 9, 1989.

And he kept the faith - with his devoted wife, Elizabeth, - with his fine children and family, Terrie, Len and Bill, - with his many dear friends, - with his church families, - and foremost with his God.

The life of Leonard Truman Wilson was celebrated in a memorial service, May 12, 1989, at First UMC in Hamlet with the Reverend Susan Lindblade, First Church Associate Pastor; the Reverend William W. Sherman, Jr., Rockingham District Superintendent; Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr.; and Dr. Charles M. Smith, the Reverend J. B. Parvin, and Dr. Ernest R. Porter; personal friends whom Ted had requested to have his memorial service, officiating. A private committal service was held later.

We can and should "sing with joy and be glad all our days," (Psalm 90:14) for the life, ministry, and blessed memories of Leonard Truman Wilson, a faithful husband, beloved father and brother, a dear friend and colleague.

Amen,
Ernest R. Porter

OSCAR SHELTON WILLIAMS

Oscar Shelton Williams, born August 3, 1905, left his earthly family and friends to be with his heavenly Father and lifetime friend, May 26, 1989. He is survived by his son Shelton Williams of Belhaven, NC; two daughters, Ruth Lassiter, Rich Square, NC and Gayle Stancil, Durham, NC; and four grandchildren, Sabra, Tony, Lynn, and Susan.

"Brother Oscar" as he was known by most of his friends and acquaintances, was not a minister all of his adult life. It was some years into his adult life before he felt the call to devote his life to being a servant of the Lord. He never wavered for one moment from this call for the remainder of his 83 years.

His life began in Elizabeth City, NC, son of Samuel E. and Annie Mae Williams. He was a very unique individual with varied interests and talents who could accomplish most any task he wished to take on. His interest ranged from woodwork to flying - he even built an airplane as early as 1930 and got his pilot's license. His talents seemed limitless.

His early adult years were spent in Elizabeth City at Quinn Furniture Company building furniture and working at the shipyard. It was during this period that he met and married his mate for the next forty-six and one-half years, Mildred Evans. She proved to be his strength and right hand, second only to our heavenly Father and Jesus, his Son.

He attended UNC at Chapel Hill for one year but had to return home for financial reasons. He later attended the Southern Baptist Seminary. Following his schooling, he pastored several Baptist churches for 18 years, and even taught classes at the Baptist Bible Institute in Lakeland, FL.

Upon returning to NC in 1957, he made the changeover and accepted his first Methodist Church in Belhaven, NC. During the more than 30 years in the Methodist Church, he served Belhaven, Moyock, Vance Charge, Rich Square, Rocky Mount: Clark Street, Bath, and Vanceboro. After Rocky Mount, he retired for a few short months, then accepted two more churches, and served several more years.

On February 23, 1979 his lifetime companion and wife passed away suddenly leaving a large void in his life, but as long as he lived he found sustenance and consolation in Christian labor.

What did retirement mean to him? Less reports and paper work that he really cared very little for, and more time to devote to the Lord's work; visitation of the sick, and carrying meals to the shut-ins.

To quote the Reverend Tom Hollis, "As he lost his wife, as physical impairments afflicted him, this provided him an opportunity for greater witness; for he praised God with joy even in the face of suffering. He could have claimed his handicaps for a reason to stop his energetic ministries, but when he could not proclaim the gospel, it became in his heart as a burning fire, shut up within his bones. He coveted every opportunity to proclaim the riches of knowing Christ Jesus, preaching monthly at Hebron Church, supplying this pulpit, and preaching revivals throughout the region. "That was when he was most alive." Tom recalled, "I dropped by Oscar's house to ask him out to lunch. I could hear him inside, but he did not answer the door. I walked quietly in to see him on his knees against a chair, praying to make himself a more humble and effective servant. At 83 years of age Oscar Williams was still growing up in the faith, always heeding that upward call of God in Jesus Christ."

Oscar, like Mildred, had wished to donate his body to medical science, but due to the lapse of time between time of death and reaching the doctors, he was unable to fulfill his wish. His memorial service was held at Bath UMC. The service was officiated by the Reverends Tom Hollis, Rob Hammond, David Brooks, and Dan Meadows. His remains were placed in the Williams Cemetery in Bath.

"...Oscar Williams has grown up into the fullness of life;...and if we listened to his witness, we would not dare to hold him back from receiving his crown of glory...Oscar Williams has not died. He lives on in us, and he has taken his place in the procession of God's Kingdom. We would desire no less for him than the promise of this day, the richness of glory of life he has won. For this was the goal of his labor, the hope of his being. Let us thank God for the light He has shed upon us in the life of his servant Oscar Williams."

Dad, we are thankful for the love and guidance you and mom gave to us all these years. We love and miss you both, but we are happy for you. We know you are where you have strived for a lifetime to be...and you did the job well...both of you. Thank you.

Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your Master.

Shelton Williams

NORMA JEWELL CLARK WOMACK

1930 - 1988

Norma Clark Womack was born in Vega, TX on September 15, 1930, the third of four children of Richard N. and Ida Vineyard Clark. Following the death of their mother in 1939, the family moved to Florida, where Norma resided until her adult years.

In 1954 Norma married Samuel J. Womack, of Lakeland, FL, at the time Samuel was entering the Methodist ministry. The couple moved to NC for his studies at Duke Divinity School and in the Graduate School of the University. For several years during that period Norma served as secretary to the undergraduate Department of Religion and as matron at the Durham County Juvenile Home. Also during that period two children were born of this union: a son, Alan Rhys, and a daughter, Lynda Karen. In 1960, at the completion of Sam's doctoral studies, they moved to Fayetteville, NC where he joined the first faculty of the newly-opening Methodist College.

During their early years at Methodist College Norma actively shared in her husband's duties as college chaplain. Their two children almost literally "grew up" on campus, and in 1982, both graduated from Methodist College in the same class. Meanwhile, their mother had been greatly upgrading her own educational attainments. Prior to her marriage she had been awarded an Associate of Arts degree by the University of Florida, and during their stay at Duke University she earned additional credits as a special student. Continuing this program later at Methodist College, she completed requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree, which was awarded in 1975. Concurrently, she had been working as periodicals librarian, as cataloging librarian and as curator of the Rare Book Room and Lafayette Collection in the college's Davis Memorial Library. Shortly afterward, still working on a part-time basis, she enrolled in the Graduate School at ECU and, as a commuting student, completed the program for a Master's degree in Library Science. The degree was awarded in 1979.

That same year Norma was appointed to a full-time position as assistant librarian and, a year later, as director of library services (head librarian). As a member of the college faculty she served in the latter position until shortly before her death on August 1, 1988, after waging an 18-month battle against cancer. She was at home, surrounded by loved ones, when death came. Funeral services were conducted by Dr. John Bergland and Dr. William P. Lowdermilk at Haymount UMC, Fayetteville, where Norma had been a member for 23 years. Interment was at Lafayette Memorial Park, Fayetteville.

Survivors include her husband, Samuel; son, Alan Rhys Womack; daughter, Lynda Womack Parlett, and one granddaughter. All reside in Fayetteville.

Although Norma, before marriage, had begun preparing for a career in banking, her association in later years with Methodist College's library soon developed into a labor of love and she rapidly mastered all aspects of library operations. As head librarian, she set out to computerize as much of this operation as possible, conducting many book sales and collecting labels to raise necessary funds for equipment. She became, in the process, quite skilled in certain uses of the computer by completing a number of training programs.

Meanwhile, she was organizing Methodist College supporters into The Friends of Davis Memorial Library and brought outstanding literary, educational and civic figures to the campus for semi-annual programs of that organization. She obtained financial grants to make possible the recording of NC's poet laureate, Sam Ragan, reading from his own works. These recordings were distributed to every college and public library in the state.

Norma's professional affiliations included memberships in the American, Southeastern, NC and Cape Fear library associations, and in Phi Delta Kappa, national educational fraternity. She served as president, vice president and member of the board of directors of the Cape Fear Association, and had several articles published in the Journal of the NC Library Association. Very active in civic affairs, she was a charter member of Fayetteville's Lafayette Society and served until her death on its board of directors. She was also a member of the board of directors of the Historic Fayetteville Foundation, and was past president of both the city's Tea and Topics Club and the Methodist College Women's Club.

But, above all, Norma was ever mindful of Methodist College's role and mission as an agency of her Church, and she sought to make the college library an effective tool in the church's service. A collection of rare Bibles and many items of historical significance to agencies of the NC Conference were acquired. Her special concern was with the UMW of the NC Conference and, before her death, she had been appointed to the Historical Committee of the UMW. She also served a term as member of the Worship Committee at Haymount Church.

Norma's Christianity was manifested in a quiet and unobtrusive way, yet she was widely known on campus and elsewhere for her firm convictions in matters of faith, morals, and ethics. Many activities bespoke her love of her Lord and of people: there were Advent Season meditations written for student publications; there was much personal counseling, and time spent in prayer with members of her library staff and with faculty colleagues; and, especially, was she known for her unfailing readiness to assist students both in library matters and in personal concerns. This, and her total dedication, with an ever-present smile won her a place in countless hearts. And the same characteristics were displayed in her role of devoted wife and mother, which always took precedence over her professional life. She had the gift of brightening the lives of those about her, foremost among them the members of her own family. Her passing leaves an empty place here on earth, but heaven should certainly have a brighter glow now that she has gone to join her Lord.

HAZEL JEAN TEMPLE FRALEY

Hazel Jean Temple Fraley was born March 22, 1925 to Oscar and Katie Temple of Erwin, NC. She was raised in the Episcopal Church and remained a faithful member in her youth, changing after she married to The United Methodist Church.

Jean married Fletcher Fraley, a career Army officer, in 1942, and she became very adept at moving, not knowing that in retirement she would be again called to move many other times, while serving The United Methodist Church for 25 years.

Her marriage to Fletcher W. Fraley occurred at Fort Bragg, NC, in April 1942, while Fletcher was stationed at Fort Bragg. Thus began a career as an Army wife. In the 22 years of service with her military husband, living in different lands and many states, she became adept at organizing and nurturing her children while Fletcher was traveling across the world. In spite of loneliness, separation and stress, she was a mother of extraordinary ability to nurture her children, and cope with motherhood, and manifest her faith in the face of many odds. During the period of 23 years she bore four children, Barbara Jean Gregg and Gary Fletcher of SC, Claudia Rebecca Reynolds of NC, and Dennis L. of SC. Two years into retirement she gave our father a bonus - another son, Brian S., who lives in Florida.

Jean entered the ministry gladly with her husband and was the epitome of helper and supporter, both as a loving wife and mother, while they served first in the SC United Methodist Conference, then in NC at the Mamers Charge, then St. Pauls UMC at Maxton, and then at Wesley Heights. Her real passion was singing in all the choirs in all the churches they served. Even in her last months when her illness was weighing heavily, she insisted on lifting her voice in song to her God. The adult choir at Wesley Heights, in paying tribute to one of their own, sang her favorite song, "The Lord Is My Shepherd". We are sure that, as Jean looked out upon that great congregation of friends, she was pleased, and heard the words of God, Well done, thou faithful servant, enter into my Kingdom.

Jean's innate innocence, her genuine compassion for others endeared her not only to her family, but to all she met. And when she finally called you "shug", you knew you were something special.

To her children, she was the most loving unselfish mother anyone could possibly want. She had that special gift which allowed her to see the good in everyone, and in all circumstances, even when others might have been less magnanimous. She never expected anything in return. She had a strength that never failed. She truly taught her children to be good citizens and caring people. In return, she became a most beloved mother to her children and grandchildren.

On September 2, our mother fought her battle and lost. She lost, but also won. She won by not giving up - she was a fighter to the end. She won by being a dedicated Christian, a loving wife and mother. She won by teaching her children and all who came under her influence to be good by seeing a living faith in and through her life. She won by giving 5 grandchildren the opportunity to know and appreciate what a "grandma" should be.

Jean's last journey occurred September 6, 1988 at Wesley Heights UMC, a church she loved immensely, with the Reverend N. B. Hill, Pastor, and Fayetteville District Superintendent Helen Crotwell, officiating. She was buried in the Post Cemetery at Fort Bragg, NC. She had come full circle. She began her marriage there and ended it back at Fort Bragg.

Our grandmother, Jean's mother, used to sing an old spiritual that had these words, "I've got wings, you've got wings, all God's children got wings, and when I get to heaven, gonna put on my wings, and gonna fly all over God's heaven."

We know Jean is wearing her wings, and if you will listen carefully, we're sure you will hear her singing in God's Choir.

KATHERENE BOND LAMNECK

1914 - 1988

Katherine Bond Lamneck, died Sunday morning, October 16, 1988 at University Hospital in Columbus, OH, after an extended illness.

Services were held October 19, 1988 at 1:00 p.m. at Prairie Chapel United Methodist Church near Coshocton with the Reverend Donald L. Trigg officiating.

Katherine was born May 29, 1914 in Portsmouth, VA, to John Wesley and Maude Mae Higgins Bond.

She was a graduate of Marion College and Cleveland Bible College. She was a retired school teacher and an ordained minister for the Church of the Nazarene and the Society of Friends of Ohio.

Katherine was married August 3, 1945 to the Reverend Forrest D. Lamneck, who was ordained in the Ohio Friends Church, and who transferred and served in the Ohio East Annual Conference from 1956-1978 (New Matamoras, 1956-1959 and Roscoe-Coshocton, 1959-1978). In 1978 he transferred to the NC Annual Conference and was pastor at Eureka-Yelverton Charge in 1978, Corinth-Antioch Charge in 1980 until his retirement in 1984.

She taught school in many states where she resided, and at Conesville Elementary School in Coshocton County for nine years. She was an outstanding teacher, but she shone as a Bible teacher. She held her audiences entranced by her deep piety and knowledge of the Word of God of which she was a lifetime student.

Katherine was married 43 years, four months and sixteen days. She was an angelic wife, and her motherhood was exercised in that same Holy Spirit that characterized all her days.

Surviving in addition to her husband are three children, Dr. Esther E. Lamneck of West Lafayette, OH, Mrs. James T. (Dr. Mariam C.) Spaeth of Wooster, and Stephen A. Lamneck of Coshocton; five grandchildren; and one sister, Nathalia Faye Johnson of Portsmouth, VA.

KITTY ALDA PLOTT CLINE

Kitty Plott Cline was born in Iredell County, NC, September 13, 1898, the youngest of eight children of Samuel E. and Ida Baker Plott. She died in her 91st year, January 30, 1989, at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham where funeral services were held February 1, at 10 a.m. by the Reverend Kelly Wilson III and the Reverend Jean Moats. A second service was conducted at 2 p.m. the same day at Carthage UMC, Carthage, NC by the pastor, the Reverend Terry A. Bryant and the Sanford District Superintendent, the Reverend James C. P. Brown. She was buried beside her beloved husband, Dr. John Cline, in the Cross Hill Cemetery, Carthage.

She was married to the Reverend John Cline, October 2, 1917, the same month he was admitted to the WNC Conference. As newlyweds they moved into the parsonage of their first appointment at Ansonville, NC. Together they enjoyed fifty-eight years of happy married life. To that union were born three children: Kitty (Mrs. J. Finley Cox of Richmond, VA), John (Reverend John M. Cline of Raleigh, NC), and Evelyn (Mrs. H. Herman Roach, Jr. of Lexington, NC). She is survived by her three children, seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

John and Kitty served the following appointments: in the WNC Conference - Ansonville; Webster-Cullowhee; Lewisville; Forsyth Circuit; Glen Alpine; Cool Springs Circuit; Troutman; Thomasville Circuit; and Proximity, Greensboro; in the NC Conference beginning in 1936 - Fifth Avenue, Wilmington; Branson Memorial, Durham; and Carthage. Dr. Cline fell victim to Parkinson's Disease which forced him into early retirement in 1950. The next 24 years they lived happily together in their own home in Carthage, sharing their lives and love with the great Christian people of that delightful town. In 1974 they moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham.

In her devotion to her husband and her loyalty to Christ and His Church, Kitty Cline, our mother, worked faithfully side by side with her dedicated husband, visiting in thousands of homes; organizing fourteen Women's Societies of Christian Service, serving as President of many of them; teaching Sunday School; singing in the choir; conducting prayer services; and serving with joy wherever she heard God's calling. As a tribute to her ministry here and there among the churches served are circles bearing the name, "The Kitty Cline Circle."

Parkinson's Disease made an invalid of our father the last years of his life. For more than 20 years, daily, mother lifted him from bed, bathed and clothed him and in every way waited upon him. It was a ritual of love, and when the time came that he was unable to speak she became his voice to others. So closely they lived together that she understood more than anyone what "Papa" was trying to say. In his book of poetry, Lights of Home, he included a tribute to her and called the poem "Someone Who Understands." Here is a stanza of that poem:

"She faced life's care and deep despair, That seemed to press us everywhere,
And held my trembling hands; Her faith braced mine and helped me find Once more the truth that God is kind - How well she understands!"

Mother worshipped at the shrine that God establishes around every flower lover. Each plant, growing magically at her touch, was a trust from God, affirming an unspoken commitment to Creator to make things live and grow and become more beautiful. This love for the beautiful found many delightful expressions - the painting of a mountain stream - hundreds of ceramic birds, vases, lamps, and nativity figures she made at the Retirement Home that provided her something she could give to others. Her district superintendent referred to this in his funeral message: "Mrs. Cline reflects the joy of Jesus. She was a person who had a great care for others and delighted to receive them...Leaning forward in her chair she would ask for a prayer, and then the first thing you know she had put something in your hand, something she had made with her hands...One of her ceramic birds, a cardinal with a yellow beak, has adorned my bookshelves for several years. No telling how many of these she made and gave away."

Her loving heart, her gentleness of spirit, her heroic support of those she loved - the influence of these treasures compose a legacy that will live forever. The nightly ritual of a whispered prayer placed her children in God's hands and supported God's call to each to a special ministry - Kitty as a diaconal minister in Christian education, John as an ordained minister, and Evelyn as a mental health counselor. Her children and grandchildren lead the line of those who stand in awe of the greatness of the life she lived and the love she shared. For her life and for her love we "praise God from whom all blessings flow".

THELMA LEVON ROBERTS CASH

Thelma Levon Roberts was born August 21, 1906, in Rushsylvania, OH, to the late George Martin and Jessie Smith Roberts. On November 29, 1923, she married Howard Harrell Cash of West Liberty, OH. They had six children, four of whom preceded Mrs. Cash in death. She is survived by one daughter, Helen Dudley of Beaufort, NC; one son, David Cash of Kinston, NC; one sister, Mrs. Zelda Sheets of Columbus, OH; one brother, Robert Roberts of Ft. Jennings, FL; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The Reverend H. H. and Mrs. Thelma Cash together traversed more than fifty years of pastoral ministry. They began at the McLenoreville Station of the Central Tennessee Conference, and went on to the Lexington Circuit, then the Monroe Circuit in the Cumberland Mountains. Ordination being slow to come in the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Reverend Cash transferred to the Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was ordained a deacon. He served for three years in evangelistic work in the NC mountains, then to the Lansing Larger Parish, and back to the Methodist Episcopal Church for elder's orders in 1936. He was employed by the Board of Home Missions, working in eastern Tennessee until the reorganization of the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal, South and Methodist Protestant Churches.

Those were hard years for the Cash family - Vance Lewis, in the 1978 NC Conference Journal said: "His 'circuit-riding' days were past and gone, as were the days' physical privation and hunger for him and his family". He went on to enjoy an outstanding career with this Conference, serving Stonewall, Granville, Mt. Hermon, Millbrook, Mamers, Marshallberg, Bridgeton, St. John, Walstonburg, and the Washington Circuit, retiring in 1969.

Through it all, Mrs. Cash was "right in there among 'em". She was a joy to hear tell the tales of those earlier days, living with folks that were, well (she would always hesitate, then say) "backwards!" She was a woman of great laughter, much as the proverbial woman of Scripture.

Strength and dignity are her clothing, she laughs at the time to come. And her children DID rise up and call her blessed, and her husband also. (Proverbs 35:25,28)

Mrs. Cash was a vital part of the retirement home community in Durham, where she lived for 13 years, most of it as a widow. She sang in the choir, and actively ministered to the growing body of friends in that place.

One can but give thanks for such a disciple as this, who has "taken her place in the choir".

SECTION V

A. LEGISLATION

CONFERENCE CLERGY LIVING COMMITTEE

The 1987 Annual Conference voted to establish a Conference Clergy Living Committee (1987 Conference Journal, page 326). This Committee was established in the spring of 1988 in keeping with the guidelines set forth in the recommendation. This Committee was established to (1) hear unreconciled problems regarding parsonage usage and to recommend solutions and alternatives, (2) compile data on existing parsonages, (3) to annually review and update the Parsonage Minimum Standards booklet, and (4) to publish an annual newsletter.

To accomplish requirement (1), an Arbitration Committee was formed. The Arbitration Committee Policy is printed below. With regard to recommendation (2), to compile data on existing parsonages, it was the feeling of the Committee that this information was adequate. The N. C. Clergy Partners Association is in the process of updating the District Parsonage Scrapbooks. (3) We have reviewed and updated the Parsonage Minimum Standards and the new standards are printed below under the title A Parsonage Guide, for your approval. (4) Our annual newsletter will be published and mailed out following Annual Conference.

A Parsonage Guide

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the North Carolina Annual Conference that every pastoral charge shall provide housing (either by furnishing a parsonage or an adequate housing allowance set by the charge conference but recommended by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in consultation with the pastor) for the pastor and his/her family.

It is recommended that in each pastoral charge having a parsonage committee, which shall be elected by the charge conference upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel, that said committee shall be amenable to the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and work closely with trustees in providing adequate housing for the pastor. (Reference is made to The Parsonage Committee in ¶2532.3 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.) This Committee should meet twice yearly at the parsonage. In charges of more than one church, each church should be represented on the Committee according to the percentage of ownership. Ex-officio members of the Committee should include the pastor, the pastor's spouse, chairperson of the trustees, and chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.

The following suggestions are standards toward which to work. They are given so that the pastoral charge shall know what is expected of it, and that the parsonage family may know what to expect:

THE HOUSE

1. Minimum of three bedrooms (four are preferable) with ample closet space in each
2. A family room with book shelves, preferably separate and apart from the kitchen
3. Kitchen with ample built-in cabinets and large enough for family eating space, or a breakfast nook
4. Area large enough for washer, dryer
5. Two full baths
6. Living room, large enough for parsonage entertaining
7. A dining room is desirable, but where there is no dining room, the dining area should adjoin the living room in a living-dining room combination.
8. A home study in the parsonage is a desirable option in addition to the church office-study. It should have an outside entrance and be suitably equipped.
9. Garage with electric doors or a carport
10. Dry storage space

11. Adequate heating and air conditioning equipment and insulation, including storm or thermal pane windows and doors
12. Adequate rotary TV antenna or cablevision hook-up, if available. The purpose of this recommendation is to save the roof of the house from excessive wear due to moving antennas.
13. Uninterrupted utilities (electricity, water, gas, phone) in the name of the charge
14. All charges should fill fuel tanks for incoming parsonage families, effective June 1990.

THE FURNISHINGS

The pastoral charge should provide:

1. All heavy furnishings, including electric or gas range, refrigerator with freezer compartment, water heater, washer, dryer, and a dishwasher. (A garbage disposal and a freezer are desirable options.)
2. Bedroom, dining room, den and living room furniture
3. Good mattresses, floor covering, shades, blinds, curtains or draperies in all rooms
4. Some lamps and occasional tables
5. Discarded furniture should not be used in furnishing the parsonage
6. The minister's family should provide linens, blankets, pillows, baby beds, dishes, china, crystal, silverware, cooking utensils, radio, TV, and other personal items which they desire.
7. The charge should provide for storage of unused parsonage furnishings and the pastor provide for storage of the pastor's furnishings.
8. An up-to-date inventory of furnishings which include dates of purchases and costs. This should be reviewed and updated at each Committee meeting.

PARSONAGE GROUNDS

Parsonage grounds should have foundation shrubbery, shade trees, adequate yard space for children, paved driveway and walks, and power mower.

CARE OF PROPERTY

A clean parsonage is much to be desired by all. It is urged that a parsonage family keep the home clean and attractive.

Any abuse of the furnishings or house beyond normal wear should be the responsibility of the parsonage family.

The following pet policy consistent with the standard policy for rental property is established.

1. The pet owner is responsible for any property damage caused by pet(s).
2. The pet owner must conform to all state and local ordinances.
3. The pet owner is responsible for liability for any injury caused by the pet(s).
4. The pet owner is responsible for professional pest extermination of the parsonage when moving.

Walls, woodwork, and exterior should be painted as needed. The expense of painting, sanding and refinishing floors, repairs, periodic pest extermination, cleaning of carpets and draperies, are expenses to be borne by the church.

It is the responsibility of the parsonage family to leave the parsonage clean and in good condition when they move to another charge. As close to moving time as possible, each family should wash windows, screens and window sills, and leave curtains, draperies, carpets, shades, and blinds clean. Special attention should be given to closets, cabinets, and drawers. Bathrooms, kitchens, storage rooms, and attics should be clean. Refrigerators and stoves as well as all other appliances should be clean and in working order. Check light fixtures, exhaust fans, hot and cold air ducts to assure cleanliness. The parsonage yard should be well groomed.

The following information should be left by the pastor for his/her successor: All warranties, repair parts lists, instructions for use of equipment belonging to the parsonage, and an inventory including dates of purchase and cost of parsonage furnishings. The pastor should indicate when and from whom equipment was purchased, and whom to call for service. The pastor should leave, also, a list of persons to call for various reasons, where to find various items, and when and by whom various improvements are made.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should have a current inventory of parsonage furnishings. A copy of the inventory should be given to the minister and the trustees of the parsonage property. This inventory should include date of purchase of each item listed, its cost, and dates of renovations and repairs.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should meet with the pastor and his/her spouse twice annually. Furnishings should be evaluated at this time to decide the condition of pieces, to discard unacceptable items, check for needed repairs, and replace items if needed. The charge shall maintain adequate insurance for the replacement of parsonage and furnishings. The pastor is responsible for insurance on the family's personal possessions.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should recommend to the Finance Committee an amount to be set aside each year, or included in the budget, for repairs and maintenance. A special parsonage maintenance fund should be established. A minimum of 1% per year of the replacement value of the parsonage should be placed in this fund, and this should continue to accrue until the fund reaches a minimum of 5% of the replacement value of the parsonage and then be maintained at that level. Each charge conference is urged to designate the chair of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee, chair of trustees, or chair of parsonage committee to make decisions for emergency replacements and/or repairs. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor/Staff Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.

BUILDING OR RENOVATING A PARSONAGE

In all matters pertaining to the location, renovation, and building of a parsonage, the Discipline should be consulted. The required legislation related to the above is found in ¶¶2535-2543 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.

Parsonage sites should be selected that will hold their value and be a wise investment, preferably in a sub-division. Whenever a new parsonage is built, its many uses should be considered.

Churches building new parsonages should be responsive to the handicapping procedures in the state building codes. Congregations receiving parsonage families with handicapping conditions should be responsive to their housing needs.

Proposed Arbitration Policy - Clergy Living Committee

The 1987 NC Annual Conference Session created the Clergy Living Committee whose responsibilities include "to hear unreconciled problems regarding parsonage usage and to recommend solutions and alternatives" (1987 Conference Journal, page 326).

The following is a proposed policy for the Clergy Living Committee to carry out this Annual Conference mandate:

1. Provision for clergy housing is the responsibility of the local church.-

2. Issues regarding housing should be resolved between the clergy family and the local church.
3. If housing matters cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of all involved parties, the respective District Superintendent should be invited for mediation by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.
4. The Arbitration Sub-committee of the Conference Clergy Living Committee may only be invited to arbitrate clergy housing issues at the initiative of the District Superintendent. Travel expenses will be borne by the Clergy Living Committee.
5. The sub-committee shall come to the local church or charge to hear the concerns of all interested parties, and offer recommendations and/or solutions that shall be mutually binding
6. Recommendations and solutions offered by the sub-committee shall be consistent with the parsonage standards of the North Carolina Conference.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Program and Budget Timelines

From the Discipline, 1988:

"All Annual Conference agencies shall submit the elements of programs which are to be promoted in, supported by, or implemented by the local churches of the conference to the council for consideration, coordinating, and calendaring prior to presentation to the local churches. The council may request district or Annual Conference agencies to implement a program for the entire conference."

"The council staff shall be responsible, in cooperation with the district superintendents, for the implementation of the conference program."

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

- P6. Advance Special: That each local church shall consider giving to at least one project in each lane of the Advance: World, Missionary Salary Support, National, UMCOR, and Conference.

A. Lane One: World Missions

- (1) Special Emphasis: Andean Rural Health Care (No. 010158-2R-A). This non-profit organization is dedicated to improving the health of the rural poor in the Andes. It serves over 20,000 people in Bolivia who would not otherwise have any health care.
- (2) Africa Church Growth and Development: General (No. 008233-0 H-T), Leadership Development (No. 008237-4 B-T), Evangelism (No. 008235-2 A-T) and Church Growth (No. 008231-7 A-N). A program which has built or repaired over 125 churches, allocated 15 vehicles and 60 motorcycles, trained over 1,000 clergy and lay persons, and spread the Gospel and encouraged church growth in 10 African nations.
- (3) National/International at Work in Their Own Countries (No. 007685-2 H-T). This program enables US churches to share in the work of overseas churches by supporting national workers. As many as 10 nationals can be empowered for the same funds we might use to send one US missionary overseas.

- (4) Partner Churches in Crisis (No. 010068-0). A program which helps colleague churches around the world to provide emergency salary support or food supplements for church workers, to provide institutional necessities and to undergird the structure of the church for long term stability.
- (5) Any other World Advance Special, as listed in Partnership in Missions.

B. Lane Two: Missionary Salary Support

- (1) Special Emphasis: Mary Zigbuo-Ganta Mission Station--Liberia, West Africa (No. 010721-4). Mary (from Trinity UMC, Durham) was commissioned in 1988. She serves along with her husband, Herbert, who is a national worker in his own country.
- (2) Missionaries assigned to the N.C. Annual Conference by the General Board. (Biographicals are available in the Conference Missions office.)
 - a. Jeff & Eleanor Lockwood, Burundi, Africa (No. 10201). He has a degree in agriculture from N.C. State and is qualified as an irrigation designer. Eleanor has a degree in natural resources and has studied zoning and municipal administration.
 - b. Jack & Barbara Theis, Korea (No. 003778-2). Works in headquarters of the Korean Methodist Church Board of Missions, Evangelism and Social Responsibility. Barbara does full-time university teaching and conducting English Bible classes for women.
 - c. Brenda Connelly, USA (No. 982937-4). Brenda serves as the Director of the Robeson County Church & Community Center in Lumberton, NC.
 - d. Richard Connelly, USA (No. 982938-5). He is a church and community worker at the Robeson County Church & Community Center, Lumberton, NC.
 - e. Vickie Sigmon, USA (No. 982916-8). Vickie is working with the Yokefellow Prison Ministry in N.C.
 - f. Shirley Jones, USA (No. 982995-5). She is a church and community worker at the Robeson County Church & Community Center, Lumberton, NC.
 - g. Robert & Hazel Terhune, Japan (No. 003773-6). Robert serves a local church in Tokyo at Nishi Arai Church. Hazel serves as a district evangelist in rural Japan.
 - h. James & Jo Ann Goodwin, Brazil (No. 002143-4). They are in Linhares, Espirito Santo. They are working to organize a new church community in keeping with guidelines drawn up by the church there.
 - i. Marian Grier, Liberia, Africa (No. 009429-2). She works in the areas of educational psychology, early childhood development, theology or nursing.
 - j. Ruth Ann Robinson, Bolivia (No. 003391-0). She works closely with the bishop in promotion and public relations.
 - k. James & Josephine Gaston, Haiti, West Indies (No. 009426-8). Jim is an instructor in a technical school teaching mechanical engineering. Josephine is a public health and child-care educator there.
 - l. Ronald Schooler, Algeria, Africa (No. 003486-8). Home on study leave.
- (3) Any other missionaries sent out by the Board of Global Ministries.

C. Lane Three: National Missions

- (1) Special Emphasis: Society of St. Andrew Potato Project (No. 801600-0). This project helps alleviate hunger in the U.S. by distributing surplus potatoes.

- (2) Robeson County Church & Community Center (No. 791742-0). This ecumenical ministry in a tri-racial community is designed to help local churches meet emergency needs in Robeson County, NC.
- (3) Hinton Rural Life Center (No. 731372-2 Program and No. 731374-4 Renovation & Repair). The Center's ministries focus on needs and development of small membership churches in town and rural settings.
- (4) Parish Partners - USA: Alaska Missionary Conference (No. 931027-4, Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference (No. 583634-4) Puerto Rico Conference (No. 352696-6), Rio Grande Conference (No. 531733-1). These programs undergird local church work, especially pastor's salary support. Each of these conferences serve persons whose income is well below the national average and who struggle daily for survival.
- (5) Southeastern Jurisdiction Association for Native American Ministries (No. 791842-4). This ministry, based in Pembroke, North Carolina, helps meet the needs of over 130,000 Native Americans who live in the 17 Annual Conferences of the Southeast.
- (6) Any other National Advance Special as listed in Partnership in Missions.

D. Lane Four: UMCOR

- (1) Special Emphasis: Habitat--Philippines (No. 240405-5). This project, an affiliate of Habitat International, helps communities help themselves. Housing for needy families is constructed/renovated using primarily volunteer labor and donated materials. Low-cost housing enables families to direct more of their limited financial resources to meeting other basic needs such as food and health care.
- (2) World Hunger/Poverty (No. 982920-4). These funds are used to provide both short-term crisis relief and long-term developmental assistance.
- (3) Heifer Project International (No. 982530-8). Animal distribution and husbandry is fostered by the gift of live animals to farmers overseas and in the United States.
- (4) CROP Events/Church World Service Community Hunger Appeal (No. 982380-1). Funds raised by a local church in a CROP event can receive UMCOR credit. For necessary forms, contact: Carolinas CROP Office, 1006 Lamond Avenue, Durham, NC 27701.
- (5) Any other UMCOR Advance Specials as listed in Partnership in Missions or any UMCOR emergency appeals.

E. Lane Five: Conference Advance

- (1) Special Emphasis: N. C. United Methodist Migrant Ministries - a ministry to migrant workers and their families, helping to meet educational and emergency needs.
- (2) Yokefellow Prison Ministries - an ecumenical ministry, providing one-on-one relationships between volunteers and inmates, offering a ministry of friendship and hope to those in prison.
- (3) Food Bank of North Carolina - an ecumenical hunger project which receives and distributes food that is surplus or cannot be sold.
- (4) Isa Grant Scholarship Fund - a fund which provides volunteer work team scholarships for persons who could not otherwise participate in a work team experience.
- (5) Conference Mission Work Teams - a fund which provides help for short-term volunteers on work teams in the United States or overseas.
- (6) Any other Approved Conference Advance Specials as listed below:

1. COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES

How college trustees are selected: The nominating committee of each board of trustees selects a list of nominees to fill vacancies and submits these along with a biographical statement to the full board at its fall meeting; the individual boards of trustees approve these and they are submitted to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry for consideration at its spring meeting. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry has biographical information supplied to it by each institution of higher education. The Board of Higher Education approves the new nominations at its spring meeting, and then presents them to the North Carolina Conference for approval at its June meeting.

DIACONAL MINISTRY, BOARD OF

With the new quadrennium, new officers were elected for the Board. They are as follows: Carol Dell Strange was re-elected as chairperson; Shirley Jones was elected as vice-chairperson; Dennis Goodwin as treasurer; and Barry Lane is the secretary. Margaret Anne Biddle remains the registrar and Rob Huckaby remains candidate secretary.

The new Discipline policies bring additional procedures and programs to our Board:

- (1) Our initiation of psychological testing was timely since now it is required by the Board of Diaconal Ministry for all of our candidates. We will continue to work with the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Career and Personal Counseling Center for this purpose.
- (2) As stated in paragraph 309.2, there shall be an opportunity for the Bishop, representative of the Cabinet, and the Board of Diaconal Ministry to meet with the diaconal ministers of the Conference. Our goal will be to meet with the Cabinet to plan such an event.
- (3) New legislation as stated in paragraph 734.2 now requires there to be a joint meeting with the Board of Ordained Ministry and our Board "to enhance the total ministry of the church". We will pursue this goal.

In addition, our Board sponsored a mentor's retreat to train and equip us to fulfill the role as spiritual mentors for the diaconal minister candidates. This retreat was held at Avila Retreat Center in Durham and led by Joaquin Garcia from Nashville.

We continue to work with church educators and musicians across our Conference as we annually certify, recertify, and renew directors, associate directors, and diaconal ministers. With new and additional guidelines for diaconal work situations and placements as well as assisting the District Superintendents in interpreting diaconal ministry, we will continue to respond to God's call individually and collectively.

Carol Dell Strange, Chairperson; Margaret Anne Biddle, Registrar

The Board of Diaconal Ministry recommends the following Salary Scale for 1990:

	A		B		C		D		E		F		G
Title	Diaconal Minister						Lay Professional				Certified Professional
Degree	Masters	BA	Masters	BA	Masters	BA	BA	BA	BA	BA	BA	Masters

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate of those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommending recommendations are presented to the 1989 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference. The medical form should be completed and acted upon by the General Board of Pensions prior to the submission of the application.
2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require psychological examinations of those seeking disability when deemed necessary by the Committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the Committee, and in such a case the Committee will bear the expense of the examination.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. The medical reports will be sent to the medical consultant of the Joint Committee on Disability for an interpretation of the pastor's disabling conditions, who in turn will submit a medical report on the required form to the Joint Committee on Disability for action. All materials will then be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pensions, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan. From July, 1981 to December, 1981, disability benefits were paid through coverage as adopted by the 1981 Session of the Annual Conference. Beginning on January 1, 1982, disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions were transferred to coverage under the new Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan may be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Emergency Relief Fund. The Ministerial Pensions Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance and Life Insurance may be paid also by the Emergency Relief Fund.
5. Ministers placed on Disability Leave at Annual Conference in 1989 and thereafter, whose benefits are paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan or by the Annual Conference, who are eligible for Medicare, will have the Medicare Supplement paid by the Joint Committee on Disability. A cash amount equal to the premium paid for the Medicare Supplement coverage will be paid to those disabled pastors who elect not to be covered under Medicare. Those pastors who were placed on Disability Leave prior to Annual Conference 1989 are reminded that they will be penalized if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65, when they are required to retire in compliance with the Social Security Code.
6. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
7. We recommend that a monthly grant of $300.00 will be made for the first six months a pastor is granted Disability Leave. At the end of six months this grant will terminate.
8. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Emergency Relief Fund will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.

11. Who have been placed on Disability Leave since the last Annual Conference? NONE
12. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities. It is further recommended that housing needs and other special problems of our disabled pastors be considered by these congregations and communities in the light of the contribution made to our United Methodist Church by those on disability during their years of service. We can all become better stewards of the gift of life and skill as we share in this ministry of caring and concern.

EQUITABLE SALARIES, COMMISSION ON

By disciplinary provision and moral obligation, the Commission on Equitable Salaries is instructed "to support ordained ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference by (1) recommending Conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." (Discipline, ¶ 722.2)

The above provision often places the Commission in a contradictory position. "Assumption of the obligations of the itineracy, required to be made at the time of admission into the traveling connection, puts upon the Church the counterobligation of providing support for the entire ordained ministry of the Church." (Discipline, ¶ 717) "The Commission shall carefully study the needs for...additional support within the Conference and the sources of income, and shall recommend annually to the Conference for its action a schedule of minimum salaries for all full-time pastors or those clergy members of the Annual Conference appointed less than full time to a local church, subject to such rules and regulations as the Conference may adopt." (Discipline, ¶ 722.3) In other words, ministers are required to spend considerable expense, time, and energy in preparing for an executing ministry. Common sense recognizes the increased pressure upon a local church to provide an ever increasing salary for its minister. Churches with dwindling resources find themselves spending more and more on pastoral compensation and less and less on property, program, and expansion. Clergy and laity are caught in the proverbial place between a rock and a hard spot.

The Commission has spent considerable time in examining the situation. Solutions are not included in this report. However, we do have recommendations whose implementation will help us move towards "fair and equitable salaries" for all those who "assume the obligations of the itineracy," and simultaneous "fair and equitable management" of the resources of the local church in ministry and mission.

- I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Salaries for 1990

A. Salary Schedule

1. With respect to the ever increasing cost of living for all, we recommend that the minimum full-time salary level be raised by a percentage equal to the percentage of raise enjoyed by all ministers of the Conference year 1989.

MINISTERS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	1989	1990
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary and Utilities.	$18,704	$19,826
(Utilities to be specified by Charge Conference)

STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary and Utilities.	$12,158	$12,887
(Utilities to be specified by Charge Conference)

2. We recommend that the full-time minimum salary levels be adjusted annually by the percentage figure of average raises in the Conference for the current Conference year.
3. Guidelines affecting student pastors as adopted by previous Annual Conference sessions will continue to govern the use of equitable salary funds for student pastors. (For reference, the Discipline, ¶ 441, 717, and 722, and the Journal of 1983, provide the basis for our work.)

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of ministerial expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $1,800 for travel expense. A charge receiving equitable salary support may provide this $1,800 travel expense, but any travel expense in excess of $1,800 will result in a reduction of equitable salary support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Salary Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's total income for salary and utilities (including funds from the Equitable Salary Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources).

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds:

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Salary Fund. Salary support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Salary Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Salaries and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Salary support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

- C. When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Salary Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.
- D. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.
 - 1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Salaries provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.
 - 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.
- E. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Salary Funds than granted the previous year.
- F. Any Equitable Salary Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.
- G. Equitable Salary Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.
- H. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum salary, but less than the Conference minimum salary plus $200 per year up to ten (10) years of full-time service as an associate member or a member in full connection.

Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon approval by the charge conference and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase. (Effective until 1995)

This policy does not restrict the Equitable Salaries Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.

- I. Churches receiving Equitable Salary Funds will conduct an annual financial campaign to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- J. We remind the Conference of provisions in the Discipline, which state: (1) "Primary responsibility for the payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges." (§1722.8) (2) "The guidelines of the Annual Conference program of equitable clergy support shall insofar as possible be observed by the bishops and district superintendents in arranging charges and making appointments." (§1722.10)
- K. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Salary Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference. The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

The Equitable Salary Review Team, created by the 1987 Annual Conference, is composed of the Reverend M. Whitfield Warren, Jr., chair; Ruby Gardner, secretary; Charlie Compton; the Reverend Bill Cummings; and the Reverend Charles Morrison. The recommendations of this team are endorsed by the Commission on Equitable Salaries and the Cabinet. The recommendations are in response to Part 2, Paragraph 4, pages 301-302, 1987 Journal, which states: "It is recommended that a conference-wide review team be established to determine in 1988 whether continued equitable salary support should be available to churches who have been receiving equitable salary support for five years or more and have not made appropriate reductions in requests for equitable salary support as stipulated in the Conference guidelines. This committee should have the authority to recommend to the district superintendents that salary support be discontinued, that the particular charge be realigned so that equitable salary support would not be necessary, or what other appropriate action might be taken."

Meeting four times, the Review Team requested and received reports from each pastor whose appointment has received equitable salary support in excess of five years. Additional information was received from the superintendent of each district.

Based on a study of the information received, the Equitable Salary Review Team makes the following recommendations:

1. Any church receiving equitable salary in excess of ten years and receiving less than $1,000 salary support will assume full salary support by January 1, 1990.
2. Any church receiving equitable salary support in excess of ten years and receiving $1,000 or more salary support, but less than $2,000, will assume full salary support by January 1, 1991.
3. Any church receiving equitable salary support in excess of ten years and receiving $2,000 or more salary support, but less than $3,000, will assume full salary support by January 1, 1992.
4. Any church receiving equitable salary support in excess of ten years and receiving $3,000 or more salary support shall reduce the current amount of support by 10 percent or $1,000 each year, whichever is greater. If a church fails to do this, it shall be asked to raise the salary some other way. Retired supplies, lay speakers, or charge realignment are alternatives.

5. It is further recommended that existing requirements by the Commission on Equitable Salaries be enforced. Particular attention is called to the requirement that every charge receiving equitable salary support conduct an every member stewardship program. The use of the services of the Conference Stewardship Consultants is highly recommended. These services may be coordinated through the Conference Council on Ministries.
6. Missional goals of The Church may necessitate equitable salary support for some churches for a longer period of time; however, it is hoped that all churches will fervently seek to comply with the guidelines stated above.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

II. Financial Policies

1. The Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionments for the first year of the quadrennium (1989) shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year. The change in apportionment from the previous year for the first year of the quadrennium shall not increase in excess of 25%. The exclusions are: Payments on Outreach Ministries; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to the Conference average for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Preparedness Committee and the Resident Bishop. The Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionments for the subsequent 3 years of the quadrennium shall be the previous year's apportionment plus a percentage increase/decrease equal to the percentage increase/decrease in the Annual Conference budget.
2. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula for the Outreach Ministries Apportionments. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
3. The SEJ Conference Missional Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1989-1992 inclusive. This is based upon the membership at the close of the calendar year 1987 as reported in the 1988 Journal.
4. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Fair Share Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace and Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.
5. Outreach Ministries Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 7, 1989. The district superintendents will then, as soon as possible, distribute the apportionments, without adjustments, to the churches. The district superintendent may adjust the apportionments of the churches under a charge provided that the total apportionment for the charge is not changed.
6. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the Council on Finance and Administration for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

7. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.
8. The Episcopal Fund, General Administration Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, World Service, College Sustaining Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Methodist Building Maintenance, and College Debt Retirement will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the Council on Finance and Administration.
9. The Council shall consider an appropriation to the Conference Fund for Human Need at the close of the fiscal year. The supplemental appropriation in 1988 to the Fund for Human Need was $50,000.
10. Investment Policy: (a) The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. (b) South African Policy: The council will not do business with or invest in banks making loans to the government of South Africa or its agencies, or who have operations within South Africa. The council has no investments in South Africa and has adopted a policy of making no investments in South Africa.
11. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1989 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1990.

III. Approval to Solicit Funds

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference.

1. Christmas Offering for district superintendents' programs and/or projects.
2. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
3. The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
4. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken into the local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists of entire churches which might be provided, and that solicitation not be made through the North Carolina Christian Advocate.
6. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
7. The Disaster Preparedness Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the resident bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

IV. Organization and Procedure (presented for information only)

1. The Council on Finance and Administration uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
2. The president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of the Council on Finance and Administration shall serve as the executive committee of the council. The council shall elect an additional member from its voting membership.

3. The Conference treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in his office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
4. Requests for supplemental appropriations for the operating budget for 1990 shall be delivered to the treasurer's office no later than January 24, 1990.
5. Requests for the budget to be raised in 1991 shall be delivered to the treasurer's office no later than February 21, 1990.
6. Requests for special supplemental appropriations shall be in writing stating the need for funding and received in the treasurer's office at least 10 working days prior to a scheduled CFA meeting. If a request for supplemental funding is received between scheduled meetings, the executive committee may consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action as it deems appropriate.
7. The treasurer, at his discretion, may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
8. Requests for the purchase/lease of specific data processing equipment or services must be approved by CFA. The request must address the problem of compatibility of the project with the current Annual Conference data processing service. The approval of funds to begin a project does not constitute approval for the purchase/lease of specific equipment or services.
9. All remittances for General Church items must be received in the treasurer's office by 8:30 a.m. on December 31, 1989 in order to receive credit for 1989.
10. All remittances for Annual Conference items must be received in the treasurer's office by 8:30 a.m. on January 11, 1990, in order to receive credit for 1989.
11. Any request from the churches for adjustments to apportionments must be made to the Council on Finance and Administration on or before Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving. (November 22, 1989). Requests for adjustments must be submitted in writing to the district superintendent who will attach a recommendation and forward the request to the Conference treasurer's office.
12. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries.
13. A carry over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for non-salary Conference budget line items.
14. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed by CFA.
15. MEETING SCHEDULE: The council will meet on the first Wednesday of February, March, and the second Wednesday in December. There may be a meeting at Annual Conference or on the first Wednesday in September at the discretion of the president. There will also be a joint CFA/COM budget hearing in November on a mutually agreed date (November 14, 1989). The executive committee meets at the call of the president.

The principle business at the meetings is as follows:

FEBRUARY: to consider the operating budget for the current year. All payments on apportionments are due to the treasurer by mid January. A report of receipts, amounts allocated to the budgeted boards and agencies, and supplemental appropriations are decided at the meeting.

MARCH: to consider the budget to be recommended to Annual Conference which will be raised in the subsequent year and spent in the year following that. Additionally, the CFA policy recommendations to the Annual Conference are adopted.

JUNE: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.

SEPTEMBER: an optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the president.

NOVEMBER: a joint CFA/COM budget hearing. The purpose of this hearing is to receive a report from boards and agencies on funds spent and requested funds for future programs and activities.

DECEMBER: to consider the apportionment appeals from churches. The requests for appeals are due in the treasurer's office on or before the Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving. The supplemental appropriations for salaries are also considered at this meeting.

V. District Superintendents' Salary

The percentage change in district superintendents' salary for 1986 and subsequent years shall be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for that year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the North Carolina Annual Conference. (Adopted in 1985)

VI. Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund, and Basic Protection Plan (for full time lay employees on the Conference Staff - Presented for information only):

A. GENERAL

1. The lay employee's supervisor is responsible for making lay employees aware of these rules and procedures. Detailed information on the CPBF and the BPP is available from the treasurer's office. Supervisors will have lay employees who are eligible for these benefits contact the treasurer's office 60 days before they are eligible for participation, or sign a waiver form if they decline to participate in the CPBF and the BPP. The form will be kept on file in the treasurer's office for future reference.
2. The Conference treasurer's office will administer the CPBF and the BPP.
3. Contributions will be withheld from the employee's pay and remitted to the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer's office.

B. CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND (CPBF)

1. The lay employee must be full time (at least 25 hours per week).
2. The lay employee must be an employee for one continuous year before becoming eligible for lay pension program participation.
3. The Conference contribution will be the same percent as it is for clergy (currently 11%).
4. The lay employee's contribution will be the same as it is for clergy (currently 3%). The penalty for not making the contribution will be the same as it is for clergy.

C. BASIC PROTECTION PLAN (BPP)

1. Participants in the BPP must be participants in the CPBF.
2. The Conference contribution will be the plan document required amount less the lay employee's contribution.
3. The lay employee's contribution will be the same as it is for clergy (currently 1%).

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

Group Term Life Insurance

The Insurance Committee, on the recommendation of our insurance consultant, has continued our group term life insurance with State Farm Insurance Company. Our coverage is $15,000 for active participants, $7,500 for retired pastors up to age 72; $1,000 for pastors over age 72. Benefits for any pastor retiring prior to 1978 remain at $5,000. The spouse's insurance terminates at age 65 or upon retirement of the subscriber whichever comes first. The rate effective January 1, 1990 will be: individual, $11.00; family $11.50. This represents an increase of $1.00 per month for individual and family coverage.

The following claims were paid in 1988:

Charles E. Price, Jr.	$7,500.00
F. Odell Walker	15,000.00
Gregory A. Howard (double indemnity)	30,000.00
Jane P. Howard	1,000.00
Haywood L. Martin	15,000.00
John E. Wood	7,500.00
Howard E. Anderson III	15,000.00
Clarence R. Breedin, Jr.	1,000.00
Joseph F. Coble	1,000.00
Shelley A. Fogleman (double indemnity)	30,000.00
Hannah Fogleman	1,000.00
Stephen Fogleman	1,000.00
Sarah Fogleman	1,000.00
Vance A. Lewis	1,000.00
TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$127,000.00

Blue Cross/Blue Shield Insurance

Medical costs in 1988 increased at the rate of 2.0% per month resulting in an insurance fund loss of $325,707.00. The estimated loss for 1989 is $90,000.00. Consequently, Blue Cross has recommended that we increase our rates for current coverage effective January 1, 1990.

Additional Coverage:

The Insurance Committee has considered a request to increase coverage from a lifetime maximum of $20,000 to $100,000 for mental and nervous disorders. There was an error in the 1988 report to Annual Conference that listed the maximum at $10,000 instead of the $20,000 that the rates were estimated to cover. If the Annual Conference approves this increase in coverage, the rates for 1990 will be:

	1989	1990	$ change	% change
Individual - church portion	$65.93	$114.46	$48.53	73.60%
Individual - personal portion	$21.98	$38.15	$16.17	73.56%
Parent/Child - church portion	$129.47	$228.47	$99.00	76.47%
Parent/Child - personal portion	$43.16	$76.15	$32.99	76.44%

Family - church portion	$186.89	$324.82	$137.93	73.80%
Family - personal portion	$62.29	$108.27	$45.98	73.82%
Medicare supplement	$52.17	$71.02	$18.85	36.12%

Our insurance consultant has recommended and the Insurance Committee has concurred that we change from a modified minimum premium contract to an administrative services contract for the contract year June 1, 1989 to May 31, 1990. This will make possible a savings of approximately $38,988 or 2.20% less in premium increases.

The Insurance Committee is concerned about the cost and efficiency of handling claims. The Committee will examine the cost/benefits of a third party administrator for the health insurance contract. If the Committee decides that a change from Blue Cross/Blue Shield is advisable, appropriate advance notice to the subscribers will be made.

Policy and Rules

The extent of insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee upon the recommendation of the Committee's consultant.

Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services except in cases of emergency or maternity care.

When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (pastor or lay) he/she should sign up for the Medicare program (part A only). As long as he/she is actively employed there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement.

The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels claims have not be adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference treasurer.

A service fee of 1.5% per month for delinquent accounts is charged to help defray the cost of paying premiums for churches making late payments.

Annual Conference policy for health insurance is for the church to pay 75% of the premium and the subscriber to pay 25% of the premium. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Minister's personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.

Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual basis.

When there is a change of address, or a change in family status it is the insured's responsibility to notify the treasurer's office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-621-5467 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.

Health insurance for the subscriber (not dependents) may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.

Laypersons or ministers on maternity leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.

The Conference treasurer may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums, in which case, a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions shall be required to reestablish the health insurance coverage.

Eligibility Policies:

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- I. Ministers who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary members, associate members, student local pastors, interim supplies, (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part time under appointment in:
 - A. One of the churches or charges of the North Carolina Conference.
 - B. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 - C. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 1. The minister shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before reestablishing the health insurance coverage.
 2. The minister shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the date due.
- II. Ministers on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after beginning the leave of absence.
- III. Lay Employees: The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment (initial enrollment period was November 1-31, 1985, coverage effective January 1, 1986 for employees already at the church; within 30 days of date of hire for new employees); otherwise there will be a one year waiting period for any pre-existing conditions.
 - Workers in day care centers or nursery/kindergarten programs were added effective September 1, 1986 (initial enrollment period was July 1-31, 1986) with the same guidelines as for other lay employees.
 - The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for ministers which is 75% paid by the church and 25% by the employee.
 - In case of termination of employment, the church is responsible for the premium until the treasurer's office is notified in writing of such termination.
 - The term group life insurance was made effective January 1, 1987. Applications must have been received prior to December 31, 1986 for lay employees already employed or within 30 days of employment for new employees. The amount of insurance is as specified above.

Health Screening

At the last two sessions of Annual Conference, and again this year, health screening will be conducted by the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. This is a very valuable service to the members of our Conference and we encourage everyone to take advantage of this service. This is one means of reducing medical costs by detecting potential medical problems in the early stages.

Committee Membership

The Insurance Committee is made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pensions; 2, Division of Health and Welfare; 2, Joint Committee on Disability; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 1, Board of Diaconal Ministry; 1, District Lay Leader; 1, Cabinet; Conference Treasurer (without vote); Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). At the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies, the representative should be elected.

The Insurance Committee is grateful to the members of the Annual Conference for the support it receives as the Committee strives to provide the best possible health and life insurance benefits.

LAY/CLERGY EQUALIZATION, COMMITTEE TO STUDY

The 1988 Annual Conference directed that all references from the Discipline and past Conference Journals defining the membership of Annual Conference be printed together in the 1989 Journal. In researching this material, the Committee has discovered that there is no documentation for some of the offices presently listed as members of the Annual Conference, and thus we are recommending that such actions be taken at the 1989 Annual Conference Session.

The Committee recommends that all future lay members to be added to balance our growing number of clergy be elected by charge conferences of our charges, and thus be representative of and answerable to local churches.

I. The North Carolina Annual Conference Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan

"The Clergy membership of an Annual Conference (§ 412) shall consist of members in full connection (§ 421), probationary members (§ 413), associate members (§ 418), affiliate members (§ 1431.5a), and local pastors under full-time appointment to a pastoral charge (§ 408.1). (See also § 35)." (1988 Discipline, § 701.1, page 335)

"...The lay members shall have been for the two years next preceding their election members of The United Methodist Church and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election..." (1988 Discipline, § 35, Article I, page 30)

"If the lay membership should number less than the ministerial members of the Annual Conference, the Annual Conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and ministerial membership of the annual conference..." (1988 Discipline, § 35, Article I, page 30)

To compute the number of additional lay member votes for the Annual Conference in order to balance with the voting clergy members, subtract the total pastoral charges (1988 Journal, Question 56.a, page 217), including the lay members who will match their voting associate pastors, from the total voting clergy (1988 Journal, Question 57, page 218). These remaining lay members needed for equalization are determined by counting the following:

"The Annual Conference shall be composed of ministerial members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the diaconal ministers, the conference president of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, the president of the conference youth organization, and two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age from each district to be selected in such manner as determined by the Annual Conference." (1988 Discipline, § 35, Article I, pages 29 and 30)

"...One college or university student from each United Methodist-related campus ministry within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. Where no charge conference is held, a recommendation will be made to the district superintendent for appointment to Annual Conference." (1988 Journal, page 173)

"...Conference treasurer/business administrator...all lay persons on program staff..." (1987 Journal, page 147)

District presidents of United Methodist Men (Added in 1983 - no documentation found)

Presidents of our Conference colleges (Added in 1976 - no documentation found)

"All lay chairpersons of Conference boards and agencies, all lay members of general boards, all lay members seated and all reserve members in attendance for the majority of the time at the latest session of the General Conference, all lay members seated and all reserve members in attendance for the majority of the time at the latest session of the Jurisdictional Conference, all district lay leaders, all district presidents of United Methodist Women, one additional youth/young adult member from each district to be selected by the rules presently abided by..." (1974 Journal, page 261)

 "...The additional lay members needed will be selected by local charges on the basis of membership as listed in the latest published Conference Journal. All charges with a membership above a determined number will have one additional lay member. The number of members required for a charge to have an additional lay member will be determined by the number of lay members needed to fulfill the quota for the Conference. For example, if 50 lay members are needed to fill the formula, the 50 charges with the largest membership having only one lay member from the charge lay membership would each be eligible to elect a second member." (1974 Journal, page 261)

II. Recommendations

- A. That since no documentation was found for district presidents of United Methodist Men and presidents of our Conference colleges, we request approval from the 1989 Annual Conference.
- B. That this committee shall continue to study and bring recommendations to the 1990 Annual Conference on future equalization.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Duke Convocation and North Carolina Pastor's School will be held October 30-November 1, 1989. We are very pleased to have Walter Brueggemann of Columbia Theological Seminary as the Gray Lecturer and William (Billy) J. Abraham of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University as the Hickman Lecturer. William Quick, Senior Minister, Metropolitan United Methodist Church, Detroit, Michigan and William Turner of the Duke Divinity School, will be the convocation preachers. A full complement of nine Continuing Education Seminars offering one CEU will be available to those who pre-register. The continual growth in attendance each year has made it necessary for those who wish to participate in seminars to register early.

The 1988 event was highlighted by the presentations of James A Saunders, of Claremont School of Theology, as the Gray Lecturer and Douglas Adams, of Pacific School of Religion, as the Hickman Lecturer. James David Barber, of Duke, gave the keynote address on "Religion and Presidential Politics." Two preaching professors from Duke, Carol Noren and Richard Lischer, were the convocation preachers.

We are particularly pleased to see an increasing number of members of the conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction and other geographical areas of the Church participate in this annual gathering.

Larry D. Wilkinson, Chairperson, WNC Conference
James E. Creech, Vice-Chairperson

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care administers a financial grant program for North Carolina Annual Conference clergy and their families for confidential counseling and therapy. The financial assistance is provided to cover up to one-half of the cost of each counseling session for which application is made by an approved provider of services until the $300 annual allowance has been granted provided that coordination of benefits (COB) will be no more than 100% of the fees charged. Up to 80% of financial coverage for outpatient psychiatric care is provided through the Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield insurance policy. Clients should check with the therapist and the Health Care Benefits for details.

Family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home, such as spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home and through the age of twenty-two.

The qualifications for financial grants are:

1. The receiver of services must be a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference, active, retired, on Leave of Absence, or serving as a minister in a local church of the North Carolina Annual Conference, or a dependent of such a person.
2. The counseling or therapy must be provided by someone who has one or more of the credentials listed below in this report, or by someone on the staff of one of the pastoral care centers, also listed below.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

At the client's request, the counselor or therapist is to make application to the chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care for financial assistance to the client in the following manner:

1. The therapist requests application forms, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the chairperson of Pastoral Care.
2. The application is submitted by the therapist to the chairperson of Pastoral Care as directed on the application form. Clients will be identified by a case number only and never by name! The minister and/or dependents are assigned the same case number.
3. The therapist will receive financial assistance on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund the client as appropriate. Clients should request from the therapist a record or statement showing financial assistance received on their behalf. Should this procedure not be acceptable with the therapist because of her/his payment contract, the client should request the therapist to contact the chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure. It is the policy of the Pastoral Care Committee to not recommend particular agencies for clients. The following credentials are necessary for financial assistance, and the following agencies are approved and are some of the resources available:

CREDENTIALS

Providers of counseling and therapy who have one or more of the following credentials are eligible to apply for and receive financial assistance on behalf of clergy clients.

- Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification, North Carolina license.
- Psychologists (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologist, North Carolina license.
- Pastoral Counselors: Member, Fellow, or Diplomat of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Inc. (AAPC)
- Counselors: Clinical Member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), North Carolina Certified Marriage and Family Therapists, North Carolina Registered Practicing Counselors
- Social Workers: Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW)

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events. Grants of $50 per couple or family are available for up to two events per year. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials and verification of participation should accompany the application. Contact the chairperson of Pastoral Care for complete information and application form.

SUMMARY OF 1988

This past year the Committee has endeavored to be faithful in its charge to serve the clergy families of the North Carolina Conference. We also commend the Reverend Kermit L. Braswell, Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Ministerial Relations, for his ministry as an advocate of bereaved families when a minister dies which involves notifying family members of benefits and services available to them, such as financial assistance for counseling.

In 1988 requests for funding from the Committee on Pastoral Care were received for 59 clergy family units. A unit consists of one of the following: a clergy, a clergy and spouse, a spouse, a child, a family, or others who are in the same residence with the clergy member and qualify. There were 239 sessions reported for clergy, 99 sessions for clergy and spouse, 40 sessions for spouses, 15 for families, 22 sessions for children. Charges for those services totaled $27,760.50 of which $12,293.05 was funded by the Pastoral Care Committee.

The average hourly cost for counseling service in 1988 was $58 per hour. Providers submitted 104 applications for counseling services for the 59 receivers. The Conference Blue Cross and Blue Shield insurance was filed by 8 eligible providers, and paid $1,052.75 or 4% of the total counseling fees.

The Pastoral Care Committee is making the following recommendations:

1. To the Conference Insurance Committee:
Whereas Blue Cross and Blue Shield covers 80% of outpatient psychiatric care but has covered only 4% of the actual charges for counseling that our clergy incur, the Pastoral Care Committee recommends to the Conference Insurance Committee that the following mental health professionals be added as providers of the Conference health plan in addition to the licensed psychiatrists and clinical psychologists already recognized:
Pastoral Counselors: Member, fellow, or diplomat of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Inc. (AAPC)
Counselors: Clinical member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), North Carolina Certified Marriage and Family Therapists, North Carolina Registered Practicing Counselors
Social Workers: Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW)
2. To the North Carolina Annual Conference that the following paragraph be adopted as our Conference policy:
Grants for financial assistance from the Pastoral Care Committee are not available for persons who are receiving therapy, counseling or are in a CPE program in order to qualify as a candidate for ministry as in cases when therapy or CPE is mandated by the Board of Ordained Ministry, or to anyone receiving counseling for the purposes of career enhancement such as CPE programs.
3. To the Clergy Living Committee we recommend that the standards for the parsonage be no less than in previous guidelines.

IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Salary. The 1989 CAS for the North Carolina Conference is $24,443.00.
- C. The current rate is $254.00 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Salary increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAS to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1990 be increased to $264.00 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Salary increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $23,330,535.
- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary plus utilities) e.g.	$20,000.00
less 10% for utilities	2,000.00
	$18,000.00
Add 20% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance	3,600.00
Plan Compensation will be	$21,600.00

1. No travel funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations as this is considered by the General Board of Pensions to be an item of local expense.
 2. The utility allowance of the pastor is not considered by the General Board of Pensions to be more than 10% of the total Cash Income, regardless of the amount set at the Charge Conference.
 3. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 20% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
 4. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is: 20%-1990; 21%-1991; 22%-1992; 23%-1993; 24%-1994; 25%-1995.
 5. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
 - C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pensions. (Effective January 1, 1990)
 - D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
 - E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
 - F. We recommend that the following schedule of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan be adopted and implemented to bring the North Carolina Conference participants into the intended structure of the Ministerial Pension Plan:
- | Year | Salaries and Utilities | MPP Percentage |
|------------|------------------------|----------------|
| 1989 | 90% | .11% |
- III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.
 - 1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 20% upon retirement at any age.
 - 2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on disability.
 - 3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 11% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 - 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pensions. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.1% contribution of actual Plan Compensation. The pastor will be required to pay 1.0% of the 4.1% as provided in the Comprehensive Protection Plan, and the church or charge will pay the additional 3.1%. (Beginning on January 1, 1990, the CPP will be changed to 4.4% up to the Denominational Average Compensation to comply with the Plan Document. Churches will pay 3.4% and pastors 1%.).

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of these ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
 - FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 15.4% of Plan Compensation
 - STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12.0% of Plan Compensation
 - LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12.0% of Plan Compensation
 - INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility
- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the Conference Treasurer for his/her portion (1%) of the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
- C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pensions for his/her Personal (3%).

V. MPP and CPP Payments Policy:

The churches and participants who send the MPP and CPP remittances promptly are to be commended. This is necessary for the program to function efficiently. There are some who are consistently delinquent in their payments. This delinquency could jeopardize the Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan

Programs. Rather than depriving any minister of these benefits, inexhaustible efforts are made with the minister and/or the Church or Charge Treasurer to collect the MPP and CPP Funds. These efforts consume an inordinate amount of staff time required by correspondence and telephone conversations. To help defray the cost of these additional efforts to collect these funds it is necessary to charge one and one-half per cent per month for any MPP or CPP funds that are as much as 30 days in arrears effective July 1, 1987. (Not applicable after January 1, 1990)

VI. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.
 1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
 2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
- B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)
 1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62, OR retires with thirty-five (35) years of service, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
 2. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62, or earns 35 years of pension credit, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
17	85%15%

3. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the medicare supplement paid to those covered under medicare. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in VI B2.

4. Clergy Couples' Insurance

- A. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule VI B2.
- B. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule VI B2.
- C. No life insurance is provided for the spouse or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.

VII. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

VIII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement

Maximum benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired pastors and spouses was increased from $50,000 to $100,000. (Effective February 1, 1989)

IX. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)

X. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

Whereas, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

Whereas, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

Whereas, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

Whereas, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

Whereas, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

Now therefore be it resolved:

- 1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1989-1990 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.

2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report D - Ministers' Retirement Fund Constitution

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE FUND

The Ministers' Retirement Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his/her housing, by paying two lump sum benefits at the time of retirement. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the Fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Retirement Fund as an additional benefit for their minister, but a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the Fund. We vigorously emphasize that this Fund is for the minister's retirement, and not any kind of emergency fund to be made available for any other purpose.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this Fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer shall obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each Annual Conference, who are eligible to receive the lump sum payment, and pay them promptly any benefits to which they are entitled. Retirement benefits are to be paid to each participating minister at the time of his/her retirement (either at the regular time or at the earlier optional time) or when that minister is placed on disability leave. Retirement or disability will terminate any further participation in the Fund by any minister.

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work is contributing to the minister's United Methodist pension credit shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member or lay pastor must continue to serve full time in a charge or other work under episcopal appointment that contributes to the minister's United Methodist pension credit or be granted a Leave of Absence by the Executive Session of the Annual Conference. Membership in this Fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. The period of enrollment for all ministers is January 1-31 of each year, when full payment for previous year's service is made.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total remuneration for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve months amount.

A full time local pastor may continue as a member of the Ministers' Retirement Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment and earning pension credit.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective.

ASSESSMENTS

Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall pay into the Fund one percent (1%) of all money excluding travel he/she receives each year from the charge or charges he/she is serving and/or Conference sources (this includes salary, utility allowances, Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to one percent (1%) of salary usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers employed by the Council on Ministries. District superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay one percent (1%) of their income designated as salary and utilities.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall pay a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF PAYMENTS

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Retirement Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. Each member of the Fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. No later than December 1 of each year, the Conference treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. Payments made after January 31 will be credited to the minister's account for the following year. If he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years this delayed payment extends the period prior to dividend payments for one year. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will collect no dividends for the year of delayed payment.

BASE BENEFITS

Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00

If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00
If retired at the end of sixteen years of membership	1,700.00
If retired at the end of seventeen years of membership	1,800.00
If retired at the end of eighteen years of membership	1,900.00
If retired at the end of nineteen years of membership	2,000.00
If retired at the end of twenty years of membership	2,100.00
If retired at the end of twenty-one years of membership	2,200.00
If retired at the end of twenty-two years of membership	2,300.00
If retired at the end of twenty-three years of membership	2,400.00
If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his/her account and payable in addition to the base benefit upon retirement.

DIVIDENDS

Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members retiring at the Annual Conference shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

DEATH BENEFITS

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his/her estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his/her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the time that dividends are earned, the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the principal amount contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary/beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

Each member shall provide the Conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions a statement, naming the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death before retirement.

PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS

At retirement, members who have accrued the same years credit in the Fund (during the same years) will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

A minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund will be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which time he/she retires, the total amount as prescribed by the formula for retired members. A minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund shall be paid in two payments, an amount equal to the total dividend accrued plus the base payment for the years of membership. The first payment shall be the amount on which the member has paid taxes and the second payment shall be for the balance in the member's account. The remainder of the amount accrued to the minister's credit shall be paid to him/her in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This amount will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at the current bank passbook interest rate paid by a bank located in the city of Raleigh (the "passbook rate") in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment. The total January payment should be reported as ordinary income for income tax purposes. In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

Any minister continuing to serve, but who has attained the age of 60 prior to July 1, following Annual Conference, but who has not reached age 70, may terminate from the Ministers' Retirement Fund under the provisions of the retirement policy by making a written request to the Conference treasurer not later than the last day of Annual Conference.

DISABILITY LEAVE

A minister who is approved for and placed on disability leave may elect to receive payment of benefits under one of the following options:

1. The same as a retiring minister.
2. The same as a transferring member.
3. Remain as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources.
4. Receive all benefits within ten (10) days following the determination of disability status by the Conference Joint Committee on Disability.

The minister shall notify the Conference treasurer in writing of his/her choice of option within ten (10) days following the adjournment of Annual Conference or declaration of disability leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence may elect to:

1. Remain an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Salary while on leave.
2. Have his/her funds held until the minister returns to active service. The minister may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings to be effective at the time the leave is terminated.

MEMBERSHIP TRANSFERRING

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church will not make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her holdings (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the retirement benefit will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with passbook interest added from that date to the date of retirement. If the funds are held, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

PENALTIES

If any member of the Fund fails to contribute his/her required contribution for three consecutive years, he/she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

WITHDRAWING FROM THE FUND

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions, he/she shall receive an amount equal to the amount he/she has paid into the Fund, plus the simple interest computed at the "passbook rate" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund, and terminate his/her membership in the Fund.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the above formula.

REINSTATEMENT

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to join the Ministers' Retirement Fund more than two (2) times during his/her ministerial career.

NEW RULES AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this Fund shall be null and void.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

On Friday evening, May 6, 1988, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in St. Louis, Missouri, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 783, yes; 85, no; 3, abstaining. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In Section VII, ¶ 35, Article I, insert the following words:

In the Annual Conferences of the Central Conferences, the four-year participation and the two-year membership requirements may be waived by the Annual Conference for young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age. Such persons must be members of The United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 35 would then read:

The Annual Conference shall be composed of ministerial members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the diaconal ministers, the conference president of United Methodist Women, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, district lay leaders, the president or equivalent officer of the conference young adult organization, the president of the conference youth organization, and two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age from each district to be selected in such manner as may be determined by the Annual Conference. In the Annual Conferences of the Central Conferences, the four-year participation and the two-year membership requirements may be waived by the Annual Conference for young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age. Such persons must be members of The United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election. Each charge served by more than one minister shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are ministerial members. The lay members shall have been for the two years next preceding their election members of The United Methodist Church and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election.

If the lay membership should number less than the ministerial members of the Annual Conference, the Annual Conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and ministerial membership of the Annual Conference.

B. REPORTS

ANNUAL CONFERENCE ADDRESS BY BISHOP C. P. MINNICK, JR.

Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples - Moving Toward The Vision

This 1989 session of the N.C. Annual Conference is celebration time! This is indeed a time for doxology! "Praise God from whom all blessings flow!"

A year ago as we gathered here in session we focused our attention on the theme, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples, and we committed ourselves to making that vision a reality in this Annual Conference. Believing that faithful discipleship and vital congregational life are rooted in and sustained by the spiritual disciplines of prayer, Bible study, and the private and corporate worship of God, we have sought as an Annual Conference to be more faithful in the practice of these disciplines as essential steps toward the vision.

Clergy and laity alike have responded in sacrificial ways to the New Testament call to servanthood. Today we offer thanks and praise to God for the ministries we have been enabled to do by God's grace and power.

In this spirit of gratitude and praise let us note in our life and mission some of those signs of movement toward the vision that calls us.

A total of $54,990,551 was given last year by the United Methodists of the N.C. Annual Conference for the work of Jesus Christ in ministries at home and around the world. This is an increase of almost $3,000,000 over the year before and reflects an increase in annual per capita giving from $236 to $258. And my heart rejoices, "Thanks be unto God!" However, in the midst of such praise and thanksgiving to God, we must remind ourselves that a per capita giving of $258 for United Methodist Christians in eastern North Carolina falls far short of The Tithe which is the Biblical teaching concerning the stewardship of money. We cannot be satisfied until every United Methodist is committed to the Christian doctrine and practice of the stewardship of financial resources. It is significant, and should be noted, too, that 75% of our pastoral charges gave 100% of their "fair share outreach apportionment." For many this demanded sacrificial giving. We are deeply grateful to these congregations for this expression of faithful discipleship and vital congregational life.

In our ministry of evangelism we thank God for using us to lead others to Jesus Christ. Our conference increased in membership last year by 1049 persons. More than 3000 persons were received into our churches on profession of faith. We praise God for those who have become disciples of Jesus and have joined our congregations for worship, study, and service; but we also pray for God to forgive us for those times when we have not been faithful in our response to the great commandment to be witnesses for Jesus Christ and to make disciples.

During the past year as we have moved toward the goal summed up in our theme, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples, some significant steps have been taken. As I reflect now on these, the words of the Apostle Paul express the deep feelings of my heart, "Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say, Rejoice!"

One extremely important accomplishment and a cause for great thanksgiving is the commitment to ministry for Jesus Christ expressed in the Capital Funds Campaign. The United Methodist people of eastern North Carolina have committed $8,000,000 to be given over the next three years for camping and outdoor ministries and church extension. This is a strong witness to our faithful discipleship and vital congregational life. BUT I must hasten to add at this point that the campaign is not over because our goal has not in fact been completely achieved. We adopted here last year a resolution calling for a capital funds effort which would yield no less than $8,000,000 for these ministries. It is a fact, proven by experience, that due to shrinkage in payments over a three year period we shall receive $8,000,000 dollars only if we have a minimum of $10,000,000 in commitments. What this means is that we are on the move and have achieved 80% of our goal. But there is more to do before we have our victory celebration. A Campaign Continuation Committee, chaired by Beth Norris and staffed by Tom Collins, is in place and at work. Based on consultation with the Office of Finance and Field Service of our General Board of Global Ministries, our committee is convinced that we must receive at least $2,000,000 in major gifts if we are to receive our needed $8 million. Plans are in place and work has begun on this continuation phase of our campaign.

Perhaps some of you here can make a major gift of $50,000 or more, or maybe you know someone who can and will make such a major gift if they are led to believe in these significant ministries which we are addressing in this campaign. In either of these cases your church needs your assistance.

So let us celebrate our great achievement. Let us praise God for what has been done. And let us commit ourselves again to our goal of no less than $8,000,000 received for camping and church extension.

Another big step toward making the vision a reality is the local congregation vitalization emphasis which was adopted by the Annual Conference in special session on March 4, 1989. The Rev. Steve Compton has been selected as the team leader for this movement. A process will soon be in place for the selection of 195 congregations for intensive participation. All congregations may participate in less intense yet productive ways. The program will require a careful self-study and self-evaluation by each participating local church and the mobilization of their physical and spiritual resources and energy for a more vital congregational life and ministry.

A group of consultants will be selected and trained to assist Steve Compton in leadership, consultation and support for the congregations which are involved. Dr. Ken Calahan will continue under contract with us to give counsel, training and assistance when needed. You will be receiving more information about this exciting movement in our N. C. Annual Conference. This program promises to stimulate spiritual renewal and growth in ministry in local congregations across the N. C. Annual Conference. And this calls for celebration and praise to God.

I am well aware of the fact that there are many areas of our life and ministry as an Annual Conference that need increased commitment of spiritual energy and material resources.

We must not be satisfied with the present quality of our discipleship and congregational life.

This leads me to note an area which is of special concern to me and to the cabinet...the area of open itineracy. We have not achieved this which is a vital part of the vision which we seek to make a reality. To move us toward this dimension of our vision, during the coming year each District Superintendent will seek to identify, and be in dialog with, at least two churches on her/his district where a cross-racial pastoral appointment might be made and with two pastors who are willing to give themselves to such appointments.

As the bishop of this annual conference I am committed to having a cabinet that is inclusive in terms of race and gender. I shall accomplish this as soon as I can do so with an appointment or appointments which I am convinced do not compromise my own convictions concerning the leadership which is needed in the cabinet at this moment in the life of this Annual Conference.

The New Testament still calls us to be the body of Christ in the world and this means nothing less than expressing the mind, the spirit, the attitude and the way of Christ in all of life's relationships and to be dedicated servants who touch the world with the touch of Christ's caring love. Such a calling delivers us daily from self-righteousness and self-satisfaction.

But having said that I want to add that I am convinced that in recent years we have spent enough time and energy in negative self-evaluation. Many voices have told us what is wrong with the church. We have been made well aware of our weaknesses and our failures. I believe that we need now to affirm what is right about the church. We need to celebrate the work of the Holy Spirit in us and through us as local congregations and as a denomination.

As a new member of the General Board of Global Ministries and as the president of the United Methodist Committee on Relief, I have a new awareness of what our denomination is doing in mission here in the United States and around the world. We are sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ; we are seeing persons professing faith in Him and becoming His disciples; we are feeding hungry people; we are offering healing ministries to those who are ill; we are attacking the root causes of hunger; we are involved in ministries of justice and liberation; and we are doing these ministries in more than eighty countries of the world. We respond to natural disasters anywhere in the world with immediate relief within 24 to 36 hours. And our church is able to do these things because of our fair share outreach giving. What a magnificent response to the call of Jesus, "Go, make disciples...feed the hungry...set at liberty those who are oppressed...love, as I have loved you." These ministries of our local congregations through our connectional structure is something to sing about! This is indeed a time for doxology.

As I conclude these remarks on the state of the church in the N. C. Annual Conference, I would call your attention again to the theme and the vision toward which we are moving. You will note that we have added some words which sharpen our focus. So our theme becomes, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples: Growing Communities of Compassion. Every word is crucial to a full understanding of the vision to which we are committed.

Vital speaks of life in Christ with power and commitment.

The word, Congregations, speaks of Christians gathered in local churches living in their communities as the expression of the love of Jesus Christ.

Faithful calls us to follow Jesus...to deny self...and to take up the cross daily.

Disciples means learners, and this word reminds us that we are learners who spend much time seeking to understand and experience the living Christ whose servants we are. Disciples strive to see him more clearly, love him more dearly and follow him more nearly day by day.

Growing is both an adjective and a verb...it describes our life of growth as faithful learners in the school of Christian discipleship and it speaks of increased numbers who respond to our witness.

The word, Communities, translates the New Testament word, koinonia - people bound together in a covenant of love for Christ, for each other and for the world.

Compassion is the word used more often than any other to describe Jesus who "had compassion" on all whom he met. The word means to identify with, to suffer with, and to minister unto all persons. Compassion is caring and caring deeply.

I must end with the doxology with which I began, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow!" God grant that this might be the song and the spirit which flow through all that we do this week and in future days as we continue by God's power and grace to move toward the vision - Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples: Growing Communities of Compassion.

CAPITAL FUNDS CAMPAIGN CONTINUATION COMMITTEE

The report of the Capital Funds Campaign is really a success story of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Members meeting in Fayetteville in June of 1988 passed a resolution to raise at least $8,000,000 to be divided equally between Outdoor and Camping Ministry and church growth and development. Since that time local churches, clergy and major donors have pledged $8,020,238.67. The North Carolina Conference is grateful for this response which will enable us to refurbish and add to our local camps. This amount also allows us to participate in supporting newly established congregations.

The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministry is taking its first step by hiring architects to plan the development of the camp facilities. Two new churches will be established at Annual Conference as part of the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign.

The Conference is grateful to Wes Allen, director of the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign from the Office of Finance and Field Service. The careful planning of the campaign under the leadership of Steering Committee Chair Felix Harvey has elicited such an excellent response.

The Continuation Committee is grateful for the major donors who have expressed their confidence in these two causes through donations of money, land, and services.

The Committee will continue to keep the Conference informed about the progress of the campaign and to seek major gifts to ensure that the Conference can bring its camping facilities up to standard and establish new congregations as the need arises.

(A complete financial report will be made available to members attending the June 1989 Annual Conference.)

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES, REPORTS OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

Our sub-committee on Native American History is working diligently on a history of the Native American Church in the North Carolina Conference. We hope this history will be ready before long. Jane Smith chairs this committee.

We strongly encourage the three hundred (300) ministers, who have not responded to our request for historical data from them, to please do so immediately. If you do not have the form for this information contact Vivian Mitchell, the Bishop's secretary. We want to put this information on our computer.

Bill King, archivist at Duke University Library, and Reverend Lawrence E. Lugar, chair of this commission have been elected to the Southeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History.

Twenty-four people, including Bishop and Mrs. C.P. Minnick, Jr., went on a Methodist Heritage Tour to England in August 1988. What a thrill it was to walk where the Wesleys walked, worked and ministered to the people.

We are indebted to Vivian Mitchell for researching the names of all churches abandoned and discontinued in our Conference since 1926.

In the January 1988 Workshops we taught a class on the "Work of the Local Church Historian." Although the classes were small, there was great interest.

Our Conference Historical Society is undertaking the enormous task of securing a picture of every minister who has served the Conference since 1837. They also publish a newsletter. Membership fees are $5.00.

Several members of our commission and guests attended the Southeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society at Lake Junaluska in July of 1988.

We now have in our archives handwritten copies of early Annual Conference minutes. We are indebted to Carleton Wilson, Conference Secretary for many years for these.

Our 1988 meetings were held at St. Paul United Methodist Church, St. Paul, North Carolina and the Methodist Building in Raleigh.

The Commission has purchased for our archives room two fireproof file cabinets, a small work table and chair, and a new display case.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS, COMMISSION ON

Christian unity has been the dream of the church since its beginnings; separation has been the reality. The early tension between Jewish Christians and Gentile Christians was but the forerunner of splits between East and West, Roman Catholic and Orthodox, Roman Catholic and Protestant, Liberal and Conservative. The task for the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns is for us to talk with and work with those from whom we are separated. Our dream and our task are perhaps well described in Ephesians 2:14: "For Christ is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility..." Unfortunately, what Christ has broken down, denominations have rebuilt. Our work, as a Commission and as Christians, is incomplete so long as any dividing wall remains standing.

The decision of the 1988 General Conference to affirm the Consultation on Church Union Consensus marks a significant milestone in the breaking down of the wall. It is expected that in 1992 the General Conference will be asked to decide if The United Methodist Church should become part of the Covenant Communion of Churches. While The United Methodist Church would retain its structure and identity, it would enter into eight elements of full communion with other Covenant Communions: 1) confessing the faith as one people, 2) embracing inclusiveness of persons as a sign of wholeness, 3) recognizing each other's members in one baptism, 4) fully recognizing each other as true churches, 5) mutually recognizing our ordained ministries as one ministry, 6) celebrating Holy Communion together, 7) engaging in witness to Christ in ways that give evidence that Christ has made us one, and 8) creating a means of deciding and acting together.

In 1988 our Commission sent a representative to an ecumenical gathering of note: The Gathering of Christians in Arlington Texas. At this meeting, another wall was broken down with the participation of Pentecostal Churches at this national event of study, worship, and praise.

However, Christian Unity is not just a matter to be decided on a national level. On the state level, our Commission has sought to break down the wall of division by supporting the North Carolina Council of Churches through financial support and strong representation at all levels of that organization.

In 1988 the Commission sought to break down the wall at the local and district level as well. We encouraged cooperative prison ministries and offered support and materials for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. In addition, our Commission began a newsletter to inform local churches of ideas and opportunities for working with other denominations at the local level.

1988 saw a new door open as representatives from our Conference helped plan the 1989 National Workshop on Christian-Jewish Relations and made plans to send representatives to this event. It is hoped that this beginning of conversation with not simply another denomination, but another faith, will help remove some other barriers that have long divided peoples of faith from one another.

Finally, the Commission would like to thank and encourage the local churches of our Conference for their enthusiastic participation with other denominations in many endeavors. Events such as CROP Walks, joint Lenten, Easter, and Thanksgiving services, ongoing projects such as soup kitchens, shelters for the homeless, and prison ministries, and support for local ministerial associations and organizations such as Church Women United, all serve to bring the dream of unity a little closer to fulfillment.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, BOARD OF

The beginning of a new quadrennium marked a transitional time for the Board. As officers and members assumed their new roles, the group celebrated the work of those who had gone before. We celebrated the leadership and direction of Dr. Bill Bingham, chairperson from 1984-88. Of particular note was the birth of the "Task Force on Poverty," whose work is well begun. During '88's annual conference session, there was a glorious moment of sharing by the Smiths of Raleigh and their experience with Habitat for Humanity. In addition, the board supported prison, migrant, and peace with justice ministries, including support for an Estonian pastor getting an automobile.

The board continues to seek ways to be present to persons and concerns in Robeson County. A "listening session" was arranged with a number of pastors in the area where a number of voices were heard. It was the conclusion of those present that for the church to be effective would require a longterm commitment to interpretation of social change; it would also require some kind of support for the process of Robeson County Native Americans being recognized with official "tribe" status; in addition, we are called to be supportive of persons involved in the struggle for social change, and to continue the battle against racism. We are called at this moment not to come in with a ready answer, but to offer commitment to the people there, their hurts, and their ambitions, and to the cause of peace and justice.

The fall meeting of the board was devoted to setting the course not only for the coming program year, but for the entire quadrennium. Members wrestled with how to best manifest the Discipline's directives. The board concluded that our ministries where the "church meets society" are manifold, including "interpretation," "advocacy," "the prophetic voice," "raising consciousness," "position takers," and "programmers." We are called to "interpret" all manner of social changes, both as we respond to them and help to cause them; we are called to be "advocates" for persons in need; we are called to raise the prophetic cry in the face of injustice, to take positions for justice, and to help carve out our faithful response to the cries of the oppressed. We are further called to offer program opportunities to local churches who seek to respond to the hurts of persons in their own communities.

Your Board of Church and Society is at work in the areas of environmental and economic survival, family and community issues (including drug and alcohol concerns), the ongoing farm crisis, peace with justice, and poverty. We seek to raise the consciousness of committed Christians to a new level of sensitivity to the will of God in our time and place. We covet your prayers as we stand together under the judgment and mercy of almighty God.

EDUCATION, BOARD OF

We are a pilgrim people, called to a ministry of teaching and learning. We are traveling under orders: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Matt. 28:19-20a).

Your conference Board of Education has sought to be true to this commission by providing a variety of training and personal growth opportunities.

Sunday School conferences were held in each district with an average attendance of 160 for a total attendance of 1,275 teachers and workers.

A TLC (Teaching, Learning, Caring) team training event was held with ten participants. TLC Teams responded to eight invitations to help churches in the area of children's ministry.

Successful youth events were held and well received by the following number of participants: Youth Music Workshop and Concert Tour: 72; Rally Day: 275; UN Study Tour: 47; Junior High Weekend: 75; Trail Hike: 15; Junior High Workshop: 160; Senior High Workshop: 160; ACS: 268; International Work Team: 12; Senior High Weekend: 108; Bishop's Meeting with Confirmation Classes: 730.

A Young Adult "Spiritual Life Weekend" had 16 participants and a Young Adult Resource Team of 5 members attended the general church "Baby Boomer" event.

The Older Adult Faire had 48 participants who were helped to plan older adult ministries for their own churches.

In the area of leadership development, 9 persons from the conference were participants in laboratory training events and 12 in workshops at the jurisdictional Leader Development Center at Lake Junaluska. 46 persons attended classes for teachers of children and youth at Conference Summer School. 8 district or sub-district Christian Workers' Schools had a total enrollment of 490.

May we all respond to the invitation to take up the teaching task to which Christ calls us, with love and with excellence, as never before!

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

As part of our becoming the community of wholeness to which God calls us, the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church moves to address people and places of brokenness. We will order and re-order program and budget at every level of the church so that ethnic minority local churches and ministries may be strengthened for mission and witness in the 59 counties in which our churches exist and for mission and witness to the whole world. Unless the ethnic minority local church be strengthened for this work, our United Methodist presence and outreach will be less than God shapes us to be. To God be the glory.

The Comprehensive Plan of the North Carolina Conference as related to the Missional Priority Coordinating Committee is very clear and concise in its statement of goals and objectives. Likewise the strategies for implementation are explicitly written. Therefore, boards and agencies are able to move with deliberate speed in carrying out this Conference mandate.

The fifth segment of the Comprehensive Plan focuses on Annual Conference agencies and resourcing. Section B delineates ways to reprioritize goals, objectives, and strategies. This section calls for a historical review by each program board of its work with the ethnic minority local churches, a reallocation of funds and programs to include at least 20 percent of programs and budgeted funds for ministries designed specifically for the ethnic minority local churches and a written report on the same to the Council on Ministries.

Status reports have been received from the Board of Laity, Board of Worship, Board of Missions, Board of Education, Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Commission of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, Board of Church and Society, Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, Commission on Religion and Race, and no reports were filed by the Commission on Archives and History, Board of Evangelism, Board of Stewardship, and Commission on Status and Role of Women.

The reports indicate that some boards and commissions are working deliberately toward becoming more inclusive in programming and funding. The creativity that has been utilized by some is refreshing and shows what can be done through careful and prayerful planning.

The commitment of some boards and agencies is seen in the addition of funds and programs that speak specifically to the needs of the ethnic minority local churches. These have included ethnic minority leadership development workshops, camperships for ethnic minority youths, a grant to Hispanic Ministry, funding for a Native American Parish, funded delegates to the National Workshop on Christian-Jewish Relations and intensive recruiting efforts of ethnic minorities to fill positions of leadership. These intentional activities are applauded and it is hoped that they will serve as models for other boards and agencies who indicate that their present programming does not allow for additional initiatives.

The Council on Finance and Administration did not fund a line item for EMLC, but the funds were provided by the Conference Council on Ministries to provide the budget for the work of this important committee.

The ECRT (Ethnic Church Resource Training) Program of the General Board of Discipleship provides resources, training, and networking for racial/ethnic leaders in The United Methodist Church. The training program this year was held at Prospect UMC in Pembroke utilizing the theme "Where Do We Go From Here?" on Saturday, May 13, 1989. Bishop Joseph Bethea of Columbia, SC, was the keynote speaker and workshops were held on stewardship, ministry to laity, Christian education and worship. The goal of this program was to equip churches for the service to the people who need it in their communities.

The committee members have been diligent in their efforts to make sure that the mandates of the General Conference are vigorously pursued and that the goal of inclusiveness is kept before the Conference and the local churches.

Our major task should be building up the body of Christ. In some cases building the body may mean adding new programs to serve all who call themselves Methodists or Christians, identifying gaps and initiating ministries to meet these newly defined needs.

When we follow biblical teachings and Conference mandates and respect the worth of others, we take "the road less traveled". That is how we make a difference.

EVANGELISM, BOARD OF

The Board of Evangelism offers this report for the Conference Year 1987-1988. We rejoice in the Lord's faithfulness and confess that as a church we have not always been faithful. Evangelism as ministry reaches into all aspects of the church's life. The Board of Evangelism primarily would like to see more effective ministries within the church community and to the un-churched community. May God in Christ Jesus lead us in this.

One aspect of church effectiveness is reflected in the number of persons brought into a renewed relationship with Jesus Christ within the church. We are pleased to report that our churches in the Conference had 2,988 people make a profession of faith. Our total increase was 8,433 persons. Due to death, removal of members and transfers, our Conference realized a net increase of 1,103 persons. Once again we can rejoice as the Lord increases the vitality of our church. The Board of Evangelism would like for each local church and pastor to simply ask, "Are we doing all we can for the Lord throughout the community in which we live?"

In the past year the Board of Evangelism saw as its primary responsibility to train leaders in evangelism. This was done within the Board through our meetings, Conference Summer School, and Southeastern Jurisdiction and General Church events. Many districts offered workshops in training clergy and laity on evangelism ministries. We have provided, through the Conference Media Center, an extensive collection of resource material for evangelism in the local church.

Once again it is a joy to recommend to the North Carolina Annual Conference the approval of Bobby Tyson and Tommy Tyson as Conference-approved Evangelists. These two men have been busy preaching revivals, leading seminars and prayer groups throughout the year. We encourage the churches of the Conference to call upon them for the church would be richly blessed.

In the Spring of 1988, the Board sponsored our second Camp Meeting. We thank Bishop Minnick for his leadership and support. The attention and care we received from Methodist College was great. Tom Walden and his committee lead us through a time of spiritual renewal and we deeply appreciated the Reverend Cornelius Henderson for being a vehicle for God's Word.

Our Committee on Ethnic Minority Concerns offered two workshops on Evangelism, one for youth and one for adults. The responses were good and we thank the Reverend Bill Cummings for his leadership.

As we enter a new quadrennium, the Board of Evangelism has as its mission, Making Christ Known/Discipling for Service/Living the Faith Through the Holy Spirit. We take seriously the call to "equip the saints". It remains our prayer that we may assist persons within the local church to remain faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

David J. Goehring, Chairperson

HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES, BOARD OF

Increasing demands for services in the area of Health and Welfare make it imperative that our local churches take their responsibilities more seriously. We urge each church to appoint a Health and Welfare chairperson, and ask each pastor to give that person the material in the coordinated mailing which is for that office.

Our January workshops proved to be one of the most valuable methods for disseminating information to the local churches. Since this was the first time this was taught, attendance was low, but participants generally exhibited great enthusiasm and interest, and felt they received a great deal of information.

Members of the Task Force on Ministry with Persons with Handicapping Conditions arranged for signing for the hearing impaired at Annual Conference. They surveyed all pastors to determine what their churches were accomplishing in this field, and to assess their needs. Members were involved in the camping program for mentally retarded, and will continue to publish Handi-news.

Members of the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries attended two training sessions, one at Lake Junaluska, and one in New York. There is a publication in the Methodist Building which acquaints parents of Handicapped children with the proper procedure in making a will so that it benefits the child.

Golden Cross continues to benefit many, and is a real blessing to those who have the misfortune of medical bills which they cannot pay.

Our Health Fair at Annual Conference utilized 32 volunteers, including 3 doctors. 1,074 persons went through the health screening, and 35 were found to have serious problems which demanded immediate attention. $720 was contributed by the Insurance Committee to the Handicapped Campership Fund.

Our relationship statements with The Methodist Home for Children and The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., were reviewed.

Access Sunday is observed only by a few congregations, but is vital to the elderly and physically handicapped being able to worship.

As funds become available there is much interest in expanded programs in the areas of child abuse, alcohol and substance abuse, ways of dealing with aging parents, with emphasis on Alzheimer's disease, and in ministry to persons with AIDS. Support groups are needed for these areas plus families of those who have cancer, who are unemployed, divorced, or have any handicapping condition. Hospice, mental retardation, mental illness, and respite care continue to be real concerns.

Concerns about and concern for senior citizens continue to be one of our most pressing needs. May each of us prayerfully consider in what area of service our talents will be best utilized, and may we with God's help, cheerfully volunteer our services.

Anne Collins, Chairperson

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to those of our fellowship who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of greatest emotional stress and financial need.

This past year (1988) Golden Cross assisted forty-five individuals from twelve districts in our Conference. The total amount of money available for medical assistance was $27,885.31, which included $20,226 budgeted; $1,239 carried over from 1987; $6,000 special appropriation for 1988; and $420.31 from local church donations. The amount of $24,973.39 was approved for assistance. The balance on hand at year's end was $2,911.92. Of this amount, $2,200 was carried over to 1989.

As you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses, encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form.

As part of the North Carolina Conference, you have been gracious in making these funds available for this worthy ministry. The church and its members are grateful for your support in times of extreme need.

The Methodist Home for Children

1989 is the 90th year of services of the Methodist Home for Children. That means that MHC is nearly half as old as our nation. We have learned some things in 90 years. This is what we have learned:

1. We have learned that every child has a family. That sounds self evident, but there was a time when we believed that there were children who had no viable family, who could be better served by disregarding their natural family. We have learned that effective service to any child must include taking seriously that child's family.
2. We have learned that a dysfunctional family is not a worthless family. We live in a society where everyone is for the family, until a family dysfunctions and calls for public help. Then society is not for that family. Direct care for a dysfunctional family tends to imply failure. It is easy for the dysfunctional family to lose confidence. We have learned that there are ways to assist dysfunctional families which build hope rather than despair. The Family Crisis Counselor Program provides this kind of care.
3. We have learned that in order significantly to assist a child in our youth home, we must know where the child will live when he/she leaves our care. We need to know as much as possible about the child's family before admission, so that we can work with the family while we work with the child. Easy and speedy placement of children in out-of-home care without full knowledge of the child's family leads to inappropriate and often unnecessary disruption of families. Our community based network of youth homes enables us to work with children and youth in the vicinity of their families, who are intentionally involved in the process.
4. We have learned that preventing family disruption is important work. Those of us who know how to help families reunite have some good ideas about keeping families together. Our Family Life services are designed to cultivate and strengthen families so that they stay together.
5. We have learned that God's people do have the nerve to change direction. Strategic planning done by the Board of Trustees and the Annual Conference led to the transition from campus-based child centered care to community-based family-centered care for children and youth. That part of our history indicates that the Church is alive and well.

We have learned some things in 90 years, Thank God! It would be a shame to live that long and not learn something. Thank God, too, for faithful Trustees, staff, pastors, lay persons and many other supporters who have the courage to act on 90 years of learning.

Our Record for 1988

The record of our services reflect expansion of the Family Crisis Counselor program to 6 Crisis Counselors serving 21 counties. At present, seven youth homes are operating. The Laurinburg Youth Home at Sneads Grove is temporarily closed. This suspension of services was necessitated because 1) lower than anticipated level of Annual Conference funding now that transition is complete and 2) decline in income from endowment funds caused by the October 1987 market decline.

The Laurinburg Home was chosen for closing because it has been under-utilized. It is our judgment that services are needed in the Rockingham District and in due time full utilization will occur. The short fall in funding, however, made temporary suspension of services necessary. It is our intention to reopen the home July 1, 1989.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

The 1988 year was very busy in our efforts to evaluate the present and the future for operational purposes. The Board has been very active in its work in the governance of the corporation. The industry is continuing to change rapidly with educated and timely decisions needing to be made. The Board make-up is in the first stage of down-sizing from sixty-one trustees to thirty-one trustees by 1993. By-laws have been revised and adopted to reflect more appropriately what board activities are. The philosophy, mission and goals are under evaluation and may require Charter revisions. Much change has taken place in the thirty-four years of operations and an in-depth evaluation is important at this time. Our ministry must be flexible and innovative to be attractive and meaningful to the purpose of our faith and church goals to provide a caring service to our older citizens. No other segment of our population is growing at the rapid pace which is taking place among the older population. At the same time, the needs, desires and life-style of the older citizen in retirement have and are continuing to change. It is the desire of this agency of the church to be a viable organization which can provide the appropriate support to meet all the needs of our residents.

The opportunity to strengthen our place in retirement services is now. It cannot wait and the Board is positioning itself to take appropriate steps to move forward. The full support of every member of the Conference is vital to the success we are to have in the future. Much will also depend on our clergy interest and active support. The ministry to our older population in our retirement communities is as vital as any ministry the Church supports.

We encourage you to involve our trustees and management team in your church programs to keep Conference membership well informed about our retirement agency.

The Durham Retirement Community opened its doors in 1955. Over the years additions have been made to original building, which now houses 100 independent single units and 56 units for assisted living. This building also houses various ancillary support services. Forty-three apartments and thirteen villa units, ranging from 800 square feet to 1,100 square feet, round out our independent living units.

The Joseph F. Coble Health Care Center is fourteen years old and consists of 125 licensed and certified beds. This is our major health support system for our residents when the need arises.

The Durham campus offers a full service approach for its residents in providing for the four levels of care: independent living, assisted living, intermediate care and skilled care. Accommodations are available in all levels and you are invited to inquire about these services for anyone that could be interested. The Durham city and community is very active and can be of much interest to those who wish to participate in the extended community.

In Lumberton, the Wesley Pines Retirement Community was opened in 1977. There are thirty-four independent living units in the main building, twelve apartments, consisting of approximately 1,000 square feet, and three villas, consisting of approximately 1,200 square feet. The support system to independent living consists of fifteen assisted living units, twenty-three intermediate care beds and eighteen skilled care beds. Units are currently available and your inquiry is invited.

A major construction project is underway to enhance our present building and services in skilled and intermediate care. A chapel/all purpose addition is also under way to benefit the total resident population. This is a much needed addition to round out the services needed in the daily living of our retirement population. We seek and need the total support of Conference and the community at-large for this project.

An additional construction project is ready to implement the area of independent living at Wesley Pines. These units are larger than our current units and provide for two spacious, comfortable rooms. This project will be implemented on a pre-sale basis with fifty percent of the units needing to be sold prior to beginning construction. You are invited to make inquiry and to visit.

The Cypress Glen Retirement Community in Greenville is our newest campus, opening in 1987. It is located on 91 acres next to the Tar River and is less than two miles from the campus of East Carolina University. Many cultural and educational opportunities are offered through the university and the community. Greenville is a rapid growing community. The facility features a very modern and spacious building containing eighty-four single and combination units. A licensed healthcare support unit will be operational shortly. This will provide for assisted living and intermediate care support.

Although our census is growing, accommodations are available. All inquiries and visits are welcomed. Plans are underway for a villa unit complex which will contain approximately 1,100 square feet per unit with a carport or garage. Initial occupants will be involved for input of ideas and suggestions in the initial construction.

Our total programs are providing retirement and support services to four hundred and thirty residents. We encourage you to become involved in this ministry, either as a resident or an interested supporter. Your financial support and your caring provides the assistance needed for this agency of our Church to continue to meet the needs of our older population. We invite you to become involved with us as we meet the challenge.

L. Amos Tinnell, Executive Director

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is pleased to report that the church-related colleges and universities and the various campus ministry locations in thirteen public university campuses have experienced banner years. Record enrollments (reflected in the numerical portion of this report), significant debt reduction (as shown in the individual college reports to the Boards), new and much-needed construction on many of the campuses, higher levels of community support, both financial and moral, higher faculty salaries, greater increased number of people using the colleges facilities, and a general feeling of well-being on each campus-all support the belief of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that higher education and campus ministry are true to their mission and faithful to their tasks.

Each of the colleges:

1. has significant programs of financial aid.
2. is fully accredited by regional and national agencies.
3. relates to the church in numerous ways, such as: providing scholarships to United Methodist students; hosting church events on campus; making faculty and staff available to local churches; sending deputation teams or singing/drama groups to visit churches; and doing community or international service projects.
4. offers courses in religion, with majors in that area.
5. shows a special quality of care for students through chaplain's programs, as well as through dormitory life and resident advisors, faculty commitment to students, special programs and performances, and counseling services.
6. practices academic excellence, with many graduates accepted into graduate and or professional programs.
7. has diversity in its student mix-from near and far away, from different income levels, foreign and American, Black, Native American, Asian, Hispanic and White.
8. produces many of the leaders in our churches, cities and our state. Clergy and laity, both find our colleges a first step toward making a contribution to the world. Each one shares with the others a common commitment to the wholeness of the person and to values of the church.

On thirteen public university or college campuses in North Carolina, The United Methodist Church presence is felt at Wesley Foundations, ecumenical groupings, or city-wide college associations. The dedication of the ministers who serve in these important posts is unparalleled. There is a resurgence of the Christian movement in public university campuses, and this is due, in large measure, to the campus ministry efforts of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

The Conference Board is, indeed, pleased to make this report. Our gratitude goes to the Conference for its continuing support. But to God goes the glory as we prepare the student to enter the world of work with a fixed and steady purpose to serve God and humankind.

Campus Ministry, State Commission On

The Commission is supporting ministries on fifteen college and university campuses. Another excellent state student conference was held this year and 105 students from North Carolina attended the SEJ-SCJ student conference in New Orleans in January. A wide variety of programs is offered by our campus ministers.

Three delegates from each conference participated in the National Student Forum in May at Millsaps College.

Plans are being made for the expansion of the facilities of the ministry at Western Carolina University and the relocation of the facilities at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, the latter necessitated by the University's acquisition of our present property.

The State Commission urges local churches to observe Student Day and to give generously to the United Methodist Student Loan Program. This program could be greatly expanded if funds were available. With fewer government loans available, this need is urgent.

Paul D. Lowder, Chairperson

The Divinity School of Duke University

Fall semester 1988 was marked with the largest entering class in the history of Duke Divinity School, bringing our total enrollment to 472 (317 M.Div., 25, M.T.S., 16 M.R.E., 19 Th.M., 16 special students, 80 doctoral students). The one-year Master of Theological Studies program graduated its first class last spring, and enrollment for this degree is increasing.

The 1988-1989 year marks the 150th anniversary of Duke University. Union Institute, founded by Methodists and Quakers in Randolph County, North Carolina in 1838, was reincorporated as Normal College in 1851. It was the Methodist Church that saved Normal College from financial ruin, thereby founding Trinity College, and a Methodist, James B. Duke, who endowed Trinity College to become Duke University. It was the Divinity School (then known as the School of Religion) that became the first of the University's professional schools to open in 1926.

Duke University, from its beginning, was meant to stand for the union of education and religion. The Divinity School stands within this tradition. as a school of the Church, it prepares men and women for ministry, and as a school of the university, it trains students through rigorous practice of the academic disciplines. The Divinity School witnesses to the Gospel of Christ in an age of increasing secularism and materialism. This historic witness of the School owes its existence to the generosity of the Methodist Church. Through the loyal support of the Ministerial Education Fund, the Divinity School can continue this vital mission.

The Divinity School announces for the spring of 1990, a part-time, two year Master of Theology (Th.M.) program in Wesleyan Studies. The Divinity School, in keeping with its long-standing commitment to Methodism, undertakes this degree program as an experiment in continuing education for clergy in the Wesleyan family of denominations. The Th.M. in Wesleyan Studies is a program of eight advanced academic courses taught on Monday of each week, capped by a thesis or comprehensive examination. Classes will be limited to fifteen students. Faculty participants include Geoffrey Wainwright, Thomas Langford, Teresa Berger, Ted Campbell, Carol Noren, Grant Shockley, Robert Wilson, William Turner and Russell Richey. Among the subjects taught will be the Wesley hymns, the English Church in the 18th century, roots of evangelicalism, issues in the Wesleyan theological tradition, preaching in the Wesleyan tradition, studies in American Methodism, Black Methodism, and the theology of Pentecostalism. The Divinity School intends to launch a successor Th.M.-two-year-venture in a field of comparable appeal; possibilities include a Th.M. in pastoral theology or in biblical studies.

A "trial-year seminary grant," part of a program of the Association of United Methodist Theological Schools and funded in part by the Lilly Endowment, offers a full tuition grant plus living stipend for persons interested in exploring theological education and the ordained ministry. This grant, similar to the Rockefeller grants of the 1960s, is part of our effort to recruit the best and brightest for the ordained ministry.

HUNGER/HUMAN NEED, TASK FORCE ON

Information from the Board of Global ministries indicates the following from our Conference in 1988:

World Hunger Poverty	$37,076.82
Church World Service Hunger . .	560.92
CROP	24,525.27
Heifer Projects International (3) . .	8,535.95
Undesignated	14,543.58
Total	$91,584.45

Within these contributions are the arms and hearts of the people of our Conference, for in them we have reached far and wide to help the needy!

While the economy coupled with short-falls of Federal funds is of great concern in eastern North Carolina, perhaps the major symptoms of that economy are the great increases in both the homeless and in those who are victims of physical abuse. Also, tied to those increases are those who thereby suffer from improper nutrition.

Because of these needs, the Hunger/Human Need Task Force accepted 96 grant applications (totalling $263,500) from projects across our Conference. Funds graciously allocated by the CFA ($103,584) were awarded to the 96 projects, with an average award of 39.3%. Because of the generosity of the Conference, and because of CFA's careful management and commitment to ministry, 21 outlets for food and meals, 14 shelters for the homeless, 13 shelters for the violently abused, and 7 Hospice activities were among those funded projects.

Again, these grants have reaped the harvest of hundreds of volunteer hours, as the majority of the funding is used for direct support of the needy. Many new personal ministries have flourished; community churches of almost all denominations have banded together to serve as Christ's universal Church!

While other programs may someday supercede this work, none will more effectively strike at the needs that are so close to home! Thanks again, people of the North Carolina Conference, from your Task Force, and from those whom you have served!

LAITY, BOARD OF

In the first year of a new quadrennium the Board of Laity had been established by prior boards. Previous programs were evaluated in an attempt to increase the opportunities for lay ministry and to serve the Laity of our Conference in a more effective way. Currently, the Board has four standing subcommittees to deal with its main areas of work - January Workshop, Lay Speaking, Lay Shepherding, and Spiritual Formation.

The January Workshops were well attended (3100) and provided excellent training for local church leaders. The planning for the 1990 January Workshops is under way and we utilized the evaluations from 1989 workshops. Some modifications will be made that will improve the workshops.

The Lay Speaking Program has continued to furnish additional training at the basic and advanced levels for the Laity. The basic training and some of the advanced training has been offered at the district level. Advanced training for Certified Lay Speakers has continued to be included in Conference Summer School.

Conference Summer School provides intensive training for both clergy and laity, as well as a special time of Christian fellowship.

Recognition of Lay Persons of the Year is encouraged in all local churches. District Lay Persons are selected from this group and the Conference Lay Person of the Year is chosen by the Board from the District Lay Persons. This program is to recognize the Christian ministry, witness, and leadership of the Laity and to encourage the active participation of all United Methodists in the ministry of all believers.

District Lay Rallies continue to be well attended, to be moments of inspiration and fellowship, and to be a time to honor the outstanding Laity across the districts.

We give thanks for the commitment and involvement of the Laity and their influence in the life of the Church and the communities in which they live. The Board of Laity will continue to support, encourage, and enable their ministry.

MISSIONS, BOARD OF

With the Conference acceptance of the Spirit for Tomorrow Capital Funds Campaign came not only the excitement of the possibilities for establishing new churches, but also the sobering responsibilities of setting guidelines for equitable and just distribution and investment of funds by this Board. Energized by many challenges, we have endeavored to operate in the present, with a visionary approach to the future as we seek, with the members of this Conference, to be God's instrument in mission in this time and place.

Church Extension
This committee created uniform guidelines for churches requesting funding in its Procedures for Developing a Mission Design Proposal for New Congregations. The proposal concerns:

1. New Congregations - Unchartered new congregational projects, to be organized without prior congregation, assets or pastoral leadership. A new congregation will be funded by the Church Extension Committee for a period not to exceed five years from January 1 of the year following the initial appointment of a pastor.
2. New Congregations with Special Needs - Unchartered new congregational projects to be organized without prior congregation, assets or pastoral leadership. A new congregation with special needs will be funded by the Church Extension Committee for a period not to exceed 10 years from January 1 of the year following the initial appointment of a pastor. Special needs shall be defined as having a target population that is economically deprived and/or a parish area that is sparsely populated.
3. Existing Congregations - Chartered congregations that are located in areas of rapidly growing and/or changing populations. These projects will be funded by the Church Extension Committee for a period not to exceed five years from January 1 of the year following the initial grant.

The requirements of the proposal represent a uniform process of study and evaluation which must be completed before applications are considered for funding. These include: (a) a complete listing of all assets, material and non-material; (b) demographic analysis of the community; (c) formulation of primary objectives with time guidelines; and (d) an action plan for implementation of objectives.

These guidelines were approved by the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, December 14, 1988, and were presented to Bishop Minnick and the Cabinet on December 16, 1988.

All churches currently receiving funding for Pastor's Salary have been corresponded with and are classified in two designations: New Churches and Emerging Congregations. A plan was tailored for each church, enabling it to conform to the five year rule.

This committee continues to administer the Ten Dollar Club and make site reviews of land for new churches.

Church Extension - Volunteers in Mission Resolution

The Board of Missions, Inc., meeting on March 4, 1989, in Raleigh, North Carolina, adopted and spread on its minutes the following resolution:

FOR AS MUCH AS the North Carolina Annual Conference has embarked on a large campaign to establish new congregations necessitating the construction of a number of new church buildings; and

WHEREAS the cost of construction has continued to escalate, making it difficult for congregations to build buildings, and

WHEREAS small congregations are not always able to get competitive bids for construction; and

WHEREAS the Western North Carolina Annual Conference has employed for a number of years a Construction Superintendent who has built a number of churches, saving hundreds of thousands of dollars, indicating that such a program can be successful.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Board of Missions, Inc. employ a person who has experience and expertise in building to become a Conference Construction Superintendent for the Board of Missions, Inc.

BE IT THEREFORE FURTHER RESOLVED that this person will be responsible for the construction of as many projects as can be accepted. The Conference Construction Superintendent also will supervise work teams who agree to participate in any project.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Conference Construction Superintendent be responsible to a committee appointed by the Board of Missions, Inc.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Board of Missions, Inc. set a budget of $55,000 for the salary, fringe benefits and other necessary support of this office, including any secretarial services. Funding of the Conference Construction Superintendent will be provided by the Board of Missions, Inc.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each church using the services of the Conference Construction Superintendent reimburse the Board of Missions, Inc. at the rate of 3% of the cost of the project to help defray the expenses of the Conference Construction Superintendent position.

Volunteers in Mission

Nineteen work teams comprised of 233 individuals were coordinated by this committee and sent to many places to offer friendship and a helping hand. These include: three conference teams to Mexico, Costa Rica and Haiti; two Wesley Foundation-Raleigh teams to Mexico; two Wesley Foundation-Greenville teams to Mexico; one Wesley Foundation-UNC - Chapel Hill team to Four Corners Indian Mission. Also included were local church or district teams, of which three went to Jamaica, two to Mexico, one to Brazil and one to Honduras. In-country teams included two to Claflin College in South Carolina, one to an Appalachia Service Project and one to Yanceyville for emergency house repairs.

Out-of-country teams constructed churches and parsonages and repaired hurricane-damaged roofs. One team of five women went to Jamaica to teach quilting. Jamaican women will turn this skill into a cottage industry to provide much needed income.

Efforts by this committee to obtain accurate records indicate that 19 other local church or district teams of volunteers were sent by our Conference during 1988.

Following the devastation of Hurricane Gilbert, this committee spearheaded a Conference effort to get food and building supplies to Jamaica by truck and oceanliner. Beyond the intense feelings of gratitude felt in the accomplishment of helping the suffering, the strength of our connectional system surfaced as we transported building supplies for the North Central Jurisdiction, and the Miami Conference helped us to solve a problem in their area.

Education/Cultivation

The year 1988 was The Year of the Advance and our Conference celebrated the fortieth anniversary of that avenue for second-mile giving with a spirited rally at St. Paul UMC in Goldsboro on March 19. Bishop C.P. Minnick, Jr. brought the message, Lily Chou and Philip Cartwright shared inspiration, music and testimonies, and an Advance Special

Smorgasboard led by both clergy and laity provided information, motivation and inspiration to the near-capacity crowd.

Stimulated by the events of that day, local churches in our Conference increased their Advance Special giving in World Division, National Division and UMCOR by 6.4% over last year. There was an 11.1% increase in the Conference Advance Special giving.

Our giving to the Advance for 1988 was as follows:

World Division	$241,726
National Division	$34,358
UMCOR	$134,573
Conference Advance	$105,044

Nineteen eighty-eight also brought with it an idea for a new approach to Advance Special giving. This concept, that of Rainbow Covenant Congregations, will be presented at the 1989 Annual Conference in Fayetteville.

Ruth-Esther, Faces of Poverty in Our Midst, and South Africa were the three mission studies of The United Methodist Church for 1988-89. Nine hundred fifty-four mission studies were conducted during the 1988 year.

Church and Community

In 1988 we processed an application for a new worker for the Goldsboro Migrant Ministry. This application is now before the National Division. We continue to support the work of Richard Connelly, Brenda Connelly (both employed by the Robeson County Church and Community Center) and Shirley Townsend-Jones (employed by the Black Church and Community Development Program).

Our Urban sub-committee is making plans to host the 1989 session of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Urban Workers Network annual meeting in Raleigh. This meeting will see Church and Community Workers and Urban Missionaries from across the Southeast gather for inspiration and instruction.

Our Ethnic Minority Local Church sub-committee is supporting the Ethnic Church Resource and Training Program event scheduled this spring.

This committee receives applications for "seed money" grants in the summer of each year to be approved and awarded semi-annually. These grants are divided into the three areas of our sub-committees: Town and Country, Ethnic Minority Local Church and Urban. In the spring of 1989, grant applications will be available through the Conference Coordinated Mailing. During the summer, our sub-committees will do on-site visitation of the applying projects. In the fall, our committee will interview representatives from the applying projects and assign appropriate grants.

Our first Board meeting was held at Camp Rockfish, quite appropriately since we share benefits and responsibilities of the fund campaign this year. After dealing with business on paper the first day, we arose the next morning to paint and do repair work at the camp. Whether it is helping build churches, educating, making grants, or using a paint brush; whether it is in service here or overseas, all is achieved through God's grace and the support and efforts of the caring people of the North Carolina Conference.

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

"Find Yourself in Camping" is the theme that you have heard the camping ministry program of our Conference use during the past year. Our purpose is to help individuals--children, youth, and adult--find Jesus Christ as we encounter the Lord in the out-of-doors. At Camp Chestnut Ridge, Camp Don-Lee, Camp Kerr Lake, and Camp Rockfish, the NC Conference's camping program has helped others find themselves with the Lord on many different occasions in many different ways.

Last year over 19,000 people used our camps. Summer resident campers totaled 1,820, with occupancy averaging 87 per cent. Camp usage also includes an ever increasing number of retreat users, specialty camps, day camping, and local church programs. Camper days (the number of people who used a camp times the number of days that they were in camp), a method of measurement often cited as the best estimate of camp utilization, totaled 55,552, up from 50,789 in 1987. These usage rates mean that our camping ministry program reaches perhaps the largest number of people in the Church's name of any of our on-going Conference programs!

Whether it was at summer camp or in another setting, the setting of camp allows us to meet God. There, in God's creation, we are intimately known. Read what one camper wrote:

Dear God,

In last night's vespers they were talking about me. Everything they said was about me. People say it's going to pass, but right now that doesn't look true. Please God, help me.

At camp, we discover that our God does indeed help.

"Finding ourselves at camp" has meant that the Commission has spent much of the past year planning to utilize the gifts received for camp improvement from the Spirit For Tomorrow Campaign. We are excited about the possibilities for the future now open to us! Improved facilities will enable us to better meet the needs of adults, families, and church groups who retreat at our camps. Presently we are working with architects to draw preliminary plans for the renovation of existing facilities and the building of the new ones already presented to the Annual Conference. Next year there will be marvelous news to tell about our progress!

The facilities we have provide only the place where the Church's ministry is done. Our camping ministry is carried out by a prayerfully planned program of Christian nurture, ably led by committed Christian Leaders. Mrs. Jan Thomas, Manager/Director of Camp Chestnut Ridge resigned her post in February 1989 to accept a new directorship. The Commission gratefully notes the power and progress with which Jan's ministry has blessed Chestnut Ridge. We wish godspeed in her future work. We are pleased to have The Reverend Robert Ray as our Interim Director through August 31, 1989. A permanent director will be on-site as of September 1. We also gladly thank all those who have contributed to the success of the past year: The Reverend John Farmer, Manager/Director of Camp Don-Lee; Mr. Bob Pryor, Manager/Director of Camp Rockfish; the other staff people of each camp; and The Associate Director for Outdoor and Camping Ministries, The Reverend G. Paul Phillips III.

In one participant's words, our Conference's campaign program brings "the reality that Jesus is love" into our lives.

PUBLICATION, METHODIST BOARD OF

I am delighted to bring another good report about the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the ministry which it represents.

Everywhere I travel across the state I receive enthusiastic approval of the Advocate. Repeatedly our subscribers tell me they "can't wait to get the Advocate," reading it from cover to cover. We are extremely pleased with this support. However, the Advocate is designed to reach a wider audience than that represented by our most interested church members. Each week the Advocate has devotional pieces that would be of interest to a wide variety of readers, including those who, at present, may only attend worship services or Sunday School sporadically. These latter folk will profit greatly by reading the Advocate. While we very much need our committed readers who stick with us year in and year out to sustain this ministry, we also need to expand this readership base to include many others who need to be drawn into this more committed fellowship. This is what we might call the out-reach ministry of the Advocate: turning lukewarm church members into flaming fires of faith. In this regard the Advocate is also an excellent evangelistic instrument to reach those beyond the circle of the church's immediate family.

Building a readership base is a task that requires patience on everyone's part. The ministers and Advocate representatives in the local churches must be persistent in pursuing potential subscribers. Even interested readers may not automatically renew their subscriptions. But where the pastor and his or her lay helpers consistently seek subscribers year in and year out, we build in those churches excellent list of subscribers. It seems once we get a reader solidly "hooked" that reader is going to renew consistently, rejoicing in the good news the Advocate brings.

Now about the Advocate's endowment fund. We have been exceedingly successful in securing a broad number of persons who have and are, participating--some on a regular basis--in our endowment effort. We now need to add to these faithful, broad-based contributors, a few individuals who have the capability of making really sizeable contributions to the endowment fund. We read regularly of individuals who contribute $50,000 or $100,000, of even $1 million or more to a charity of their choice. We very much need to tap this level of giving as we face mounting postal costs and normal increased costs of publishing the Advocate. We need a stepped-up emphasis on sizeable endowment contributions that can give this ministry the kind of secure financial future it deserves.

Our endowment fund, as of Dec. 31, 1988 stood at $342,302.31 with $166,706.68 being in our Thomas J. Finch Memorial Fund, and $175,595.63 being in our Methodist Board of Publication Fund.

Raising our circulation figures is very much like raising endowment funds. All it requires is enthusiasm. Enthusiasm is very contagious. If we all enthusiastically resolve to increase our circulation and endowment fund, fully committed to and excited about the challenge this represents, nothing can stop us. He who is in us is certainly greater than he who is in the world. We are maintaining a good circulation base in both conferences with great potential just waiting to be tapped. At present we have 10,143 subscribers in the Western North Carolina Conference and 6,522 in the North Carolina Conference for a total of 16,665. We need to remember that the Advocate readership is at least three times the number of our subscribers. We are happy to announce that the Advocate received high marks in a recent readership survey conducted by KPC Research of Charlotte, the same organization which has done surveys for the Greensboro News & Record and the North Carolina Catholic.

We are in good shape at the Advocate. We've long since left the launching pad. Now all we need to do is turn on the after burners to speed us into the future. I have personally never been more enthusiastic about the Advocate than I am today. It plays an absolutely vital role in the life of our two conferences. For most of our subscribers it is their only link with the wider church beyond their local scene. This is an Information Age and the Advocate is an instrument par excellence to carry its proper share of this information responsibility. I am delighted to be the editor/manger of the Advocate and solicit everyone's most enthusiastic support for this front-line support ministry in the renewal of our church and the spread of the Gospel in North Carolina and thence to the ends of the earth.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

"Racism is the combination of the power to dominate by one race over other races and a value system which assumes that the dominant race is innately superior to the others. Racism includes both personal and institutional racism... Therefore, we recognize racism as sin and affirm the ultimate and temporal worth of all persons." (Social Principles, p. 97, The Book of Discipline, 1988)

The Commission on Religion and Race of the North Carolina Annual Conference affirms this statement of our great church and have dedicated ourselves to the elimination of the sin of racism.

The 1988 Book of Discipline requires that one of the primary duties of the Commission on Religion and Race be that of the monitoring agency of our Annual Conference. It is our responsibility to monitor the ethnic representation of each of our Conference boards, agencies, and commissions, as well as the governing boards, clientele, and employment of our related institutions, such as colleges, hospitals, retirement homes, and children's homes. The Commission on Religion and Race is to report these findings to the Annual Conference. To meet this requirement of monitoring, the Commission on Religion and Race sent Visitation Teams consisting of two or three members of the Commission to the following organizations: The Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh; The Methodist Retirement Homes, Durham; The Methodist Retirement Homes, Greenville; The Methodist Retirement Homes, Lumberton; Duke University, Durham; Louisburg College, Louisburg; Methodist College, Fayetteville; North Carolina Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount; Cokesbury Bookstore, Raleigh; Each Board and Commission of the Annual Conference; North Carolina Annual Conference Offices - Bishop's Office, Camping Ministries Office, Conference Secretary's Office, Council on Ministries Office, Treasurer's Office.

The Commission on Religion and Race is also required to report their findings to the Annual Conference. In fulfillment of this disciplinary requirement, the Commission on Religion and Race present the following report:

We are pleased to report that the Visitation Teams were very warmly welcomed by all agencies visited. Based on our past and current visits, all the colleges and institutions have made efforts to be intentional in eliminating racism in their organizations. All of them seem to be far more sensitive to the issues at hand. And each of them received our encouragements to be even more open to eliminating racism in the present and the future.

While there has been much improvement over the past couple of quadrennia, there is still very much to be done in this area of eradicating racism within our lives and our organizations. While many ethnic minorities have obtained jobs with our various colleges and institutions, the majority of the jobs held by these individuals appear to be in maintenance-type or entry level positions. Very few ethnic individuals have managed to be promoted or hired into administrative positions in our colleges and institutions.

This practice of hiring most of the ethnic individuals in lower-level-only positions raises the question of how genuine the effort to be intentional in their hiring practices these organizations have been. We commend the colleges and institutions for their efforts in this area, but we also challenge them in two areas.

First, we challenge them to be very intentional in their hiring practices at all levels of their organizations. We believe that there are qualified people available for administrative positions within our colleges and institutions.

Secondly, we challenge them to be very intentional in their recruitment of minority residents. Their reports indicate that they could be doing a much better job in this area. We encourage them to be open to minority recruitment for residents.

A very similar issue can be raised in our own Conference in the nomination process for our Conference agencies, boards, and commissions. The following chart is the statistical breakdown of our major boards and agencies:

BOARD/AGENCY	ETHNIC/TOTAL MEMBERS	% ETHNIC
Archives & History	2/18	11%
Christ. Unity & Interel. Concerns	2/17	12%
Church & Society	4/30	13%
Diaconal Ministry	2/18	11%

Education	5/33	15%
Episcopacy	4/17	24%
Equitable Salaries	2/14	14%
Evangelism	4/30	13%
Finance & Admin.	3/23	13%
Health & Welfare	2/20	10%
Higher Ed & Campus Ministry	5/30	17%
Laity	3/40	8%
Missions	3/30	10%
Ordained Ministry	2/30	7%
Outdoor and Camping	1/30	3%
Pensions	3/18	17%
Religion & Race	13/24	54%
Status & Role of Women	2/21	9%
Trustees	2/12	17%
Stewardship	4/30	13%
Worship	3/19	16%

As in the case of the colleges and institutions, there appears to be a problem within our own various Conference agencies, boards, and commissions. While the Conference Committee on Nominations was careful to try and balance each board/agency to maintain racial and gender inclusiveness, it does not appear that the Conference's agencies, boards, and commissions were as careful in electing the balanced leadership as they had committed themselves to being in their reports to the 1988 Annual Conference listed in the booklet, 1988 Agency Plans For Racial And Gender Inclusiveness Among Chairpersons.

There were ethnic persons who were elected to secretary and vice-chairperson positions among our Conference agencies, boards, and commissions. For this we are thankful. However, there were only two ethnic persons elected as chairpersons among all of our Conference's agencies, boards, and commissions.

The Commission on Religion and Race raises two heartfelt questions to our Conference, "Why are there so few ethnic chairpersons?" And the second question, "Isn't there a better way of assuring ethnic leadership among some of our agencies, boards, and commissions?"

This leads us to another question. In the case of our colleges and institutions, as well as our Conference's agencies, boards, and commissions, is racism still shaping our choices of leaders? While we can not definitely answer this question, observing their actions seems to imply that a positive answer to this question might be the correct answer.

In a meeting with our Bishop and Cabinet, the Commission on Religion and Race raised the issue of a "Fair Open Itinerancy." Fair in the sense of comparable ministers being involved. Open in the sense of ministers being appointable to any church without regards to race or gender. The Commission on Religion and Race appreciates the sensitivity of our Bishop and Cabinet in this issue.

However, we call upon the Bishop and Cabinet not only to be sensitive to the issue but also to lead us quickly towards the day when any church can be led by any pastor. The North Carolina Annual Conference needs the sensitive and caring leadership of our Bishop and Cabinet in this issue. But we believe that it is past time that we stop being simply sensitive about this issue and put some action to our sensitivity by developing a comprehensive program that would allow the North Carolina Annual Conference to be a role model in overcoming the sin of racism within The United Methodist Church. To this end, the commission on Religion and Race stands ready to assist in the development of such a program.

The Commission on Religion and Race also encourages the appointment of an ethnic person to the Cabinet at the earliest possible time.

Three of the members of the Commission on Religion and Race and a number of other members of our conference took part in the SEJ Convocation on Racism at Lake Junaluska, November 8-10, 1988. We were encouraged and challenged by the leadership of this Convocation. And we encourage the careful study of the report developed by the work team during that time frame. Let us not forget it.

The Commission on Religion and Race makes available occasional scholarship aid to provide a channel of assistance to individuals and groups seeking to receive training to develop programs of empowerment and ministry to their communities.

The Commission on Religion and Race challenges the North Carolina Annual Conference to be aware that racism in any form (attitudinal, behavioral, or institutional) IS SIN. As a body of believers in Jesus Christ, we are called to affirm the ultimate and temporal worth of all persons. Racism denies that God has ordained all people as one, that we are brothers and sisters in Christ. It is unfortunate that for far too many people the church still remains "The Last Great Bastion of Racism." The Commission on Religion and Race believes that inclusiveness at all levels of our conference and lives is obtainable. And to this end, we are working.

The Commission on Religion and Race calls upon the pastors and lay members of this conference to examine their own hearts and to confront their own racism as the sin it is. We urge the pastors of our conference to lead their people in confronting racism as a sin. We urge the Bishop and Cabinet to hold us accountable for confronting racism as sin in our local churches. And we urge the Bishop and Cabinet to model this inclusiveness for our Conference in their own actions, decisions and appointments.

Giant strides have been made towards making the North Carolina Annual Conference an excellent conference in this area. But the journey is far from being over. Let us not be guilty of resting on our past accomplishments. Rather, let us continue to press on towards the goal of eradicating the sin of racism.

H. Warren Casiday, Chairperson

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

The North Carolina Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women was organized in the organizational meeting of the Conference in July of 1988. An executive committee was established and representatives to other Conference agencies were chosen. The executive committee met in August to outline responsibilities and to consider funding requests. The Commission spent time during the September meeting to write program recommendations for 1990.

The Commission began its work in 1989 with a leadership training session conducted by the chairperson, Bernice Johnson. District representatives were given sheets of specific responsibilities to study. The leaflet Today's Phoebe was also distributed and discussed. The Commission in 1989 will focus particular attention to the work of District Representatives as key links in the work of the Commission for this quadrennium.

The Commission will continue many of the traditions of the past, but will also add other foci to its work. Particular concern will be focused on Ethnic Minority Local Church concerns, Lay women as well as Clergy women concerns, the development of resources that will strengthen the work of the Commission in the local churches and in districts, and educational techniques that will explain the true work of the Commission. The Commission will continue to monitor, advocate, and serve as catalyst in the Conference; however, efforts will be stronger, more intentional, and well focused. The first priority is to work toward implementation of the program recommendations for 1989; "Clergy Women in the Pulpit Sunday," "Child Care during local, district, and conference meeting," "inclusiveness in language/worship aids," "after school programs for elementary aged children," and a seminar on "Retirement Concerns and Needs of Women."

The Commission is continuing its membership in the Council for Social Legislation. Four members of the Commission have been appointed to serve on committees for the Council: Catharine Vick, Rachel Moser, Lehman Johnson and Penny Farmer. Members of the Commission are actively participating in workshops in local areas.

It was the chairperson's privilege to attend the Jurisdictional Training and Convocation on Racism at Lake Junaluska in November, 1988. At that time we worked through many processes that will enable me to facilitate the working of the Commission for this quadrennial. It is our hope that the North Carolina Conference will reflect the Gospel mandate of Love, Mercy, and Justice for all during this quadrennial. It will be our task to facilitate this effort and with God's help we shall.

Bernice D. Johnson, Chairperson

STEWARDSHIP, BOARD OF

Vital Congregations <= > Faithful Disciples is the heart of the reason for being of the Board of Stewardship. Each district has a lay person and a clergy person who are trained and ready to resource and help equip local churches for stewardship ministry. The Conference initiative of vitalizing congregations is of exceptional concern to the Board of Stewardship. One of K. Callahan's twelve keys is "Strong Stewardship Emphasis in Local Church". The Board of Stewardship is ready to help in the following ways:

1. 1989 designated as "Year of the Tithe" Resources are available to help promote the tithe for every local United Methodist. List of resources can be obtained from your district stewardship persons.
2. Presently there are eight local church consultants who have received special training to help local churches. At a local church's invitation these persons will come to your church and help you plan ways of meeting your specific stewardship/financial needs. There is no cost for this initial meeting. Should additional meetings be needed, the local church may be asked to provide travel costs on a mileage basis. Mr. Bill Norton, associate director of the CCOM, is the contact person.
3. Our Conference has one stewardship associate, the Reverend Bruce Taylor. A stewardship associate has received extensive training through the Board of Discipleship and is available to come to your church as his time permits. This person has a grasp of broad resources available, and programs that have worked in other annual conferences.
4. Our staff person, Mr. Bill Norton, associate director of CCOM, is ready to assist your church in resourcing your needs with: trained persons, media materials, and samples of printed materials. He is located in the United Methodist Building.
5. The Reverend Douglas Byrd is the executive vice-president of the United Methodist Foundation. He is ready to assist individuals and local churches in setting up: an endowment program, having a gifts and wills seminar, planning for investments that will benefit the mission and ministry of The United Methodist Church. His office is in the United Methodist Building.
6. Two new video resources have been added to the Media Center. They are:
 - a. "Beyond Mere Words" has been developed with the ethnic minority church in mind, but it is a material that seeks to inspire the church through sharing by people who have been there and desire to practice a living faith.
 - b. "Resources for Christian Stewards" was prepared by the section on stewardship of the Board of Stewardship. Each of our 12 districts has a copy and it is a resource to inform you who is available and what materials are ready from the Church.

Stewardship is a year round program. It is NOT just raising money. It IS a lifestyle that includes all of life's concerns: faithful living, faithful giving, faithful planning, faithful response. The result is a life so filled with vitality that persons are drawn to us to find our secret!

"Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap." Jesus speaking in Luke 6:37-38.

SYSTEMIC POVERTY, TASK FORCE ON

It's great to report on the most important activity of the Conference. Of course that is not a rational or provable statement--but then when the church is being the church it is not obligated to prove anything. The church just IS its mission. Your Task Force on Systemic Poverty is convinced that this task is vital and timely to the life of our church and its mission.

It does not take long after one pauses to begin viewing the plight of the impoverished to begin to feel a sense of helplessness and despair, and yet we also find ourselves with a sense of hope. We are clear that this hope is not a worldly hope based upon any tangible signs. For we are not at all close to having a clear picture of our final report and what actions or recommendations it may contain. This is a hope based on faith and love.

We were organized on December 8, 1988 and have subsequently met five times. We are five women and two men which is appropriate in that women are more likely, in about that ratio, to be living in poverty. We are underrepresented by two other key groupings--minorities and children. How many of you saw the program "1 in 4" on WRAL-TV, Saturday, February 11, 1989? This was a report of an update on their study on children in poverty which they initiated a couple of years ago in a Halifax County community. Or how many of you saw a wire service photo which appeared February 15, 1989 in the Raleigh Times of Jack Kemp, Secretary of HUD, and Mayor Andrew Young, and Congressman John Lewis on a walking tour of housing needs in Atlanta? These two vignettes symbolize perhaps, the chronic needs of these two groupings of our citizens. So the Task Force will need to be especially sensitive on behalf of minorities and our children.

We also feel constrained to say, that if WRAL-TV and Jack Kemp are prepared to be concerned about poverty issues, we are not beginning this effort too soon. It is not at all premature to have this Task Force at work.

As we look around us in our Conference area at the signs of poverty and symptom of underlying needs, we would be remiss if we failed to look within ourselves as individuals and The United Methodist Church. In what ways do the systems of our lives as individuals (most of us are middle class) and the systems of operating our Church tend to perpetuate poverty. Are our "Fair Share" askings as fair as they could be? Are our means of supporting our Clergy and our church staffs the kind of signs that the world could look to as models that tend to enable people to move out of poverty or do we tend to perpetuate an elite? If there are 54 million Methodists world-wide and 15 million United Methodists, I think we will find that all but the latter provide a uniform salary support for their clergy regardless of appointment. If this is true, what does this say about the influence of the UMC in the United States on our society or vice versa.

As we have begun to look at our society, we have developed the following tentative working definition of poverty. "A family living (or sharing resources together) below the poverty level not by choice." Opportunities for them to move out of poverty are limited and may be beyond their control.

The United States is the only country where the largest population in poverty is children. One child in four is born into poverty today, and one child in five will grow up in poverty. Every 53 seconds, one child in the United States dies from a poverty-related cause.

In eastern North Carolina, we find the following facts on poverty:

- 1 in every 5 North Carolinians lives in poverty.
- 4 in every 5 poor households have poor nutrition.
- 1 in 3 poverty households reports difficulty in receiving medical treatment--particularly in rural areas where services are more limited.
- 77% of poor households are headed by persons with less than a high school education. Four out of every 10 have less than an eighth grade education.
- Over half of poverty households are headed by minorities.
- Over half of poor households are headed by women.
- 23% of the elderly in North Carolina are poor.
- 1/3 of poor households live in substandard dwellings. Estimates show that 15-20% of rural homes have no indoor plumbing and water must be hauled from a well or a neighboring home.
- Throughout eastern North Carolina, waiting time for low-income housing ranges from one to five years. All counties have waiting lists.

These statistics are related to the 11.6% of all the families in North Carolina who are categorized as poor, and that 43.8% of these poor families live in eastern North Carolina. (These statistics have been taken from Poverty in the East by the North Carolina Poverty Project, 1988).

What shall be the response of The United Methodist Church to these persons? We pledge to seek truthful answers to the questions of the underlying causes of poverty and the systems that tend to perpetuate it. Then we will seek to propose ways and means for faithful people of God to respond. We do not expect our task to be completed in a short time, for we are not asking simple questions of our society and of ourselves. We ask you to support us with your prayers and we will be open to any suggestions for the conduct of our study.

WORSHIP, BOARD OF

As we enter a new quadrennium, the Board of Worship expresses its gratitude to Mrs. Hazel Bryant for her excellent leadership over the past several years. We also continue to develop and share programs and tools to enrich the worship experience of the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The Board was involved in the planning and celebration of worship services at the 1988 Annual Conference. The Reverend Stan Smith, under the guidance of the Board of Worship, helped to make these services run smoothly as a "Steward for Annual Conference." We will continue to provide a steward in the coming years and are grateful for the "ground-breaking" work of Stan.

In 1988 the Board of Worship met to discuss the "vision" that would guide our work over the next four years. Reflecting upon the need for involvement of lay persons in the worship leadership, and the strengthening of worship experiences in churches of small membership and ethnic congregations, we will be focusing on a "hands-on" style of programming over the next four years. The Board of Worship believes that many excellent worship resources are already available. We hope to help congregations discover and strengthen their use of these resources.

On October 29, 1988, the Board of Worship held "The Christian Arts Festival" at St. Pauls UMC in Goldsboro. Attendance was very good and the workshops were excellent. The various workshops emphasized subjects from storytelling to altar interpretation. We once again express our gratitude to all involved in making this a beneficial experience. We plan to offer The Christian Arts Festival again in 1990.

The year 1988 marked the adoption of a new hymnal, The United Methodist Hymnal. As an Annual Conference we are especially proud that three people on the Hymnal Committee are from our Conference, Helen Crotwell, Charles M. Smith, and Harold Jacobs. Over the next two years we will be assisting congregations, pastors, music leaders, and educators in discovering the wonderful resources this new hymnal provides.

We welcome any comments and suggestions from you which may help the Board of Worship better serve the people of The North Carolina Annual Conference.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

Grace and peace from our Lord Jesus Christ to the members and friends of the NC Annual Conference from the District Superintendents who have shared the ministries of our 847 local congregations during the past year. It is a joy, Bishop Minnick, to present these reflections of the work of these churches to this body today, for in them we see the life and vitality of United Methodism across this area of our pastoral responsibility.

This past year has been one of both unusual activity and normal efforts. We have witnessed another year of quiet but effective growth in church membership as pastors and people have witnessed of their love for Jesus Christ to receptive hearts and minds. Mission teams have shared their competence in building along with their concern for the needs of others both here in NC and across the world. The Spirit for Tomorrow became more than just a hope and a dream as pledges and gifts toward our expanded camping and church extension ministries exceeded $8 million. The total outreach funds sent by local churches for denominational causes reached $8.74 million. The United Methodists of eastern NC have neither been asleep nor resting upon past accomplishments!

The cornerstone of the life of the church is evangelism, responding to Jesus' commission to seek and to save the lost of our generation. For our Conference to continue a pattern of growth in a denomination that reports a net loss of membership year by year testifies to the vitality of its evangelistic efforts. This has been accomplished by caring pastors and lay persons who have shared the message of faith in many different ways. Revivals and preaching missions still are popular avenues of outreach in some areas, visitation programs are effective, but continuing research still indicates the most fruitful congregations are those who match a caring attitude toward all persons who are involved in its program with opportunities to meet the spiritual, physical, and social needs of those persons in a variety of ways.

We would recognize a number of churches across the Conference who have been successful in being positive communicators of the Gospel. In receiving persons by profession of faith, our leading congregations are: New Bern: Faith (51), Fayetteville: Haymount (44), Raleigh: Hayes Barton (43), Chapel Hill: University (29), Greenville: Saint James (29), and Wilmington: Wesley Memorial (28). One of the significant marks in the accomplishments of each of these congregations is that there is a strong balance of adult professions of faith that accompany the usual confirmation class group of children and youth.

In the area of net gain we note the following leaders: Raleigh: Asbury (145), Raleigh: North Raleigh (103), Cary: White Plains (98), New Bern: Faith (77), Durham: Epworth (74), Wilmington: Pine Valley (72), Morehead City: First (71), Greenville: Saint James (67), and Fayetteville: Haymount (64). Many other congregations across the Conference had significant membership growth, many in areas where there is not necessarily a corresponding population increase. Of real concern to us all are the numerous congregations that received no new members by profession of faith during the past year, some of whom have not seen any new members in the past few years. Our coming program of revitalization and development can be of some assistance to this particular need.

The stewardship of our people continues to rise as nearly $55 million were raised and spent by the churches during the past year. This represents a significant increase in our per capita giving, but as United Methodists we fall far short of the Biblical teaching of tithing. The percentage of funds spent within the local church continues to increase, a factor that has contributed to the shortfall of benevolent funds in the Annual Conference budget for the past two years. Although giving to benevolent causes outside of the local church increased from $7.072 million in 1987 to $7.427 million in 1988, it represents an actual decrease from 95.5% to 94.1% in the payment of the local church's fair share of our outreach ministries. The Burlington District at 99.2% and the New Bern District at 98.5% were the districts that had the best overall payment of these important funds.

The Spirit for Tomorrow campaign that was adopted at the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference marshalled our efforts in the early part of the year to address the needs of church extension and camping ministries. Examination of the surveys of potential sites for new congregations, the expressed need for meeting the special problems of our small membership churches, and salary support for our young congregations brought an understanding of the challenge before us if we are to continue to be a conference of growth. Revitalization of the present camping facilities that have served us well for thirty years or more with token maintenance, and the vision of additional facilities to broaden the existing programs of our camps, served also to stimulate an awareness of the possibilities for this outdoor ministry. Our people responded with an affirmation of these ministries as over $8 million was given or pledged for this work. We must continue our efforts to insure the realization of these goals by installing a program to deal with any shortfalls of funds that may occur.

Our outdoor and camping commission and mission board have already begun their process of planning and development to put these funds to work as soon as they have been received. Plans for the major renovation work at all four camps were already in place, and some work will have been completed for the 1989 camping season. Consultants are being employed to put into place plans for the construction of the new facilities outlined in the campaign materials to provide additional program possibilities and the retreat opportunities desired by so many of our church groups.

In the Spring our Conference met in special session to hear a proposal to implement a program of congregational development based on a model that calls each congregation to examine itself by factors that are common to growing, developing churches. Enthusiastically we endorsed the program, and with the appointment of its leader at this session of the Annual Conference we will begin a process to intentionally assist nearly 200 churches to be directly affected to make their life and program more effective.

Many of our congregations have been involved in additions to, or renovations of, their facilities. As my colleagues in the Cabinet have reported these to me, I now share them with you:

Burlington - New parsonages: one constructed at Friendship Church and one purchased at Chapel Hill: Amity Church. New fellowship hall, classroom, and office complex constructed at Chapel Hill, Orange Church, Chestnut Ridge Church, and New Sharon Church. New fellowship hall constructed at Cedar Cliff Church. Plans are under way for a new fellowship hall and classroom addition at Hillsborough Church and the addition of new fellowship hall as well, as the renovation of existing facilities, is planned for the Saxapahaw Church.

Durham - The Allensville-Trinity Charge and the Granville Charge renovated their parsonages. A new fellowship hall was constructed at Brookland Church, and a new church school building and fellowship hall was built at Pleasant Green Church. Construction is planned at Helena (sanctuary renovation and expansion of church school building), Henderson: City Road (fellowship hall), Resurrection (first unit of building on newly purchased property), and Stovall (renovation of sanctuary and church school building). Durham: Asbury Temple Church will be moving into the buildings formerly used by Branson UMC.

Elizabeth City - Murfreesboro Church built a new educational building, Saint John's Church (Kinnakeet Charge), Mount Hermon (Pasquotank Charge), and Mount Carmel Church (Mann's Harbor Charge) have new building programs under way. The Edenton Church dedicated their new sanctuary and educational building and has cleared the debt on their parsonage.

Fayetteville - The Korean Church has moved to the Saint Matthews Church, and on the first Sunday of shared space both congregations worshiped together and followed by a Korean meal.

Goldsboro - Four Oaks Church built a new educational building, and Hickory Grove Church renovated its sanctuary. Providence Church dedicated new stained glass windows, Falling Creek Church erected a new steeple, and Saulston Church built new facilities for its athletic field. Rose Hill began construction of a fellowship hall and office complex, and Westwood Church began construction of a new sanctuary.

Greenville - Greenville: Holy Trinity Church completed a new educational building, and Salem Church is completing three new educational buildings. Westminster Church will begin construction of a new sanctuary. Greenville: Saint James Church completed its new educational building and office complex.

New Bern - Reelsboro Church is to build a new sanctuary and Stonewall Church is planning a new educational building. Pamlico Church is building a fellowship hall and Trenton Church has completed and consecrated a new educational building. Bethlehem Church has renovated the entire plant and Core Creek Church has renovated the parsonage. Both Williston Church and Riverside Church have renovated their sanctuaries and Riverside also has replaced stained glass windows.

Raleigh - New educational buildings were completed for North Raleigh Church, and for Raleigh: Wilson Temple Church. New fellowship halls were completed at Raleigh: Avent Ferry Church and Fuquay Varina Church. Ground was broken for new educational buildings at Raleigh: Benson Memorial Church and Millbrook Church. Raleigh: Asbury Church that suffered severe destruction of its sanctuary and fellowship hall in last November's tornado is planning an enlarged facility during the coming year. New parsonages were purchased or built for Holland's Church, Raleigh: Highland Church, and Raleigh: Saint Mark's Church, while the parsonage for the Bunn-Hill King Charge was extensively renovated. The district parsonage was sold and a new residence has been purchased.

Rockingham - A new sanctuary and enlarged fellowship hall was consecrated at Prospect Church. A fellowship hall and office complex was completed at Laurinburg: First Church, and renovations of the sanctuary and educational building are in progress. Dedications were held for new parsonages at Saint John-Gibson Charge and Zion Church and for the renovated sanctuary at Hamlet: First Church and New Philadelphus Church. A new parsonage at Mount Zion-Wall's Chapel Charge will be consecrated next Sunday.

Rocky Mount - An educational building was consecrated at Rocky Mount: First Church, and a new sanctuary was consecrated at Wilson: First Church. Educational buildings are under construction at Roanoke Rapids: Rosemary Church and Rocky Mount: Englewood Church. A new parsonage is under construction at Evansdale Church. The Black Creek Church is planning sanctuary renovations.

Sanford - Extensive renovations are under way at Mount Gilead Church and Mount Pleasant Church. Smyrna Church is dedicating its renovated and enlarged sanctuary and added educational space this month. The Troy Circuit has purchased a new parsonage, and the Silk Hope Charge is undertaking significant renovations of its parsonage. The district completed and occupied a new district parsonage.

Wilmington - A new sanctuary was consecrated at Wesleyan Chapel, Scotts Hill, and a new fellowship hall and educational building was completed at Southport: Trinity Church. A new parsonage was built and dedicated at Shallotte: Camp Church, a new parsonage was purchased at Wilmington: Fifth Avenue Church, and plans are being developed for a new parsonage at Wilmington: Sunset Park Church. New sanctuaries are being planned for Hampstead Church and Wrightsville Church.

New congregations were organized this year in three areas: Good Shepherd Church in Durham, Grace Church (a result of the Native American initiative) in Fayetteville, and Southeast Raleigh Church. New sites were purchased for recently organized congregations at Cary: Genesis Church, Durham: Resurrection Church, Topsail Island Church, and West Robeson Church. New congregations are planned in the next year at Seaside, utilizing the gift of property in the Spirit for Tomorrow campaign, and a Hispanic ministry in the Sanford District.

The utilization of the talents and skills of our laity is enhanced each year with a variety of training programs, but several districts have been centering their efforts on certified lay speakers. Rockingham, Rocky Mount, Sanford, and Wilmington Districts held events that certified over 200 lay speakers.

Lay Rallies, January Training Workshops, and Christian Workers Schools are all opportunities that develop the potential of our laity and clergy to be better servants of the church. Mission work teams continue to work at home and abroad to combine physical efforts with spiritual witness. Mexico, Jamaica, and Peru received teams of youth and adults to provide basic construction of church facilities, while Robeson County and the Appalachian area hosted work teams that labored essentially to improve the living conditions of area residents. The United Methodists of NC care about the needs of others and are willing to share their lives and resources to help.

Much of our efforts are due to the caring and concerned leadership of our Bishop, C. P. Minnick, Jr., who has given much of himself to every area of our concern. Always willing to listen, Bishop Minnick brings a desire for fairness into all of the decision making efforts of our Conference agencies. We salute him for his love and commitment, and add our words of appreciation for his wife, Mary Ann, who shares his concern and brings warmth and beauty to our Conference. At this time, Martha Brown, president of the Cabinet Spouses, will bring Mary Ann to the stage to be recognized.

We look forward to the future with the strong sense of God's loving presence surrounding our efforts and encouraging us to even greater commitment. The Scriptures remind us of the power that is ours when God's Spirit prevails within us. May His grace and mercy and peace be ours this day and forever.

William W. Sherman, Jr., Cabinet President

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

When Mr. James B. Duke signed the Indenture creating the Duke Endowment on December 11, 1924, it caught the news media and the people in North and South Carolina and the whole country by surprise. The magnitude of the gift was unbelievable.

Those who knew Mr. Duke, however, were not surprised. While he seemed preoccupied with accumulating wealth, which he surely did, there was also in his heart the desire and need to share what he had. William R. Perkins, one of the past presidents of the Trustees of the Duke Endowment, gave an address in Lynchburg, Virginia on October 11, 1929, in which he said, "The Duke Endowment was an expression of the personality of James Buchanan Duke." While it was a surprise to the country, Mr. Perkins said that it should not have been a surprise. Mr. Duke came from a family of benefactors and Mr. Perkins had heard him say on a number of occasions that he wanted to do "big things for God and humanity." Mr. Perkins, who was James B. Duke's personal counsel, indicated after the Indenture had been established that a draft of the document which eventually embodied the Duke Endowment was in his desk drawer for some ten years. Mr. Duke was waiting for the time when he felt financially secure enough to implement the plan.

The Indenture creating The Duke Endowment is a marvelous document. In it Mr. Duke very carefully designs the way money from the trust shall be used. Now sixty-five years later we have come to realize the wisdom that Mr. Duke had, his farsightedness and, of course, his generosity. The document spelled out who the recipients would be and what percentage of the income they were to receive each year.

Mr. Duke specified that beneficiaries as not-for-profit hospitals and child care institutions in the two Carolinas, rural United Methodist churches in the two annual conferences of The United Methodist Church in North Carolina together with retired ministers and widows and children of deceased ministers of those conferences and four educational institutions - Duke University, Davidson College, Furman University and Johnson C. Smith University. In talking about the Indenture, Mr. Duke concluded that he might have extended aid to other causes and to other sections of the country but asserted his belief that, 'so doing probably would be productive of less good by reason of attempting too much." History has sustained Mr. Duke's wisdom in defining very specifically the beneficiaries of the trust.

This report is for the Rural Church Division which administers grants to rural United Methodist churches, superannuated pastors and widows and children of deceased pastors in North Carolina.

Money set aside for rural United Methodist churches is to be used in two ways. Churches involved in building programs, either for renovation or new construction, are eligible to receive grants from The Duke Endowment if certain guidelines are followed. The other category for grants is a Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches. Through this, a variety of projects is undertaken to strengthen and maintain the churches.

One of the relatively new programs of the Rural Church Division is the Weatherization of Rural Churches. On a district-by-district basis, in conjunction with the North Carolina Alternative Energy Corporation, we are working to weatherize as many rural United Methodist churches as possible in the state of North Carolina. Through this program, The Duke Endowment provides the materials for churches to weatherize their buildings. In most cases the members of the churches themselves do the work, with expert guidance from the Alternative Energy Corporation. Thus far in the program, 176 churches have been weatherized. The cost of materials provided by The Duke Endowment has been $348,794.

In May, under the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches Program, a special conference on the "Counseling with Farm Families in Crisis" was held in Durham. With the assistance of the Duke University Divinity School Continuing Education Department, persons from across both annual conferences came to talk about the nature of the rural crisis and how the church might be of help in ministering to the needs of farm people.

The Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment is always ready to assist rural churches as they seek to provide ministry in the state of North Carolina. Listed below are the various categories in which grants are made and the number of churches receiving grants under those programs.

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

Last July at the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference at Lake Junaluska, the NC Conference delegation was relieved, excited, and grateful when the official report of the SEJ Committee on Episcopacy was given and we knew Bishop and Mrs. Minnick would be returning to our Conference for another quadrennium! Having served as a member of that committee in the past, I was well aware "that nothing is over until it is over"!! Bishop Minnick and Mary Ann, perhaps this can be an official "Welcome Back". We are glad that you are still our leadership team!

On October 24, 1988, the Committee on Episcopacy held its organizational meeting at the Methodist Building. Would the members of the Committee who are here, please stand? Robby Lowry was elected Vice-Chair and Camille Yorkey Edwards, Secretary. Eleven of our 17 members were new to our committee. Dr. Allen Norris and Dr. Belton Joyner serve as ex-officio members because of their membership on the SEJ Committee on Episcopacy. In order to build community within our group, we hosted a Christmas Dinner for Bishop and Mrs. Minnick. The members with their "significant other" enjoyed a delightful evening of fellowship and good food. In May, Bishop Minnick and Mary Ann invited us to lunch at the Episcopal Residence. Not only did we enjoy a delightful meal prepared by Mary Ann, but for many this was a first visit to the residence. May we say that it is a lovely home which we can feel proud to call our episcopal residence!

We are well aware of the leadership Bishop Minnick is providing for our Conference - two major areas of emphasis has been the Capital Funds Campaign and our program on Congregational Development and Vitalization which was approved at the called session of our Annual Conference in March. Bishop Minnick is also a gifted teacher as the Bible Study at Annual Conference is one the highlights and attendance at 8:30 a.m. reflects the appreciation of the delegates. His gifts and leadership reaches beyond the bounds of this Conference - he serves as president of the SEJ Administrative Council, president of United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) of the Board of Global Ministries, and he chairs the Committee on Episcopal Initiatives for the Council of Bishops - a strong committee planning to release a letter in 1990 concerning Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples!

The function of the Committee on Episcopacy is outlined in the 1988 Discipline in ¶735.

We ARE the Bishop's Committee and we ARE the Conference Committee! If any of you have concerns that you feel the committee needs to know - PLEASE feel free to contact one of its members. Our fall meeting is scheduled for October 24.

Thank you, Bishop Minnick, for your caring, dedicated leadership. Thank you, Mary Ann, for your gentleness and supportiveness to the Bishop and to the Conference. May God bless each of you during the coming year!

Ruth L. Cade, Chairperson

GENERAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The North Carolina Conference is privileged again this quadrennium to have two members of the General Council of Ministries. Dr. Reginald Ponder was elected at the Jurisdictional Conference to represent the North Carolina Conference and I was elected the General Council on Ministries as a member-at-large. We are grateful for the opportunity to represent you and will try to fulfill our responsibilities in a way that will reflect well on our Conference.

The purpose of the Council is to facilitate the church's program life by encouraging, coordinating and supporting the general agencies as they serve on behalf of our denomination. Linkage is an important responsibility of the members of the General Council on Ministries. We will report to the Conference Council on Ministries as well as the Annual Conference about the work of the general church. We will also be pleased to carry to the General Council on Ministries any suggestions or recommendations from the Conference boards and agencies or from individuals.

I would like to briefly share information about the resources that the General Council on Ministries has made available for the quadrennial them: Celebrate and Witness (Celebrate God's Grace - Witness for Jesus Christ). The resource packet has been mailed to each pastor and is to be shared with the lay leadership of each church. It includes a manual and a logo sheet to be used on letterheads, bulletins, and other publications. United Methodist Communications has available additional copies of the manual, bumper stickers, balloons, lapel pins and baseball caps.

Celebrate and Witness: these are exciting words. We all love to celebrate: birthdays, anniversaries or sometimes we just like to celebrate. As Christians we always have something to celebrate. We have God's grace and his abiding presence that enables us to experience His love each day. That's really something to celebrate. We are witnesses when we see something. We are quick to witness to a friend about a meal in a new restaurant. As Christians we are called to witness to something greater: we are to witness for Jesus Christ. That means sharing God's love with others.

Our prayer is that these resources will be helpful with your congregation as you "Celebrate and Witness: Celebrate God's Grace - Witness for Jesus Christ."

Robby Lowry, Member At Large

LAYPERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

The NC Conference Board of Laity requests that each local church select a Lay Person of the Year and recognize the recipient of this honor on Laity Sunday. There are literally thousands of United Methodists across our Conference that are deserving of this honor. It becomes a very difficult task to select only one person to be so honored in the local church. We realize and emphasize that the lay person being honored is certainly most deserving, but also that in honoring one we are symbolically honoring all laity of that local church.

The criteria that the local church committee uses in making the selection should include: 1) That he or she be a member of the local church. 2) That he or she exemplify personally and professionally a commitment to the Christian way of life. 3) That his or her contribution to the life to the church, the community, state and nation reflects a devotion of self to the service of others. Activities at all levels (local, district, Conference, general, as well as local community) are considered with no particular emphasis on any level or range of levels.

These Local Church Lay Persons of the Year are then nominees for the District Lay Person of the Year in their district. The district selection committee then must struggle with the difficult task of selecting only one person. The Board of Laity is pleased to provide information about these recipients for you in your package of materials and to call their names on the floor of the Annual Conference. Would those present please stand as their name is called.

Burlington - S. T. "Kak" Richmond of Union Grove UMC in Caswell County, Durham - Claude Carmelia of St. Paul UMC in Durham, Elizabeth City - Beverly M. Small, Fayetteville - Tommie Wrench of Roseboro UMC, Goldsboro - Norbert Wilson of First UMC in Mt. Olive, Greenville - Charity Holland of Queen Street UMC in Kinston, New Bern - Stanley Harrell of First UMC in Morehead City, Raleigh - Ray Miller Ritchie of Avent Ferry UMC in Raleigh, Rockingham - Sara Elizabeth "Sara Lib" M. Pate of First UMC in Rowland and Mildred Hayes Depugh of Galilee UMC, Rocky Mount - Gene W. Todd of Scotland Neck UMC, Sanford - L. M. "Red" Lutterloh of Piney Grove UMC, and Wilmington - Dorthea C. Leach of Trinity UMC in Southport.

To each of you, on behalf of the NC Annual Conference, I express appreciation and thanksgiving for your faith and commitment that has been an inspiration to your local church, to your district, to the Board of Laity, and to your Annual Conference. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless you in His service and in the building of His kingdom.

These District Lay Persons of the Year were the nominees for the Conference Lay Person of the Year. The Selection Committee for the Board of Laity then had the task of making a final selection. A selection was finally made and we are very pleased to make this presentation, recognize the 1989 Conference Lay Person of the Year and share some of their ministry and commitment with you.

When there is a human problem, conflict or disturbance in the community, she is always there to help and give needed support in seeking a solution. Because of her involvement and caring nature the Optimist Club of her home town recognized her with a certificate which read: "For devoted and unselfish service to the welfare of the Community and Nation and for the support and cooperation so generously given to further Optimist purposes."

In her local church, she chairs the usher organization, chairs the Administrative Board, is an active and committed member of the Board of Trustees, participates regularly in the mid-week services, is an active Sunday School member, and gives generously to the support of the church budget. In addition she is always ready to do the lion's share in the general church cleaning, and is always hard at work in the kitchen when food is being prepared and served.

Beyond the local church, she supports district and Conference events with her presence and participation. She is a Certified Lay Speaker and participates annually in the district training. She is currently serving as chairperson of the District Committee on Nominations for the United Methodist Women.

She cares deeply about human brokenness, alienation, and suffering. In addition to her untiring efforts to help alleviate human needs through the UMC she also has a personal missions ministry. From her local restaurant, she sends out hot meals daily to shut-ins and senior citizens who otherwise would not have a hot meal. This is done without charge and without any attempt to draw attention to herself. The Greensboro News and Record said, "She can never turn down anyone who needs her help...her home is called the community center." Upon reading about her in the newspaper, Dr. Norman Vincent Peale wrote her a personal letter of appreciation.

Because she displays the honesty, poise, dignity, strength of character and success that most people admire, she is a role model. For this reason, she has had numerous invitations to speak to assembled young people including classes in the local school during Black History Week. A topic she frequently speaks on is "How to be Successful in Life". She has a three-fold plan - loving, giving, and honesty in all relationships.

The Reverend Al Simonton featured her in the NC Christian Advocate and in his article she is referred to as "a human dynamo" and described as one who is "active as opposed to static". The article stated that "her Christian faith radiates through her smile and warms the heart of everyone for she doesn't know a stranger". The article concluded: "As I left Mildred turning eggs on the grill, I had the distinct impression that, while good cooking was certainly going on...there was something else happening that would have pleased her Savior even more: racial harmony, a rare ingredient in a very troubled world."

Mildred Hayes DePugh, it is high privilege for us to recognize you as the 1989 NC Conference Lay Person of the Year. Will you please come to the stage to receive our recognition and a plaque. Also, I would like Mildred's family, her minister, Jimmy Cummings, her District Superintendent, and her District Lay Leader to accompany her.

Robert C. Frazier, Sr., Conference Lay Leader and Board of Laity Chair

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: We, the members of the NC Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, are pleased and privileged to present to you, our brothers and sisters of the NC Annual Conference, our report for 1989.

It includes recommendations of nineteen (19) persons to be elected to Probationary Membership and nineteen (19) persons to be ordained as Deacons as well as fifteen (15) persons to be elected to Full Membership and ordained Elders. The report also includes many other persons covering a wide range of ministerial relationships.

All those being recommended for membership and ordination have submitted extensive written work to and have been interviewed by four (4) committees: The Committee on Call and Disciplined Life, the Committee on Preaching, the Committee on Worship and the Sacraments, and the Committee on Theology and Doctrine. Through this exacting process, the board seeks to make a thorough evaluation of a candidate's commitment to, preparation for, and effectiveness in ministry. As with any human endeavor, the process is not perfect..." We have this treasure in earthen vessels." But as we open ourselves, board members and candidates alike, to the sway and spur of the Holy Spirit, surely Christ's will for His Church can be done.

Ordination is a rite of the Church which represents an individual's acceptance of God's call and claim on his/her life for the upbuilding of the Body of Christ through the ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Order and an authentication of the same by the Christian community through prayers and the laying on of hands. The act of ordination is an awesome, transcendent moment when we step into and extend that "endless line of splendor" stretching back almost 2,000 years ago to that genesis day when Jesus stood on the shore of Lake Galilee and called to some fishermen, "Follow me".

Ordination, thus, is that act by which the Church symbolizes a shared relationship between those ordained for sacramental and functional leadership and the Church community from which the person being ordained has come. The community is initiated by God, is given meaning and direction by Christ, and is sustained by the Holy Spirit. (The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 1988)

The duties of the board are varied and far-reaching. They include the following items:

- 1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy.
- 2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ministry and election as Local Pastor, Associate Member, Probationary Member, or Full Conference Member.
- 3) To interview and to report recommendations concerning students to be appointed to school, candidates for ordination as Deacon, and candidates for ordination as Elder.
- 4) To interview applicants and to make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relation: Leave of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leave, Disability Leave, Termination, Less Than Full-time Ministry, or readmission to the effective or Full-time relation.
- 5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.
- 6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of ministers in the Annual Conference.
- 7) To recommend to the Full Members of the Annual Conference for validation in special ministries for which members seek appointment.
- 8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

The following reports from various committees of the board not only provide further insight into the work of the board, but they also indicate the diligence and commitment which the board members bring to their many tasks.

A special word of appreciation and commendation is expressed to the Reverend Kermit L. Braswell, Robbie Barrett, and Lynn Jefferson of the Office of Ministerial Relations. This report would not be possible apart from their superb administrative skills!

Miscellaneous Requirements. The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind the Annual Conference and the ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the NC Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic steps found in The Book of Discipline.

FULL-TIME LOCAL PASTORS not holding the M. Div. degree must complete one of the following:

- 1) Local Pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must at least complete the five-year Course of Study.
- 2) For full-time local pastors, the Board recommended that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our full-time local pastors (1980).

OR

- 3) Complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP. The Board recommended that the academic requirement be raised to four-year baccalaureate degree (1974).

PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP. Each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1988:

- 1) A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.
- 2) A course in public worship that includes the theory and practice of planning and leading public worship.

FULL CONNECTION. The Board recommended that only those persons who had completed the M. Div. degree (or its equivalent) in seminary be elected to full membership (1975). Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶ 423.3c of the 1984 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete these 3 separate and distinct courses prior to the interview:

- 1) United Methodist Polity,
- 2) United Methodist Theology and Doctrine, and
- 3) A History of Methodism.

Nominations to the Joint Review Committee:

- 1) Superintendents - appointed by the Bishop:
Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Helen G. Crotwell, Alternate-M. Randall Baker;
- 2) To be nominated and elected by the Board of Ordained Ministry:
Rodney G. Hamm, Charles K. Moseley, Alternate-Mark W. Wethington;
- 3) To be nominated by the Bishop and Board of Ordained Ministry and elected by the members in Full Connection:

J. Edward Morrison, William T. Cottingham III, Alternate-Ruth E. Herper.

NC Pastors' School: The following nominations are presented for membership on the Board of Managers from the NC Conference:

Class of 1990-James E. Creech, Edith Lee Gleaves

Class of 1991-Ernest R. Porter, H. Langill Watson

Class of 1992-Carol W. Goehring, E. Powell Osteen, Jr.

Class of 1993: Lawrence E. Johnson, William H. Gattis

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has the responsibility of working with clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship to the Annual Conference in any of the following ways:

- 1) Discontinuance from Probationary Membership
- 2) Leave of Absence or return from leave
- 3) Retirement
- 4) Sabbatical Leave
- 5) Surrender of Credentials

Upon request, the Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in his/her conference relationship. The committee provides support by posing questions and giving counsel. The committee then acts upon the request and makes recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In each situation, the person requesting the change must follow the requirements of the Discipline.

On May 8, 1989 the persons who will be retiring from the NC Annual Conference at its session in June, 1989, along with their spouses, were feted at a luncheon in Goldsboro. Following lunch, the retirees were informed about many matters related to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension. This event, held annually since 1987, has proven very helpful to those retiring.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1988 Book of Discipline, ¶445.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education throughout their careers, including carefully-developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational activities." The Discipline, ¶ 445.2, further states that,

"in most cases the ordained minister's continuing education program should allow for study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with the charges or other agencies to which they are appointed, as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining continuing education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has recognized this by requiring annual participation in a continuing education program by each ordained minister seeking appointment. (1988 Discipline, ¶ 423.2)

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly-defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g. recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) it establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) it seeks to insure their availability.

(1) Minimum Standards. The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

(2) Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs. CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by (a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), (b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or (c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

(3) Insuring Their Availability. Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church:

(1) Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

(2) Provides "study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium." Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. (1988 Discipline, ¶ 445.2)

(3) Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program.

In providing funds for continuing education programs the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Ministers: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of conference acceptances. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, and Conference-related agencies and institutions are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

(1) The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

(2) The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

(3) The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

(4) The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and District Superintendent.

In providing grants, the Conference will place limits as follows:

(1) The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

(2) For a one-week event $150.00 will be the maximum grant; for a two-week event, $300.00.

(3) The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least one Continuing Education Unit.

(4) The Conference may fund no more than 75 percent of the cost of any continuing education event.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

(1) The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation.

(2) Ministers shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting continuing education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.

(3) The district superintendent will send the pastor's continuing education report to the Director of Ministerial Relations on an annual basis so that this report can be placed in the pastor's permanent file (and possibly on computer). This information will include course title and continuing education credits.

(4) It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The Ministerial Education Fund is the major source of support for theological education in The United Methodist Church. The local church contribution to the Ministerial Education Fund is divided two ways. The larger portion (75%) is sent to the Division of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville to be divided among the United Methodist seminaries for their operating expenses and for scholarship help to minority and special students. These funds are crucial to the life of our seminaries and thus to the training of ordained ministers for the life of our church.

The remaining portion (25%) is retained by the Board of Ordained Ministry in the NC Conference.

The Board of Ordained Ministry may use its funds to provide scholarship aid for ministerial education, for continuing education, or for recruitment. The number of needy students preparing for ordained ministry and the amount of funds available mean that the ministerial Education Fund is used almost exclusively to provide scholarships for ministerial candidates.

The Board of Ordained Ministry thanks the churches in the Annual Conference for their support of the Ministerial Education Fund. These funds insure the training and continuing education for the Ministerial leadership in our Annual Conference.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION, COMMITTEE ON

Psychological Testing and Evaluation is a program of the Board of Ordained Ministry, having the responsibility of providing psychological assessment and evaluation required for all persons seeking membership in the NC Annual Conference. This program permitted by the Discipline and used by most Annual Conferences, began to be implemented in the NC Conference in the early 1980's and has been ably guided during the last two quadrennia by the Reverend Milton T. Mann.

There are two basic purposes served by psychological testing and evaluation: nurture and selection. The nurture function, expressly intended to personally benefit candidates seeking Conference membership, is accomplished when the psychological testing and assessment interview provides the candidate with information central to the candidate's achievement and maintenance of optimum psychological adjustment for effective ministry. This process may involve the identification of specific areas and potential problems which need concrete steps to ensure needed growth. The selection function, which exists for the benefit of the Annual Conference, is accomplished when early detection of behavior patterns which could jeopardize effective ministry occurs in the assessment process.

For persons seeking to transfer into our Conference from denominations other than United Methodist, and for all seeking Probationary Membership, the following tests are required: Strong/Campbell (Interests), Theological School Inventory (Religious Interest), Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and the Clinical Analysis Questionnaire (a back-up to the M.M.P.I.).

For those persons seeking to transfer into our Conference from other United Methodist conferences, the following tests are required: Personal Research Form (Values), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and Clinical Analysis Questionnaire (a back-up to the M.M.P.I.).

The cost of psychological testing and evaluation of those United Methodists from within the NC Conference seeking Probationary Membership is borne by the NC Conference. The cost of the program for those from other denominations or conferences seeking transfer into the NC Conference is borne by the individual seeking transfer.

During 1988, 32 candidates were tested through our Conference program of psychological testing and evaluation.

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

The Residency in Ordained Ministry Program may still be new to some in our Annual Conference, but the program is three (3) years old. This program was implemented because of the requirement stated in ¶417.3 of the Book of Discipline, 1988 (each Probationary Member shall have an Elder in full Connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation). Those who have been participating in the program have praised the program, complimented the leaders, and have been excited about the fellowship and collegiality that have been felt. The cluster leaders have been: The Reverends Tom Holtsclaw, Gray Southern, Hope Morgan Ward, Bill Presnell, Steve Compton, Bob Wallace, and Albert Shuler.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTION ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

The committee, established by the 1984 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to study the programs, staff, and structure of the SEJ made its report to the 1988 conference. This committee recommended the organization of the SEJ Administrative Council, providing an administrative relationship for the six agencies of the jurisdiction. The recommendation was approved overwhelmingly by the Jurisdictional Conference.

The past year has brought many changes in the SEJ Council on Ministries and Lake Junaluska Assembly as the two staff have combined to form the Administrative Council. But the transition has been smooth as we have all worked together to form a team in ministry to fulfill the purpose of the Administrative Council.

The 1988 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference elected the members of the new Administrative Council and approved the purpose of the new organization to coordinate and help make effective the ministries of the boards and agencies of The United Methodist Church as they work within the Jurisdiction; to study the changing missional needs of the Jurisdiction; to give oversight to all programs and agencies for the Jurisdiction; and to give operational oversight to and serve as trustees of Lake Junaluska Assembly and all other property held by the Council.

The Council met November 10-12 at Lake Junaluska; at that meeting the three divisions - program, agency, and Lake Junaluska - were organized. Officers of the Council and the divisions were elected and the standing committees met for work sessions and selected officers. The division and standing committee chairpersons reported back to the plenary session. The general consensus of the membership was that the Council, its work and its ministry, was off to a great start. The Council staff is now working diligently carrying out the plans and assignments from the November meeting.

The Personnel Committee of the Council was asked to begin the process for selecting an executive director. The position was advertised and 14 applications were received. Two candidates were interviewed by the committee and their nominee was presented by mailed ballot to the membership. The executive board of the Council, meeting March 10 at Lake Junaluska, announced that I had been elected executive director. I appreciate the opportunity to serve the church in this capacity and I dedicate my time, talents, energy and enthusiasm to the ministry of the Council.

The Program Division and Agency Division are carrying on the work of the Council of Ministries. Members of these divisions and the related staffpersons will continue as a bridge between the general church program agencies and the annual conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction in the implementation of the program of The United Methodist Church. They will use their skills and relationships to enable the programs of the general boards and agencies to reach the largest possible number of persons in the jurisdiction.

These divisions will be responsible for developing programs of leader development for the lay and clergy members of The United Methodist church in the jurisdiction. This will be done through the annual conference Councils on Ministries, the associations, fellowships, agencies, networks and caucuses in the jurisdiction. Staffpersons will serve as a programmatic resource for the jurisdiction, the annual conferences, the districts,, and local churches in the jurisdiction. We need your participation in the programs and leader development events sponsored by the Council. If these events are not meeting your needs and the needs of your annual conference, district, or local church, please let us know.

The 1988 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference approved the creation of the Missional Fund to support program ministries in the jurisdiction. The fund, an asking of $1,460,000 per year, is to be distributed to local churches based on 50 cents per member. The Missional Fund will support three major areas of ministry in the Southeast: 1) programs of mission and ministry related to the several committees, commissions, and agencies of the Council; 2) missional institutions serving the jurisdiction; and 3) Lake Junaluska Assembly. The fund will provide scholarships for persons with handicapping conditions, ethnic minority persons; program support for volunteers in mission, health and fitness, and communication; special programs for children, youth and adult ministry; and many other innovative programs. Hinton Rural Life Center will receive funds for new and creative programs, the Heritage Center will receive funds for exhibits and archives, Gulfside Assembly will receive support through program resources, and the Intentional Growth Center will have money for scholarships and for special constituencies. Funds allocated to the Assembly will be utilized for special capital expenses and unusual needs in the operations, primarily in the maintenance and operation of program facilities. There is something in the Missional Fund for each United Methodist in the jurisdiction. Encourage each local church to pay this asking in full; the programs of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Administrative Council need your help!

The Lake Junaluska Division will be the trustees of the Assembly and will continue many of the projects already in progress. The renovation of the wing rooms at Lambuth Inn is completed. Additions to Harrell Center and the Branscomb/Allen Administration Building are nearing completion. The new 500-seat auditorium at Harrell Center will open opportunities for programming year-round. Also included in the is project is a new Heritage Center to house a museum, library, study/research room, vault, office space and work area. The addition of 20 offices to the administration building will enable most of the staff of the new structure to be housed in one building. This should make our staff and our service to conferences more efficient. Lake Junaluska has a glorious 75-year history and will continue to be dedicated to ministry and service

The Administrative Council at its November meeting adopted a 1989 budget of just over $4 million which includes operation of Lake Junaluska Assembly under the Junaluska Division, operating the Program Division, and a partial funding of three of the affiliated agencies. In the latter days of 1988 the Lake Junaluska Assembly Foundation, the endowment arm of the Assembly, passed the $1 million mark in assets for the first time. While this was an important milestone, it also pointed out a continuing need for further development of the endowment program to fund the upkeep of some of the grand old buildings of the Assembly and to provide scholarships to some programs, so that everyone will have an opportunity to participate.

The changes of the last year have been challenging but through it all we have seen added opportunities to be in ministry and to be of even greater service to The United Methodist Church. We face the future confident that the Administrative Council will not only carry on the great tradition of Lake Junaluska and the Council on Ministries but lead the church in the Southeast to even greater opportunities of service in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Reginald W. Ponder, Executive Director

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The corporate name of the Board of Trustees no longer reflects the correct name of our denomination. The corporate charter needs to be amended, and to that end the Board recommends the following resolution for adoption:

Resolved, that the corporate name of the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the Methodist Church, Incorporated be changed to The Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, Inc.

SAINT MARK UMC - KINSTON:

St. Mark UMC in Kinston was discontinued May 11, 1988. Page 199 of the 1988 Journal states that "Property placed in the hands of the Goldsboro District Board of Trustees". During the year, questions were directed to the Conference Board of Trustees concerning the proper disposition of the St. Mark's property.

Legal counsel to the General Council on Finance and Administration has pointed out that the 1984 Discipline applied in this case and that ¶2546. states that "...it shall be the duty of the trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference."

The church is located in Kinston which is in the Greenville District but was assigned to the Goldsboro District in 1987 as part of the St. John-St. Mark Charge. A Boy's Club is currently operating in the church under arrangements with the Goldsboro District Board of Trustees.

The Conference Board of Trustees heard from United Methodists in both the Goldsboro and Greenville Districts. In view of the different opinions on this matter, all parties agreed to maintain the current status of the property until further guidance was obtained from the Annual Conference. The property is currently insured through the Conference insurance agency.

Direction concerning disposition of this property is requested. Interested parties are expected to make their own presentations to the Conference.

Myron C. Banks, Chairperson

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

In 1955, principally under the direction and guidance of Gurney P. Hood, the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was chartered to serve as an investment pool and trustee for any agency of The Conference, when requested. The Foundation also, from time to time, receives gifts and bequests on behalf of individuals or organizations and acts as Trustee according to the wishes of the donor. As of December 31, 1988, the Methodist Foundation, Inc. completed its 34th year of service to the North Carolina Conference.

This past year's operation again reflects a most favorable performance. Net dividends paid to unit holders were $1,898,693 and increase of $522,243 or 37%. The total net assets at year end had a market value of $27,166,581, and increase of $3,489,062 or 14% over 1987. This increase was from two sources: $458,192 in securities transactions and new outside funds from unit holders of $3,030,870.

There were no major changes in the operating policies and guidelines of The Foundation. And, as in the past, the Board of Pensions and the Minister's Retirement Fund continues to hold 59% of the units with a year end market value of $15,962,761 (10,845,748 units at $1.471799 each). First Union National Bank continues to manage the investment portfolio (exclusive of mortgage loans) and has exceeded the guidelines as set by the Investment Committee.

The unqualified audit by McGladry & Pullen for the past year ending December 31, 1988 is on file in the Conference Treasurer's office for review by any member of this Conference.

We are pleased to report that the Office of Planned Giving under the direction of the Reverend Douglas Byrd, Executive Director of the United Methodist Foundation, has seen remarkable growth since he was appointed to that position in October of 1985. We are deeply grateful for the contribution Douglas is making to the stewardship program of this Conference through the United Methodist Foundation. To highlight some of the significant recent developments:

1. United Methodist Foundation has experienced remarkable growth over the past few years. -- At Annual Conference 1985 there were 40 accounts in the Foundation. -- At this Annual Conference there are 104 accounts.

2. During 1988 fourteen new permanent endowment funds were created, bringing the total number of permanent endowment funds in the Foundation to 72 with assets in excess of $1.25 million.

3. During 1988 six new investment accounts were opened for churches and institutions of our Conference, bringing the total number of such investment accounts to eighteen with assets in excess of $2 million.

4. During 1988 two new life income gifts were made bringing the total of these gifts to five with a total value of $516,000.

5. The largest gift ever received by our Foundation was received during 1988 - a charitable gift annuity in the amount of $366,000. The gift portion of this planned gift will fund a permanent endowment with the Foundation which will in turn pay annual earnings to two cause of the Church within our Conference.

6. The assets of sixteen endowments and planned gifts have been increased during 1988 through additional contributions.

7. Through LIFE PLAN, the giving-through-life-insurance program of the Foundation, $660,000 in planned gifts have been put in place during 1988, bringing the total of gifts through LIFE PLAN to $910,000. These gifts all benefit local churches, institutions, and cause of the church.

8. The Foundation files contain information relating to over thirty persons and families who have included causes of the Church in their will. This continues to be the major focus of the Foundation's planned giving program.

9. The United Methodist Foundation co-sponsored with the Conference Board of Stewardship the 1988 Pastors Stewardship Seminar in September, a continuing education event for pastors of our Conference. 210 pastors participated and some had to be turned away due to limited space. An extensive written evaluation by the pastors was extremely positive.

10. We are continuing to offer planned giving events for churches across the Conference. The local church Gifts and Wills Workshops have met with a good response and positive results. The Foundation has also assisted local churches across the Conference in establishing a planned giving program and in setting up their Permanent Endowment Fund Committee in keeping with the 1988 Discipline.

In accordance with guidelines as set out by this conference, new officers and trustees have been nominated and elected for the current quadrennium. They are: President, Thomas Chandler; Vice-President, J. Allen Norris; Secretary-Treasurer, Herb Stout.

The United Methodist Foundation continues to be committed to a stewardship ministry in the North Carolina Conference that includes

...wise and prudent investment of permanent funds of the church and its many and varied missions and ministry

...creative stewardship education and opportunities that focus not only on current income but also on accumulated assets

...competent assistance to donors who want to benefit the Church and its causes

...informed consultation for churches and institutions as they seek to create an environment conducive to generous giving through sound Christian stewardship procedures.

Thomas E. Chandler, President

UNITED METHODIST MEN

This will be my final report as the NC Conference president of UMM. My very short and very quick four years as Conference president - in service to - and in ministry - with the UMM of NC is now over. you have a newly elected president and I will present him to you in just a moment.

Meanwhile, my report to you:

We have had another Conference gain in membership. We are now over 8,000 members strong - within the chartered units of NC UMM. I would estimate that there is at least another 8,000 men meeting in our churches - who, for one reason or another - have decided against the charter affiliation process. Once again I would like to extend to those of you whose units are not chartered, an invitation to become an active part of the greatest men's organization in the world.

Last year I was pleased to report to you that the men in our Conference units had contributed over $300,000 for use in mission and ministry. This year I would like to report a substantial gain in men's giving. Our combined giving is up over 50%. During 1988 the mission and ministry gifts from our men topped $450,000. The UMM of the NC Annual Conference are truly in ministry.

On May 19, 20, and 21 of 1989, the men of our Conference participated in "Spiritual Recharge 89" at NC Wesleyan College. Was it successful? You better believe it was successful! For three days we stood arm-in-arm on the very top of the mountain. For three days we had this wonderful opportunity to express our deep love for Jesus and our affection for each other. For three days we sang songs from the new hymnal - great gospel songs. We marched to Zion; we lifted high the cross. We walked with Jesus. We gathered at the river. It was indeed well with our souls.

I did receive one criticism - someone said we had too much music. I do not agree! There is never too much music!

Many of you men out there - no - most of you men out there - did not attend Spiritual Recharge 89. How sad! How sad that you did not share this experience with us. It is now a memory; a memory that you can never own. You were invited to a banquet feast - you did not come. How sad. We looked for you in the roads and hedgerows of Eastern NC - but, we could not find you. How sad. Next time - next time you must come. If you do not come you cannot partake of the banquet feast.

We are in the process of offering a series of UMM's prayer breakfast and training sessions through the Conference. These district gatherings will provide a means where men can come together and break - fast, hear the Word proclaimed and learn what it means - what it really means - to be part of UMM. Our first prayer breakfast was held in the Fayetteville District - at Hay Street UMC. District Superintendent Helen Crotwell put her good offices and influence on the line and we gathered 69 strong for this first in a series of training sessions. Was it successful? You better believe it was successful! Other district superintendents will be hard pressed to equal Helen's effort - but then Helen has always stood on the line with UMM.

The UMM of the NC Conference have a bonding - a close spiritual bonding which can - and will - serve as a foundation for the bigger and better things to come. I stand before you today - proud, proud that the men of this Conference have accepted my leadership and my love and have given me theirs in return. You know, I hug women because I really like to hug women - it's a neat thing to do. However, I also hug men. I hug men because they need my hugs and I need theirs. You see, when we UMM are together we put aside all that macho stuff - and, all genuine signs of affection and love are readily received and returned - as we stand hand-in-hand to share with other men in the ministries of Evangelism, Mission and Spiritual Life. EMS. Every Man's share; share in Evangelism, Mission and Spiritual Life. EMS.

During 1988 we raised additional money for the chapels for the mentally retarded. We sponsored a combined dinner for scouting in the Raleigh, Durham and Sanford Districts - and another Bishop's Dinner is in the offering. We sponsor the Bishop's Award of Excellence - for churches with outstanding scouters. UMM and scouters - all scouts (boys and girls alike) - are members of the same team. UMM truly support the youth of our church.

UMM's meetings were held on the district level (but not all districts participated). Some districts are not yet alive! Much has been done - much remains to be done. Our church will never function to its full potential until our men - all of our men - are renewed in the service of Jesus Christ.

It is now time to turn over the mantle of this great office to a new crew - who will do more - much more - than we did. But first, I would like to thank Dr. Rudy Hillman - who has served as vice-president - for lo these many years - and has served exceedingly well.

Let me now present - to this Conference - your new officers of UMM. They are:

As treasurer (and member of the executive committee) my dear and old friend of many years, James Toney of the great Rockingham District. As secretary (and member of the executive committee) my new and exciting friend for the last couple years, Mike Register of the great New Bern District. As vice-president, a long, long time friend and true brother in Christ, Glenn Stevens of the great Sanford District. Finally, I am privileged to present to you your new Conference president of UMM - from the great Fayetteville District - R. B. Goforth!

Ernest J. Wendell, President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

How proud I am to be a United Methodist Woman! Many have wondered at the appeal, the endurance and the strength of our organization. Very simply, I feel that its appeal is in the opportunities afforded women who are basically seekers and doers, its endurance is through the commitment of local woman to its purpose, and its strength lies in the faithfulness of women to be in mission to God in the world. The connectionalism of The United Methodist Church enables all of us to be a part of a truly supportive community and I'm equally proud to be part of this great church!

We are at the beginning of another quadrennium, but the work is the continuation of years of mission work done by women of the church. This quadrennium, we have selected for our theme Faithful Disciples - Joyful Servants. For this year, 1989, the specific theme for the year is Committing our Lives as Faithful Disciples - Joyful Servants. The theme for this year and the ones for the next three years are in keeping with who we are as UMW.

To those who bear this report and to those who will read it later in the Conference Journal, it is hoped that some insight into mission and our involvement in it will be apparent and all of you can understand the appeal of our organization that I mentioned in the beginning. Each member of UMW has given generously of her time and money to make mission possible in the immediate community, the nation, and to the far reaches of the earth. For me and the UMW in this Conference, it has been an act of review, assessment, and accountability for the year's work. It is one way of keeping alive the mission work of the organization through the years. This is the endurance that I spoke of in the beginning.

When one works day by day, it is not always possible to keep in mind that each day and each task, taken as a whole, adds up to a year of activity which, when added to the years that have gone before, puts mission into a large perspective. Whether the focus of our discipline is on beginning mission where we are - within ourselves - or on the measured effect of our corporate approach to meeting human need in hundreds of places and situations, the sum total reflects the commitment that we have made to give witness to the one who calls us to mission and the commitment that we make in being involved as Faithful Disciples - Joyful Servants.

Exciting things have happened since we last met as local units organized themselves around the purpose and mission of UMW. Through Bible study, the Prayer Calendar, spiritual enrichment retreats, prayer groups, and mission studies and events, members were given opportunities for growth in the knowledge and faith of God.

Our members experienced freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ, and enabled others to experience that freedom in many ways. These included contributions to Pledge to Mission, World Thank Offerings, and designated giving, donations to food pantries, soup kitchens, child care centers and aid to migrant workers. Other volunteer service was given in nursing homes, hospitals, child day care centers, and hospice programs.

Over and above participation in the unit programs and community activities, many units reached out to one another to create a nurturing, caring, supportive fellowship.

They observed United Methodist Women's Day, held membership campaigns, and recruited new members. Many groups honored members for outstanding service to the unit, established new cross-generational sub-groups/circles, and organized circles in nursing/retirement homes. Some also varied unit meeting times to accommodate more women, and provided child care so that young mothers could attend the unit meetings, and many other activities too numerous to mention here today.

Concepts of local and global mission were greatly enhanced as UMW members supported Meals on Wheels, clothing closets, centers for battered women and abused children, and ministries to women in prison. Others held teen pregnancy programs, sponsored health fairs, or participated in the Heifer Project. Groups helped establish shelters for the homeless, supported youth work teams and provided scholarships for their members to attend Conference events and scholarships for children to attend summer camps and special events.

We celebrate together the members of the local units of UMW and commend them for their continuing involvement in the mission of the church through their endurance and their commitment as Faithful Disciples - Joyful Servants.

Each year we look forward to sharing with the Annual Conference a report of our mission and ministry. This year we report - with joy:

Membership - There are 25,155 members in 547 local units in the 12 Districts of the NC Conference. Each district has been encouraged to set a goal of organizing at least two new units this year and we encourage local units to work on recruiting new members and forming new sub-groups or circles. If we are to meet our goal of one and a half million women in UMW by 1990, we will need to meet those goals.

Finance - Members of UMW today, like our predecessors, have committed ourselves and our gifts to relieve suffering and improving the quality of life for all people. Our Pledge to Mission in 1988 was $305,513.00 and we exceeded our pledge by $56,903.49 - which means that we paid 118% of our Pledge to Mission. The Love Offering received at our Annual Meeting in October was $12,672.04. It was divided equally between Walnut Terrace Child Development Center in Raleigh and Roberson County Church and Community Center in Lumberton. The Candie Burning offering was $19,111.41 which was for undesignated giving. The NC Conference UMW continues to be in mission with our gifts and our commitment.

Scholarship Program: We participate in a scholarship program. For the 1988-89 academic year, scholarships totalling $5,275.00 were awarded to 17 students - 7 here at Methodist College - 7 at Duke University - 2 at NC Wesleyan and 1 at Louisburg. For the academic year 1989-90, the amount of scholarship aid has been increased to $6,500.00 and those have already been awarded for the coming year.

Education - Education can help people overcome limiting ways and move them into more mature expressions of faith. Some times and places were set aside during the year for intentional educational and spiritual growth experiences. These included:

1. Christian Personhood Retreat - was held May 19-20 on the campus of Louisburg College with Wanda Black from the Mississippi Conference as our leader. Approximately 300 women participated in the Friday evening and Saturday experience.

2. Conference Summer School - which is supported by UMW, was well attended by UMW where they had the opportunity to study the current mission studies - South Africa, Ruth and Esther, and Faces of Poverty in our Midst.

3. The Annual Meeting - was held here at Methodist College with approximately 650 people attending. The Goldsboro District was hostess for the meeting. The theme was Shalom is Joy and Hope and our keynote speaker was our own Tibbie Roberts who has just completed eight years on the Women's Division, Board of Global Ministries. 13 workshops which were related to the work of the UMW gave opportunity for learning during the Saturday session.

4. Leader Development - Do-It-Day (District Officers in Training Day) was held in Centenary UMC on Saturday, November 5, 1988. Approximately 175 women were present to receive training for their responsibilities in the districts.

5. 39 and Under Event - was held March 17-18 here at Methodist college with a group of about 125 young women who were excited and enthused about being a part of UMW.

6. Campaign for Children - a project of Women's Division in cooperation with the Children's Defense Fund is a plan which will enable all local units to have some "hands on" mission experiences. I hope that you have already heard about this campaign in your local churches and that you will be hearing more about it, as we are involved in a five-year program.

7. The Committee on the Charter for Racial Justice - is developing a model program to be presented on the Conference, district, and local levels in order to implement a plan of action developed by the Women's Division to eliminate institutional racism.

8. Other Opportunities: Two of our Conference officers went to NY in December for New Officer Training. Two members of the Conference Committee on Nominations attended a training event in Chicago in January. Your Conference president has attended two meetings in Atlanta since the first of the year - one with the SEJ Core Planning Group (which included all the Conference presidents in the SEJ) and the other was with the staff person assigned to our Region from the Women's Division. These opportunities that we have to learn and grow are most important in our program of mission.

The Conference Mission Team attended the South Atlantic Regional School of Missions at Rust College in Holly Springs, MS, last year and will be returning there again next week to take the up-coming mission studies for 1989-90 and officer up-date programs. Robbie Barrett, our vice-president, serves on the School Planning Committee.

On April 8, the World Federation of Methodist Men, state-wide gathering, met in Burlington at Emmanuel Church. This was a great time for a gathering of the African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Zion, Christian Methodist Episcopal and UMW. There were about 175 women in attendance and the program, fellowship and spiritual uplifting was excellent. The theme for the quinquennial gathering was Growing in Christ.

Each year UMW gives a scholarship to a young woman from our Conference to attend the SEJ Youth-In-Mission Conference at Lake Junaluska. "Sissy" Bailey of Pikeville has received the scholarship this year and will be attending the conference.

Several of our Christian Social Involvement and Supportive Community mission coordinators attended a conference on Women, Faith, and Housing - A Decent Place to Live in Durham in April. It gave them an opportunity to learn about avenues of action for our mission emphasis on poverty.

History - We are very lucky to have an outstanding historian who is very knowledgeable about collecting and preserving our history. Our historical repository is here at the Library on this campus.

Reading Program - Participation in the Reading Program grows each year. The districts reading the greatest number of books are recognized at our Annual Meeting.

Communications - Our secretary of publicity and public relations prepares about 25 columns for the NC Christian Advocate each year to keep both of our conferences informed about the work of UMW. Four issues of our Conference Newsletter (KEDE) is also prepared and published by her. In addition to the Conference newsletter, most of the districts publish a newsletter also and the Conference officers communicate, at least quarterly, with their counterparts in the district.

We continue to be represented on the Women's Division, Board of Global Ministries by the election of Dr. Jimmie B. Shuler last summer at Jurisdictional Conference at Lake Junaluska. At the same time, Margaret Saunders was elected to the Board of Global Ministries. Both of these women serve on our Executive Committee and help to keep us informed about what is going on in mission in the larger church.

The fact that UMW are continually striving to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church has a spill-over effect for the rest of the church, as that knowledge is then put into effect when local churches are faced with mission decisions and studies.

Yes, I am of the opinion that UMW have definitely had an impact on the mission of the church. This we will continue to do because we are dedicated to the purpose of the organization and to continuing "to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church".

May God continue to keep us strong and faithful to our tasks.

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"Teenagers get a bum rap. Always have. For some reason, if you're between twelve and twenty, you're suspect. Cops stare and senior citizens glare. Why? Well...

You drive too fast, you think too slow, you aren't responsible, and you can't be trusted. The music you listen to is wild-n-wicked, the stuff you read is shallow or sleazy, the places you go are loud and low class. Your clothes are wrinkled, your room's a wreck, your car's a god, your friends are cheap, your ghetto blaster's too big, and your work is sloppy. And dare I mention manners? You talk with your mouth full, you slump and slurp, you don't look people in the eye, you treat your brother and sister like they have leprosy in the advanced stages, and you belch like there's no tomorrow. You're allergic to things like homework, dirty dishes, elevator music on KBIG, vacations with the family, hanging up the phone, saying "thank you", the "off" switch on the TV, getting up in the morning, and going to bed at night.

If you've got a few bucks, you're probably dealing drugs. If you're interested in church, it's probably because there's some fox you're lookin' at. If you date a lot, you're probably messing around. If you don't come home when you said you would, you're probably where you shouldn't be. If you're not into the preppie Joe College scene, you probably have no ambition. And if you don't get a job, you're a slob. If you frown at times, you've got a rotten attitude. If you cough a lot, you've been smoking pot, and if you weave out of the lane, you're obviously drunk."

Charles R. Swindoll's book, Come Before Winter: Share My Hope, expresses these sentiments. However, as he continues, Swindoll says, "By in large, the youth of today are loaded with talent, have incredible potential, and whenever they get their rear in gear, can accomplish phenomenal feats".

With great pride, I second these opinions expressed by Mr. Swindoll, especially when speaking of youth from the NC Conference. This year, after seeing them get their "rears in gear", I have seen our youth climb to the top of the mountain. Our youth came in fourth in the US after they raised over $25,000.00 for the Youth Service Fund, surpassing their goal of $24,000.00.

I can tell from first hand experience of children whom I have seen benefit from the money given to Youth Service Fund. Boy's Harbor in NY City was the recipient of some of our monies raised. This organization provides inner-city children the opportunity to participate in wholesome and healthy after-school activities, including games and educational classes.

In West Virginia, young people give of their time and talents to repair and build elderly people's homes in the Appalachian Service Project. Many people benefit from the efforts of these teen-agers.

The New Bern Religious Community Soup Kitchen provides two warm meals a day for those unfortunate people who do not have homes in the New Bern area. Without the support of Youth Service Fund, this effort to feed the hungry would go lacking.

Swindoll jokingly says youth listen to "wild-n-wicked" music. However, we the youth of this Conference have dedicated ourselves to sing for God. This is exemplified by the sponsoring of the largest youth event in the history of the NC Conference. On November 18, here at Methodist College, we will sponsor "Face the Music", a one-day celebration of Contemporary Christian Music. This event features Mylon LeFevre and Broken Heart, along with a great supporting cast of musicians and performers. Much interest has already been shown for this event by the large number of early applications we have already received.

The Annual Conference Session for the Youth still proves to be our most popular event. Last year, with over 300 delegates we passed resolutions concerning many different social and political issues, such as US intervention in other countries. Again, our youth prove to have their minds on things other than sex, drugs, and rock-n-roll.

Our youth continue to impress me and others as well, not only by their faith and love for others, but by their continually showing and using their God-given gifts and talents. And as Matthew 25:29 states, "For the man who uses well what he is given shall be given more, and he shall have abundance". This scripture gives me the faith to believe that the great youth of our Conference will overcome all the many obstacles which comes with being a teen-ager. They have proven over and over again that they can multiply their talents, love, and faith in God by believing not only in themselves but in the power of the Cross.

I am proud of the accomplishments of the NC Conference UMY Fellowship. Truly, they have shown that they have used well the talents given them. It is with great anticipation that I await their accomplishments of the future. Support them, pray for them, love them, and nurture them in all that they attempt to do for the glory of God.

David Miller, President

C. RESOLUTIONS

Abortion

Whereas, we understand God to be the giver of all life, and believe that God in Christ Jesus died for each human being, we therefore view the preborn child as our neighbor whose life is within the scope of the inclusive love of God;

Whereas, the Missouri case, Webster vs. Reproductive Health Services, which was recently heard before the Supreme Court of the United States, may result in restricting or overturning the 1973 Roe vs. Wade decision in which the Supreme Court superseded all state statutes and legalized abortion on demand;

Whereas, the ruling on the case, Webster vs. Reproductive Health Services, may return the jurisdiction of abortion regulation to the states;

Be it resolved, that in the event of abortion regulation being returned to the jurisdiction of the states, the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, in the spirit of the 1988 Discipline, urges all state legislatures to work for the purpose of passing legislation which will protect the lives of preborn babies.

Acid Rain

Whereas, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church states in its "Social Principles" that "we support and encourage social policies that...enhance the rejuvenation of polluted air, water, and soil;"

Whereas, in "Environmental Stewardship," included in The Book of Resolution of The United Methodist Church (1984), our denomination declared "some thought higher smokestacks would help disperse air pollutants; instead we have more acid rain:"

Whereas, in the same resolution our denomination advocated action on this issue by stating: "Special attention should be given to such long-range air quality problems as the depletion of the ozone layer, the heating of the atmosphere, and acid rain. We support international and bilateral efforts to eliminate the cause of such long-term problems:"

Whereas, God's people are to be stewards of all the gifts of creation:

Whereas, the National Geographic Society has cited acid rain as being one of the three most pressing problems for America's woodlands:

Whereas, a United Nations conference in the fall of 1977 recognized acid rain as a global pollution problem:

Whereas, "leaching," the process of materials in or on the soil gradually dissolving and being carried away by water seeping through the soil, is exacerbated by acid rain:

Whereas, Walter W. Heck of North Carolina State University stated as early as 1973 that "we are not far from pollution levels which could cause precipitous effects on agricultural production in the more humid areas of the United States:"

Whereas, acid rain is a disturbing influence in the world's natural ecosystems, causing decreased productivity within these ecosystems:

Whereas, the general public and governments of the nations of the Northern Hemisphere need to be better informed of the immediacy of the acid rain problem especially in this most effected part of the world:

Whereas, acid rain also effects the water supply, and it has been projected that, by the year 2000, one trillion gallons of fresh water will be demanded by the world's people even while supplies will remain steady at less than seven hundred million gallons:

Whereas, in the United States, the National Institute of Health receive one hundred times as much funding as the National Science Foundation, our nation's agency for basic research in ecology:

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church actively supports measures that address the immediate needs created by the problem of acid rain:

Be it further resolved, that we support funding for programs designed to attack acid rain as a debilitating force in nature:

Be it further resolved, that we support efforts of educating the world's people on the ominous dangers of acid rain:

And be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to President George Bush, Senator Terry Sanford, Senator Jesse Helms, all members of NC's delegation to the US House of Representatives, all State senators and representatives in NC, and Brian Mulroney, Prime Minister of Canada.

Apartheid

Whereas, Jesus has taught us to speak of this hope as the coming of God's kingdom, we believe that God is at work in our world turning hopeless and evil situations to good so that God's Kingdom may come and God's will may be done on earth as in heaven. We believe that goodness and justice and love will triumph in the end and that tyranny and oppression cannot last forever. (Section 4.5, p. 26 of the Kairos Document)

Whereas, apartheid is a system of racial discrimination and exploitation employed by the minority ruled government of South Africa which excludes the black majority from having any voice in the government;

Whereas, Black South Africans have no vote in the central government of the country and cannot be elected to an office in the central government;

Whereas, Black South Africans in the apartheid system cannot own land in any city, town, or industrial area and the 13% of the land which they occupy continues to be arbitrarily taken away from them without recourse from the courts;

Whereas, Black South Africans in the apartheid system cannot move freely about the country since laws restrict them either to city ghettos or barren reservations;

Whereas, families are separated and men live in filthy single-sex hostels;

Whereas, the people suffer from malnutrition, poor health, and chronic unemployment, while South Africa is the leading exporter of foods in Africa;

Whereas, in the government imposed state of emergency, the police can raid homes, beat, and harass blacks without cause;

Whereas, persons that oppose apartheid, or are suspected of opposition can be jailed, detained, or forced into exile, and the laws of South Africa empower police to arrest and detain anybody without pressing charges for as long as they want;

Whereas, persons can be hanged based on circumstantial evidence and 98% of persons hanged are black and 60% of them are young people;

Whereas, South Africa has used war to destabilize its neighboring countries;

Whereas, partial sanction can only mean partial effect; and

Whereas, total divestment, divestment and complete economic sanctions are the last peaceful actions for pressuring the South African government to change from the apartheid system;

Therefore, be it further resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church continue to condemn this system of racial discrimination and exploitation known as apartheid and urge sanctions by our government against the Republic of South Africa.

Be it further resolved that we as Christians, openly oppose apartheid and refuse to be involved with businesses and corporations that cooperate with countries imposing apartheid. We affirm that it is repugnant to the essence of The United Methodist Church that believes all Christians are members of the body of Christ; and that we as members of The United Methodist Church will work to expose apartheid practices within the church and in our own country as we do in other countries.

Be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the General Secretary of the United Nations, President George Bush, Senator Jesse Helms, Senator Terry Sanford, the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives, Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate, the North Carolina Senate, and House of Representatives.

Hazardous Waste

Whereas, we in the NC Conference are a segment of the family of God and are called in the Scripture to be caring stewards of God's gifts:

Whereas, we are, as human beings, at this moment faced with environmental catastrophe brought about by ignorance, materialism, and deliberate abuse of earth's finite resources;

Whereas, life on earth in all its forms is dependent on clean water and clean air and our fragile mother earth has no more water to give;

Whereas, hazardous waste produced by industry cannot be managed, even using the best technologies, without damage to air and water;

Therefore, we urgently call for State and National policies that require, as the first step...mandatory reduction of hazardous waste at the source of generation as part of the permitting process, with recycling and reuse of wastes that (at this time) cannot be prevented as the second step, treatment of residuals remaining as the third step, and placing remaining residues in above ground retrievable storage as the final step.

And be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to Senators Terry Sanford and Jesse Helms, Governor Martin, all members of NC's delegation to the US House of Representatives, and all NC state senators and representatives.

Household Waste

Whereas, we are drowning in our household waste as it grows in mountainous piles and pits on the land, contaminates rivers and oceans, leaks pollutants into groundwater, and befouls the air we breathe;

Whereas, there is ultimately no such thing as "disposal" or "cleanup" -- that is, no "away";

Whereas, management of waste carries high economic cost, there is a growing shortage of landfill space, and incineration has been plagued with economically and environmentally costly incidents;

Whereas, every individual and every church can act to reduce waste produced within households and churches;

Whereas, recycling is a known way to reduce the volume of solid waste;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church call for

1. distribution to the churches of our Conference an ecological self-evaluation sheet designed to be distributed to members in order to stimulate waste volume reduction by householders (available at Annual Conference);
2. encouragement of local church members to participate in planning for county and community recycling projects and in the actual recycling of glass, aluminum, newspapers, etc.;
3. encouragement of the Annual Conference, churches and individuals to buy products with recycled content for at least 5% of their office needs;
4. encouragement of individuals and families to compost organic waste;
5. encouragement of each church to purchase and circulate copies of the booklet, Add Justice to your Shopping List (on UMW Reading Program List, 1988, from Service Center)

Be it further resolved, that we

1. call for the state of NC to establish a 25% minimum recycling goal by January 1, 1993;
2. we call for the State to require its agencies to develop a plan to participate in meeting this state-wide recycling goal;

3. we call for the State to require its agencies to give preference to the purchase of products with recycled content;
4. we call for the state to require each county to develop a comprehensive solid waste management program for the county by January 1, 1992 including the above recycling goal.

Be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to Governor James Martin and to all State senators and representatives in NC.

Lumbee Indian Recognition

Whereas, Holy Scripture reveals the concern of our Lord Jesus Christ for the plight of both the poor and the oppressed (Luke 4:18-19); and

Whereas, Holy Scripture also reveals the concern of God over the identity of his peoples (Exodus 6:5-7); and

Whereas, this Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church has one of the highest number of Native American peoples both within its boundaries and membership; and

Whereas, this Annual Conference is on record to both pray and work for "grace and justice" in Robeson County (1988 Journal, page 195); and

Whereas, one specific concern of the Native American people of Robeson County is that our federal government has never seen fit to grant legally tribal status to the Lumbees, a tribe of 40,000; and

Whereas, this denial results in certain federal monies and assistance programs being withheld from many who are poor and in need; and

Whereas, efforts to secure this recognition have been underway ever since 1888, and

Whereas, the matter is once again before the US Congress (House Bill #5042 and Senate Bill #2672);

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference go on record supporting the efforts of the Lumbees to secure tribal recognition and all benefits it shall afford; and

Be it also resolved, that we encourage our elected officials in Washington to appropriate such funding for the needs of all Native American tribes so that this recognition would not reduce any federal assistance to those tribes already receiving such monies; and

Be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to both the House and Senate members of our NC Congressional delegation, the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, and the President of the United States; and

Be it finally resolved, that as the North Carolina Annual Conference, we prayerfully dedicate ourselves to continue to address the issues of poverty, injustice, inequity, and indifference as they impinge upon the lives of all the Native American people within our boundaries.

Open Itinerary

Whereas, the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church has recently responded to the Council of Bishops call to become Faithful Disciples < = > Vital Congregations by undertaking a four year program of church vitalization that makes use of specific goal setting to assure both mission and growth in both our local congregations and in the Conference at large;

Whereas, racism and sexism in both their most subtle and manifest forms continue to inhibit growth within our churches and give evidence of a desire not to grow but to restrict;

Whereas, our Bishop, Carlton P. Minnick, has described racism as a secular value to which we cling rather than a gospel or kingdom value as espoused by our Lord Jesus Christ;

Whereas, secular institutions such as the public schools, the military, major business corporations and professional athletic teams have been able to implement programs of both inclusiveness and equal opportunity, and the church has not, either out of fear or ignorance;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference, to be both faithful disciples and vital congregations, set a specific date as a goal to have implemented an "open itineracy" system for the appointment of its ministers, without regard to either sex, race or age;

Be it further resolved, that this date be the Annual Conference session, 1995.

Plastics & Styrofoam

Whereas, the production of plastics and styrofoam releases chemicals that damage the ozone layer which provides natural protection for the earth from excessive exposure to solar radiation;

Whereas, plastics and styrofoam are made of valuable petroleum which is a finite resource;

Whereas, plastics and styrofoam are not readily decomposable and biodegradable;

Whereas, as a Christian people we are called to be good stewards of God's beloved creation;

Therefore, be it resolved, that as a witness, the NC Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, to the degree possible, discontinue using styrofoam and disposable plastic products at all Conference and district sponsored events, and that as an alternative, the use of paper and/or china products be encouraged, and that each local church consider resolutions in their administrative boards or councils to do the same, to the end that both the members and ministers of the NC United Methodist churches rediscover the joy and fellowship of dishwashing.

Sounds & Coastal Estuaries

Whereas, we regard the NC coastal waters as a gift of God to be used, preserved, and protected for His glory and for the health and welfare of all;

Whereas, our sounds and coastal estuaries are dying: for many years, they have been subjected to the infusion of dangerously polluted water, agricultural runoff, and devastating erosion;

Whereas, we have a responsibility as Christian stewards for the second largest estuary in the contiguous United States, and these bodies of water can be restored to health with proper action;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference's United Methodist members and churches be encouraged to give their support to the actions of concerned organizations (such as NC Coastal Federation, NC Marine Education Foundation, Save Our Sounds, S.E.A.S.), so that recovery might more quickly come to the life giving waters of our sounds and estuaries.

Third World Debt

Whereas, Christian compassion leads us and other North Americans to seek to help with the development needs of "third world" countries, to alleviate terrible problems of hunger, disease, illiteracy, and other problems related to poverty; and,

Whereas, we have supported developmental foreign aid of various types for the development of these third world countries, one of the types of foreign aid having been development loans; and

Whereas, accumulated indebtedness from these loans, and from the debt service thereon, has been placing enormous burdens upon the governments, the economies, and the people of the third world countries, to the point that a large portion of much-needed foreign earnings have gone merely to pay interest on foreign debt. (Our Annual Conference Task Force on the International Covenant Community, on its team's visit to Peru in May of 1989, found that all of the church's and the nation's problems are worsened by the economic strictures occasioned by foreign debt); and

Whereas, we as Christians still seek to aid in the economic development of third world nations, and we seek to have our government help;

Therefore, be it resolved, that we urge the government of the United States to take additional measures, through the Congress, the Administration, and through international agencies such as the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank, to help in the economic development of third world nations. These should include consideration of working out arrangements for the rescheduling of debt for needy countries wherever feasible, and forgiving of the debt repayment, both principal and interest, for nations for which repayment is impossible; and that we further urge our government in the meantime to refrain from punitive measures or sanctions towards nations unable to make payments on schedule.

Two Alcohol Concerns

Whereas, the drug alcohol continues to be used at an alarmingly high rate;

Whereas, the liquor, beer and wine industries stand to gain a great deal by the continuing use of alcohol, along with the supporting and collaborating industries of advertising, sports, and entertainment;

Whereas, the concept of "responsible drinking" is a myth, inasmuch as the addictive personality is most attracted to it and least able to practice it;

Whereas, current alcoholic beverage advertising has crossed over long-respected boundaries not to use animals or sports heroes, and are also using "role model" young adults engaged in otherwise healthy pursuits of outdoor activity, and are thereby moving towards involving younger people in destructive, unhealthy behavior:

Whereas, current health and safety research has established more and more links between alcohol use and crime, child abuse, spouse abuse, domestic violence, fatal and crippling auto accidents (such as the tragic deaths of the four Fogleman family members), heart disease, high blood pressure, liver disease, and aggravated diabetes:

Therefore, be it resolved, that the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church:

1. Support efforts to eliminate the advertising of intoxicating beverages from TV and radio;
2. Support an alcohol beverage labeling act;
3. Support a federally lowered "allowable blood alcohol level" for drivers to .04 of 1%.

Be it further resolved, that we

1. Encourage all persons to abstain from the use of the drug alcohol.
2. Support the lowering of the "allowable blood alcohol level" for drivers in NC to .04 of 1%;
3. Stand against attempts to decriminalize first offenses in drug and alcohol impairment cases;
4. Support all actions of the family unit in this regard, as well as the efforts of such groups as Mothers Against Drunk Driving (i.e., Red Ribbon Campaign), and Students Against Drunk Driving (i.e., in-school programs);
5. Support and plan for alcohol-free prom and graduation events;
6. Support the toughening of the "open container" law to include all persons in a vehicle; (currently all but the driver may have an open beer in their hands)
7. Support license plate confiscation when a driver's license is revoked;
8. Support tougher penalties for driving with license revoked, especially if drinking;
9. Support offender-funded "driving while impaired" programs;
10. Encourage interested persons to become "court monitors" as a form of witness;
11. Encourage persons to become "victim advocates."

UMCOR 50th Anniversary

Whereas, 1990 will mark the 50th anniversary of the United Methodist Committee on Relief, and

Whereas, the United Methodist Committee on Relief has enabled members of The United Methodist Church to respond to the suffering of the world in Jesus' name, providing life-saving actions to people in crisis and despair, and

Whereas, the United Methodist Committee on Relief has involved United Methodist Church members in ministry with refugees and initiated and supported programs which work to alleviate the root causes of hunger,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church affirms the history and work of the United Methodist Committee on Relief and commends the members of its United Methodist churches for their support of the United Methodist Committee on Relief and encourages each local church to have 100% participation in giving to the One Great Hour of Sharing each year, and

Be it further resolved, that the North Carolina Conference reaffirms the mandate of the United Methodist Committee on Relief in relief, rehabilitation, root causes of hunger, and refugee ministries and pledges its cooperation to enable each church to celebrate the 50 years of service of UMCOR and to dedicate support to the future work of this Committee.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying fund balance sheet of Herb Stout, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1988, and the related statement of revenue, expense or distribution and fund balances for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Herb Stout, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1988, and the revenue, expense or distribution and fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business:

The Conference was established to handle transactions for the operations and programs sponsored by 843 churches in Eastern North Carolina. The Conference also administers the Annual Conference and collects funds from the general and jurisdictional conferences and forwards these funds to the designated recipients. Fund transactions included within this report represent all funds administered by the treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting:

To ensure observance of limitations placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes.

The assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Conference are reported in two Board-designated self-balancing fund groups:

- . Annual Budget Funds, which are represented by various annual funds, are determined by the Annual Conference, and all funds are raised by member churches.
- . Special Funds, are funds created by the Conference for special purposes.

Other accounting policies:

Real estate, major additions to real estate, and major purchases of furniture and equipment are stated at cost. The Conference does not record depreciation.

Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is based on specific-identification basis.

Funds for investment are combined into one investment pool for marketable securities and cash equivalents. Earnings are allocated to pension and insurance funds based on average ownership interest in the pooled funds. Earnings for all other investments are recorded in the fund owning the assets.

The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from outreach ministries of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue from outreach ministries shown in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Fund Balances will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $50,000 to be maintained as a compensating balance. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds invested in this program each business day are available for immediate withdrawal the next business day. Invested cash in this program at December 31, 1988 is $1,049,000 and is included in cash in the accompanying fund balance sheet.

	$2,060,226

Note 5. Supplemental Appropriations and Other Revenue

Supplemental Appropriations and Other Revenue includes appropriations received by each fund and revenue received by each fund.

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981 the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide pension benefits as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a jurisdictional conference, ministerial members of an annual conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1988 is based on 11% of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan and who receive plan compensation equal to the lesser of 60 percent of Conference Average Salary or 60 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation. Funding is based on 4.1% of actual plan compensation.

The Conference collects the required contributions for defined contribution plans described above from the employers of plan participants and remits all collections to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1981. On January 1, 1989 the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $254 was approximately $22,464,269. Current expense for prior service liability was $1,660,990. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

Note 7. Fund Balance

Certain funds represent amounts raised and expended during the current year. As a result, these funds have no assets, liabilities or fund balance.

Note 8. Related Party Transactions

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church. Accounts receivable of $446,600 from the Foundation represent dividends due to various funds of the Conference for 1988. Accounts payable of $1,660,990 to the Foundation represent payments of 1988 pension expense by the Foundation on behalf of the Board of Pensions. Transfers for these balances are to be made according to the unit investment policies of the Foundation.

On January 1, 1988, the Conference transferred marketable securities at market of $5,318,029 to The United Methodist Foundation as the purchase of new units in the Foundation.

Note 9. Commitments

The Conference provides group health, life and dental plans for Conference employees and local church pastors and lay employees. The Conference has elected to self-insure the health and dental plans with a modified minimum premium contract. Under this program the Conference paid claims of $1,929,943 in 1988.

The Conference has entered into a standby letter of credit of $261,800 which guarantees commitments for group insurance plans. The letter of credit is secured by investments. No amounts have been advanced under this letter of credit at December 31, 1988.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON THE SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Unitholders of United Methodist Foundation, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1988 and 1987, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1988 and 1987, and the results of its operations and changes in its net assets for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations:

United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of the United Methodist Church. The Foundation also receives gifts and bequests on behalf of the member organizations.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities:

Investments are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities.

General:

The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for 1988 and 1987 were as follows:

	1988	1987
Cost of purchases:
U. S. Government securities	$ 2,908,215	$ 3,173,298
Short-term investments	9,559,900	4,434,400
Other securities	5,510,890	3,600,762
	$17,979,005	$11,208,460
Proceeds from sales:
U. S. Government securities	$ 2,557,969	$ 1,522,641
Short-term investments	9,668,900	5,125,600
Other securities	4,570,793	3,683,340

Note 3. Commitments

The Foundation has entered into a standby letter of credit of $261,800 which guarantees commitments of the North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of the United Methodist Church. The letter of credit is secured by investments of the Foundation. No amounts have been advanced under this letter of credit at December 31, 1988.
